The report of the Committee on Mission Premises in Egypt was read and adopted, and is as follows:—

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of last year for the purpose of raising ($30,000,) thirty thousand dollars, for Missionary premises in Alexandria and Ramleh in Egypt, report, that although the Church did not raise the two-thirds of that sum by the 1st of November, the time to which the principal donor on the original subscription for that purpose limited the church; yet, in view of the fact that the church took efficient measures for the securing of these funds at an early day, and pledged herself for them, and, also in view of the fact that gold arose soon after the close of the Synodical year to almost the price of three to one, and that some allowance ought to be made on this account, he, Samuel Barnett, with the other subscribers paid in the sums attached to their names. C. Arbuthnot, and other friends, who advocated the cause on the floor of General Assembly, also paid the sums offered by them at the time of ($1,000, $500,) one thousand dollars, and five hundred dollars, &c.

As it was impossible for the Committee to visit the churches personally, as soon as the deranged state of the currency would admit, they printed and sent out circulars calling upon ministers and others to lay the subject before their people. Some responses were made, but not to the extent hoped for. Several meetings were held in Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities by the friends of the cause, at which much interest was manifested in it, and considerable sums collected over and above all that was hoped for. The Prince Dhuleep Singh gave in Egypt the sum of ($5,000,) five thousand dollars, in gold, to the same cause.

Yet, notwithstanding all these efforts, the amount realized still falls far short of the sum proposed. We would suggest that this cause be again presented to our Churches; and that where nothing has been done, ministers be urged to make this a subject of early effort. The present condition and prospects of the missionary work in that field as manifested by the report of the Board for this year, must still farther impress all with the importance and necessity of this fund being speedily made up. Let the churches manifest that they do duly appreciate the efforts of those liberal-minded men who devise liberal things. Let us all be provoked to jealousy by the action and liberal course of that Prince, who has so lately embraced Christianity, and who is doing so much for his adopted religion. All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES BARNETT, Chairman of Committee.

Done at Washington, Iowa, May 27, 1865.

The reports of the Presbyteries were referred to the committee on the Narrative and State of Religion.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Wheeling in relation to efforts to promote a union of our Church with the Church of the Waldenses and other Psalm-singing churches of this country and the British Provinces of North America, was read, and referred to a select committee, consisting of Revs. R. Gracey, D. D., and John T. Brownlee and Mr. A. J. Burgess.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:—

Resolved, That Rev. J. G. Brown, D. D., and Messrs. William M. Bell and J. C. Porter, who were appointed by the Board to fill vacancies occasioned by the neglect of the last Assembly to elect three trustees, be appointed members of the Board of Trustees for two years from the first Tuesday of July, 1865; and that Rev. R. Gracey, D. D., and Messrs. Charles Arbutnot and Thomas M'Cance, whose terms of office expire on the first Tuesday of July, 1865, be re-appointed for three years from that date.

By order of the Committee.

J. A. P. M'GAW, Chairman.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented a report, which was read and accepted. During the discussion of the report, Rev. Jacob R. Shipherd, Secretary of the North-western Freedmen's Aid Commission, was introduced, and addressed the Assembly on behalf of said Commission. On motion of Revs. R. D. Harper, D. D., and H. H. Hervey, it was Resolved, That the Assembly have heard with great pleasure the remarks of Mr. Shipherd in behalf of the benevolent institution which he represents.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Education. Said report was discussed, amended and adopted, and is as follows:—

Your Committee having examined the report of the Committee on the Board of Education, and other documents and facts in relation to the education of young men for the work of the holy ministry, would respectfully report:

That, in our opinion, this important part of the church's work, in years past, has been deplorably neglected. It appears from the report of the Board that but twelve students have been receiving aid during the last year—not more than one man for every four Presbyteries composing our Church—and that in a manner which tends rather to retard than to accelerate their way to the ministry. Surely each Presbytery, if not each congregation, composing the United Presbyterian Church, might influence some young man of talents and good character to give himself to the Lord in the work of the ministry, and encourage him by their prayers and liberal contributions in preparing for the same. How soon might an army of young men be raised up to go forth to do the work of the Lord, if we would only do our duty as ministers and elders in presenting the matter to the people.

The war which has so long desolated our land, we trust, is over. Our noble defenders are once more returning to their homes. Many of them having served their country, and rescued its flag from insult and dishonour, will, we trust, now be willing to volunteer anew under the banner of Jesus, and contend for the final establishment of the principles of the Cross. Let us not withhold our encouragement. Millions of the once oppressed are now free. Are we not called upon to educate the black man, that he may go and preach the gospel to his own colour? In view of the callings of Providence for an increased number of ministers to go forth into the vineyard of the Lord, and the little that we, as a church, have done in years that are past in this work, we respectfully submit the following resolutions to this Assembly for your consideration:—

Resolved, 1st, That we, as ministers and elders, take a deep interest henceforward in this matter, and that we show our zeal by recommending to the work of the ministry such young men in our congregations as we know to be of good, pious and promising character.

Resolved, 2d, In order to meet what may be the demands upon the Board during the coming year, the Assembly appropriate the sum of $10,000, to be raised in the same manner as the other funds of the Church.

Resolved, 3d, That the fourth rule adopted by the General Assembly of 1861 be changed so as to read thus: "The maximum of contributions to any one student be $1,000, and that it be left to the Presbytery and the Board to determine during what time this money shall be expended, and that contributions to any one student for one year shall not exceed $200."

Resolved, 4th, That the first part of the fifth rule be stricken out, regulating the receiving of moneys, and that the last part of the rule be retained, which reads thus: "I do agree, that if I do not in due course of time enter the ministry of the U. P. Church, or, having entered it, do not continue in the same, the sum above mentioned shall then become due and payable at the pleasure of the Board, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from date."

Resolved, 5th, That this Assembly recommend the ministers under her care to bring this subject before their respective congregations as soon as convenient, and that the people be urged to respond to this call as the Lord hath prospered them.

Resolved, 6th, That the educational training of our young men for the ministry should be thorough, according to the highest standard of classic literature.

Resolved, 7th, That we commend to the Colleges in connection with the U. P. Church to secure uniformity in their curriculum.

Resolved, 8th, That we recommend the same to the Theological Seminaries connected with the U. P. Church.

Resolved, 9th, That a Committee be appointed by this Assembly, whose duty it shall be to prepare a report on this subject, and present it our next General Assembly, to meet in Allegheny City, in May, 1866.

Resolved, 10th, That John Scott, David Turnbull and Thomas Johnston, whose term of office expires with this meeting, be re-elected.

MARCUS ORMOND,	} Committee
D. F. REID,
J. M. GRAHAM,
S. MADILL,
A. J. BURGESS,

Resolved, That the Rules of the Board of Education be published in the Minutes with the foregoing report.

They are as follows:—

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.

The Board holds four regular meetings annually, viz: On the first Tuesdays of August, November, February and May. Special meetings are held when necessary. The place of meeting is the 1st U. P. Church, Monmouth, Illinois.

GRANTS OF MONEY.

Pecuniary aid shall be granted young men, only in accordance with the following principles:

1. All applications from theological students made at any meeting, shall be first acted on, and then applications from literary students.
2. Testimonials shall certify that the applicant is under the care of some Presbytery of the U. P. Church,—that he intends entering the ministry,—that he possesses hopeful piety,—that his talents are such as to qualify him for usefulness in the ministry, and that he needs the sum asked.

Such testimonials shall be given by order of the Presbytery to which the applicant belongs, and be signed by the Moderator and Clerk. Under extraordinary circumstances, testimonials of three members of the Presbytery, of the above tenor, may be accepted; but such testimonials shall in all cases be substituted by regular presbyterial testimonials as soon as practicable.

New testimonials shall be furnished every year that aid is granted.

3. Grants exceeding one hundred dollars per annum shall not be made to any one individual, nor be continued more than four years, beginning with the senior year in college.

4. Grants shall be due and payable to theological students in three installments, viz: One-third on the 1st of September, one-third on the 1st of December, and one-third on the 1st of March; and to literary students in four installments,—one-fourth on each of the days mentioned, and one-fourth on the 1st of June.

5. Beneficiaries shall give obligations of the following tenor:

"I do agree that if I do not in due course of time enter the ministry of the U. P. Church, or, having entered it, do not continue in the same, the sum above mentioned shall then become due, and payable at the pleasure of the Board, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from date."

6. No grant shall be made except by the Board at a regular or special meeting. The regular time for acting on applications shall be the August meeting; but grants may be made at any regular or special meeting duly called.

While in all ordinary cases the Presbyteries must, in the very nature of the case, be responsible for the character of the beneficiaries of the Board, and while Presbyteries are urgently solicited to be careful to recommend only such young men as have the prescribed qualifications; yet the board shall not knowingly furnish aid to any young man who lacks the prescribed qualifications, even though he be recommended by a Presbytery:

In all ordinary cases, the Board should require its beneficiaries to attend some institution of learning, instead of pursuing their studies privately; yet the Assembly judges that in this matter something should be left to the discretion of the Board.

Especial attention is invited to the following directions:—

1. Let young men desiring aid make application directly to the Presbytery for a certificate; if it be impracticable to lay the matter before the Presbytery in season, let a certificate be obtained from three members, and then, at the next meeting of the Presbytery, let a regular certificate be obtained.

2. Let the certificate be forwarded directly to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, accompanied by a statement of the following facts: 1. The name in full of the beneficiary. 2. His post-office, town, county and State. 3. His standing as a student;—if literary, of what class; if theological, of what year. 4. The college or seminary he purposes attending.

3. Let the applications be forwarded in time to be laid before the Board at their meeting in August, if possible.

4. Let Presbyteries be careful to certify all that is required by the constitution of the Board. No grants can be made without certificates. Applications made in regular form to the Board will, in all cases, receive prompt attention. Many vexatious and unnecessary delays grow out of inattention to the regulations of the Assembly, which the Board cannot disregard.

5. Presbyteries should recommend no one as a beneficiary who does not need and deserve assistance.

Proceeded to the order of the day, namely, the consideration of the Report of the Committee on the new metrical version of the Psalms. The report was unanimously adopted, and is as follows.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A NEW VERSION OF THE PSALMS.

The Committee on Psalmody respectfully submit the following Report: A new version of the Book of Psalms has long been an object of desire in our church. The first Assembly adopted measures looking to this end, which availed but little. The last Assembly, satisfied that the welfare of the church demanded speedy action, laid hold of the subject with an interest and determination that promised early and valuable results. The Committee to which the work was intrusted, catching the spirit of the Assembly, have gone forward with diligence and energy, wisdom and skill worthy of commendation. The result of their labours is in the hands of the Assembly. It should receive prompt, earnest, and careful attention. The church, while demanding prudence, care, and faithfulness, that the work when completed may be all that is desired, also expects us to act promptly. It will hardly tolerate any unnecessary delay.

There are certain ends and certain principles of examination, which should be kept distinctly before us. Any new version that will be acceptable to the church, must be faithful to the original. Loose paraphrases cannot be adopted, without stultifying the church. At the same time, the new version must furnish a much greater variety of metres, and be characterized by a high degree of literary excellence, otherwise it will not be worth the time and expense necessary to produce it.

These are the ends to be accomplished.

In examining the versions reported by the Committee, the old metrical version should not be taken as the standard of comparison. To ascertain the mind of the Spirit as expressed in the Psalms, we must go to the prose translation and the original Hebrew. We should not demand in any metrical version the very verbiage of our prose Psalter. A faithful expression of the sense of the original, in smooth and elegant verse, with various metres, suitable to be sung in the worship of God, is all that can properly be expected.

The Assembly has determined at once to proceed to the examination of the versions of the Psalms reported by the Committee. Such versions as may be approved by the Assembly should be overtured to the Presbyteries. That the Committee may have the benefit of their judgment, it is important that they should act at a very early day. We accordingly recommend the Presbyteries to act before the 15th day of September next, at farthest, and report to the Moderator, that he may examine their action and communicate the result to the Committee.

It cannot be expected that the Committee will proceed with their work without an assurance that all they may do will not be in vain. The approval of the Presbyteries would of course give this assurance, yet we think the Assembly is now so fully satisfied with the work of the Committee, as to give such an expression of their views as will warrant the Committee to proceed. Such an expression we recommend the Assembly to give.

It is very desirable that the new version should be completed as soon as possible. It is injurious to keep up agitation on the subject from year to year. Many desire such a version for immediate use.

We recommend a resolution looking to this end.

It seems that Dr. D. C. M'Laren has not been able to attend the meetings of the Committee. It is desirable that the Committee should be full.

We recommend a resolution appointing a substitute for Dr. M'Laren, and adding other members to the committee.

Resolved, I. That this Assembly highly approves the manner in which the Committee intrusted with the preparation of a New Metrical Version of the Psalms has performed its work. II. That in considering the versions of Psalms reported by the Committee, the Assembly will proceed as follows:

The Moderator shall announce each version, beginning with the first; any member may move to strike out the version announced: if the motion prevail, the particular version under consideration shall be rejected; if not, or if no motion to reject be made, the version shall be declared approved.

III. That the versions now approved by the Assembly, viz.: All contained in the volume published by the Committee on the preparation of a new version, be and hereby are overtured to the Presbyteries for their approval or rejection.

IV. That the Presbyteries be, and hereby are, instructed as follows :

1. To act on this overture as early as possible, before the fifteenth day of September next, at farthest, and to call special meetings for the purpose.
2. To vote Ay or No, on each version of a Psalm now overtured.
3. To communicate their action without delay to the Moderator, specifying particularly their objections to the versions they may reject.
4. To report to the next Assembly.

V. That the Moderator be instructed to count the votes received by him, and transmit, on or before Oct. 1, the result, together with the objections of the Presbyteries to rejected versions, to the Committee on the preparation of a new version.

VI. That the Assembly, earnestly desiring the speedy completion of the work, and being persuaded that the versions now in overture will receive the approval of the church, do hereby call upon the Committee above mentioned to proceed, without delay, in the preparation of new versions of the remaining Psalms, and publish the result of their labors as soon as possible.

VII. That such versions as may be thus published by the Committee be, and hereby are, overtured to the Presbyteries for their adoption or rejection.

VIII. That the Presbyteries be, and hereby are, instructed as follows :

1. To vote, Ay or No, on each version of a Psalm thus published.
2. To communicate their objections to such versions as they may reject to the committee.
3. To report to the next Assembly.

IX. That the Assembly hereby declares its earnest desire that the Committee on the New Version, the Presbyteries, and the next Assembly, will give the whole subject such prompt, earnest, and careful attention, as shall be necessary to bring the work to a speedy close, and furnish the church with a complete version suited to its wants.

X. That Rev. J. T. McClure be appointed a member of the Committee, instead of Dr. D. C. McLaren, and also W. J. Robinson, D. F. Reid, D. G. Bradford and J. F. Hutchinson be added to the Committee.

XI. That the Presbyteries be instructed to supply the pulpits of such of their members as are members of this Committee while engaged in the work assigned them by the Assembly.

By order of the Committee. DAVID A. WALLACE, Chairman.

The report of the committee appointed to prepare a new version of the Psalms was directed to be published, and is as follows.

The Committee appointed by the last United Presbyterian Assembly, "To take charge of the preparation of a new metrical version of the Psalms," besides giving attention to this business privately, have had three meetings, extending in all to a period of nearly three months. All the members appointed by the Assembly attended these meetings except the Rev. D. C. McLaren, D. D., who was probably prevented from doing so by age and the distance of the place of meeting. At our last meeting in March, when the committee reviewed their former labours, they were also favoured with the assistance of the Rev. Messrs. D. F. Reid, D. G. Bradford, A. Ritchie, and J. F. Hutchison, appointed by their respective Synods. The two latter also attended some of our previous meetings. We had before us upwards of twenty versions of the whole book of Psalms, or select parts of it. Among these were two editions, or more properly two versions of the whole book by the Rt. Rev. George Burgess, D. D. We had before us versions by Messrs. Goode, Livingston, Tate and Brady, Merrick, Reynolds, and versions of select parts by Messrs. Rusling, Milton, Montgomery, J. Q. Adams, and others. We had also manuscript versions by Messrs. Duffield, D. D., Murray, Wilson, Bonner, Robinson, Whitmarsh, and others. The versions by Bishop Burgess have been made the basis of a large number of those now presented to the Assembly. Some use has been made of the most of the others above mentioned. The selections, however, with hardly an exception, have been very much altered; so much, indeed, that in some cases hardly any trace of the original source is left. These alterations were generally made with a view to obtain more exact conformity to the original. Whether they will be regarded as improvements must be left to the judgment of others.

The whole number of Psalms versified is 63. Of these there are two versions of 9, and three versions of 3, making 78 in all. There are 26 in L. M. of four lines to a stanza, 4 L. M. six lines: 9 in S. M., 6 in C. M., 7 in 8s and 7s, 7 in 7s and 6s., 5 in 7s., 2 and a part of another in H. M., 2 in L. H. M., 2 and a part of another in C. P. M. Of 7 Psalms there is a single specimen of metres not in such common use. If the general use of these should be found attended with some difficulty, they might be classed with a few in our authorized version which are seldom, if ever, employed in our churches.

As to the character of the versions herewith presented, it belongs not to us, but to the Assembly to decide. We have done what we could to prepare versions combining faithfulness to the original with at least tolerable poetry. We have no expectation that the work will be found faultless, especially if it be tried by rules before which no prose translation, and much more no metrical version could stand. In any translation there must of necessity be many variations from the strict letter of the original. There must be a change of idioms, transpositions, an omission of some words, and a supplement of others. These liberties are still more essential when a translation is lettered by the laws of rhyme and metre. In this case there must be a frequent substitution of equivalent expressions in the room of the original text. There must sometimes be an expansion, and sometimes a contraction of the words to suit the measure. Although our authorized version be remarkably literal, liberties of this kind have been taken in every Psalm, and much beyond what is generally supposed. For example; in the beginning of the 67th Psalm what is fully expressed in the four lines of the S. M. is expanded to eight lines in the C. M. In the first verse of the 84th Psalm we have the whole idea of the original and a little more in the first two lines, and all that follows is introduced merely to fill up the stanza. It would be easy to point out hundreds of such examples, where there are variations from the words of the original, and supplements or repetitions frequently extending to whole lines. We have, however, become so familiar with this version, that we have attached a kind of sacredness to these variations and supplements, while a like liberty in a new version, or even a correction of these variations, or the omission of these supplements, strikes our minds unfavourably, almost as if it were something sacrilegious.

The main thing to be regarded in a work of this kind is a faithful exhibition of the mind of the Spirit, and this does not necessarily confine us to an exact use of the same words employed by former translators. There may be many different translations of the same text, differing greatly in the use of words, and yet all equally faithful. We find numerous quotations from the Old Testament in the New, yet very generally varying in words from the original, and frequently also the same passage is quoted differently in different places. See, for instance, the quotations of Isa. vi. 10, contained in Matt. xiii. 15; John xii. 40; Acts xxviii. 27. Rom. xi. 8. How numerous are such variations in the accounts given by the Evangelists of the same discourses of our Lord! In Acts x. 4, the words of the angel to Cornelius are thus recorded: "Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God." In the same chapter, verse 31st, Cornelius reports the same saying of the angel thus: "Thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God." It is true, it may be said those who penned these things were guided by the Spirit of inspiration, and this therefore is no warrant for the use of a like liberty by those not having the same infallible guide. But let it not be overlooked that in the places referred to, the words are given as the words spoken by Isaiah and others, and as the same words, though differently expressed. If the versions published by the committee are to be tried by an exact adherence to the words of former translators, or even by an exactly literal translation of the original, neither our work, nor our authorized version, nor our translation of the Bible, nor the Bible itself, could stand this test. We have aimed at as correct an exhibition of the mind of the Spirit as the nature of our work would admit, and we think these versions will be found generally as faithful to the original as the one now in use. In some instances we think them more so. As examples of this, we refer to Ps. xix. 2; xxvi. 3, S. M.; Lxxxiv. 9; and many others where the change is not so obvious. Still we are far from supposing our work free from defects. These, however, may be corrected. And we are not without some hope that if these versions be treated with that candour to which we think an effort of this kind entitled, something may be gained towards a much needed improvement in the solemn and delightful exercise of praise. Even if some of the versions should be judged so faulty as to be inadmissible, it might be that the Assembly could select others which they could so far approve as to allow them to be used by such as might feel a freedom to do so.

By order of the committee, T. BEVERIDGE, Chairman.

Assembly met. Opened with prayer by Rev. R. N. Fee. Minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented a report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows:—

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Committee would report that for some reason or reasons, this Board seems less successful in attaining the ends of its organization than the other Boards of the church. Only about eight hundred dollars have been raised during the past year, in the way contemplated by the Assembly, at the organization of this Board. This of course is but as the drop of the bucket, when compared with the wants of the Board. The special agency system has proved practically a far more successful plan of operation. Over eleven thousand dollars have been raised during the year in this way. Yet against this plan, there seems to be a strong feeling of opposition. Those opposing it, urge first, that for congregations to send their ministers through the church on this errand, is to take them, for the time being, from their proper fields of labour, and employ them in that which is humiliating and inconsistent with their high calling. But to this it may be replied, that it is not always necessary to employ ministers in this work. Many a private member can collect money as well as a minister. It is not indispensable to a good minister that he be a good beggar. Besides, the very fact that it is humiliating for congregations to raise money in this way, will naturally keep any except the most needy from asking or receiving aid.

Farther, it is urged in opposition to this plan that some portions of the church, so unfortunate as to have their reputation for liberality pretty well established, are thus grievously annoyed from year to year with importunate agents. To this, however, it may be replied, that by a very easy arrangement, no congregation need be thus called upon more than once during the year.

But while many, for these and other equally insufficient reasons, are strongly opposed to the agency system, others are strongly in favour of it. And when your committee came to see the practical results of the two systems during the past year, we cannot but feel, if raising money is the object in view, that the weight of argument is with the agency system. Common sense teaches, that the personal appeal of an importunate agent, is more difficult to resist, than that made in any other way. And we cannot get away from the impression, that the opposition to this system arises in part from this very fact. Still we have no disposition to force upon the church any one absolute rule, from which no part of the church shall be allowed to deviate. We think the matter may be compromised without jeopardizing the grand object sought.

To issue this matter we propose the following resolutions:

1st. That the Assembly decide from year to year how much money shall be raised for this Board.

2d. That Presbyteries be required to decide by which of these plans they will raise their proportion of this sum, and inform the President of the Board of their choice, at the commencement of each financial year.

3d. That the Board shall have the privilege of sending agents once a year into all the Presbyteries choosing to raise money in this way.

4th. That should any Presbytery fail, on any given year, to raise their apportionment, it shall be the privilege of the Board on the following year, to allow one or more agents to visit them, as the nature of the case may demand.

5th. That money raised by either plan, shall be annually reported to the Treasurer of the Board, the same as that raised for the other funds of the church.

6th. That all grants made by this Board, shall be free and unconditional, except at the pleasure of the grantee, and provided this does not conflict with the constitutional regulations of the Board.

7th. That the sum of twenty thousand dollars be raised for the coming year.

8th. That the members of the Board whose term of service expires at this meeting, viz., Dr. Gracey and Messrs. Geo. McCague and John Dean, be and are hereby re elected.

Respectfully submitted. COMMITTEE.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. The report was considered, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions report the following resolutions for adoption:

RESOLVED, 1. That the condition of our Foreign Mission work demands from the whole church the most devout gratitude to God.

2. That the Assembly re-enforce the Mission in China at the earliest practicable moment.

3. That the Assembly, send two missionaries and one female teacher to re-enforce the Mission in India, and also that one male teacher be sent to the same Mission to take charge of the boys' school in Sealkote.

4. That this Assembly approve the action of the Board in sending Rev. Ebenezer Currie and wife, as missionaries to the Mission field in Egypt, during the past year.

5. That two additional missionaries, and one man to superintend the working of the mission press, be sent to Egypt during the coming year. Also a man to superintend the Industrial school in India.

6. That one additional missionary be sent to Syria.

7. That should the Assembly fail to appoint missionaries and teachers as above recommended—or should the persons so appointed fail to go out on their missions respectively—the Board shall be empowered to fill such vacancies as may occur by making such new appointments as may be necessary to the interests of the mission work.

8. That the sum of $86,800, is necessary to carry on successfully the Foreign Missionary work of the Board and that said sum be raised during the coming year.

9. That special vigorous efforts be made to raise the balance of the sum promised by the last Assembly for the building fund in Egypt, which balance is about $15,000; and also that like vigorous efforts be made to raise the sum of $10,000, for building purposes in India.

10. That it shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions to attend the annual meetings of the General Assembly, in addition to his duties as at present defined, and that he shall receive a salary, to be paid out of the funds of the Board, of $500 per annum.

11. Whereas, experience has taught us that a too long and uninterrupted residence in the Foreign Mission work, especially in warm climates, is often prejudicial to the health and usefulness of the missionaries and to the detriment of the missions; and Whereas, we believe that a more frequent return of the missionaries to their native land would be an economy of time and means, resulting in their longer life, labour, and efficiency; And, whereas, it would remove a serious obstacle out of the way of securing new missionaries to engage in the work; Therefore,

Resolved, In the judgment of this Assembly missionaries labouring in foreign lands, and especially in warm climates, should return to their native land at intervals of about five years, to invigorate their health, and thus prolong their lives and usefulness, and otherwise advance the mission work.

12. That the Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to pay to the widows of missionaries who have died, or may die, in the service of the Board, the sum of $20 per month during their widowhood.

13. That Revs. Messrs. F. Church, W. W. Barr, and J. T. Cooper, D. D., whose terms of service in the Board expire at this meeting be re-elected. COMMITTEE.

The Moderator and Clerk were directed to transmit to the persons referred to in the foregoing report the thanks of this Assembly.

Mr. David Strang was appointed to take charge of the secular affairs of the mission in Egypt and conduct the printing operations.

Proceeded to the election of a missionary to Syria. Rev. E. N. Brown was unanimously elected.

The following resolutions were adopted:—

1. Resolved, That this Assembly recommend that Rev. Thos. M' Cague, for many years a devoted and successful missionary to Egypt, be requested to consider the propriety of a return to that land, and communicate his decision to the Board of Foreign Missions at an early day.

2. Resolved, That in the event of Brother M' Cague deciding to return to Egypt, the Executive Committee of the Board of Home Missions shall supply the church at Des Moines until the next meeting of the Assembly.

It was Resolved, That the securing of a teacher for the city school in India be left to the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report of the Judicial Committee in relation to the appeal from the Synod of Ohio was taken up. The report was read and recommended.

The report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the Book of Government and Discipline was read and adopted, and is as follows:—

On the Book of Government and Discipline, the Committee of Overtures report,

The report of the Committee appointed to prepare the Book, will give the Assembly a correct, general idea of the work. From the best examination, which under the circumstances we have been able to make, we are satisfied that the Committee have done their work well. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Committee be directed to publish, without delay, the draft of a book of Government and Discipline submitted by them to this General Assembly, and that the expense of publication be defrayed by the sale of the book.

2. Resolved, That the book be, and hereby is, overtured to the Presbyteries, with instruction to vote yea or nay on its adoption, also to suggest such amendments as they may deem necessary and report to the next General Assembly.

3. Resolved, That the report of the Committee, by which the draft of a book of Government was prepared, be printed in the minutes of the Assembly.

4. Resolved, That Presbyteries be directed to take prompt measures for supplying their members with copies of the book.

By order of the Committee,

G. C. VINCENT, Chairman.

The following is the report of the Committee referred to in the third resolution of the foregoing report:

The Committee on the Book of Government and Discipline respectfully submit the accompanying amended draft, as the result of their labours.

It will be seen, that the changes made are chiefly in a re-arrangement of the matter of the first draft. In some instances new matter is added and old omitted, but nothing that affects the essential matter of the book.

In the general arrangement we make one book with three parts:

Part first embracing the essential principles of the Presbyterian form of church government: Part second, the general details of its administration: Part third, specific details in respect to discipline.

Among the omissions in Part First is the introductory chapter, the contents of which we regarded as unnecessary, as the principles therein declared are sufficiently set forth in other parts of the standards.

The matter inserted in its place we think more pertinent to the subject in hand.

Another omission in Part First is the chapter on ordinances of worship, as all that is needed on that subject is, or should be, in the Directory for Worship. Other changes will be noticed in this part, generally for abbreviation, though in some cases with enlargement, so as to make statements of important principles such as would carry with them the evidence of their truth.

In Parts 2d and 3d there is still less change of matter; what we have done being little else than some abbreviation and transposition of the matter contained in the first draft. Our aim has been to place every thing bearing on any particular subject in immediate connexion so as to avoid unnecessary repetitions in different connexions. To the whole we have prepared marginal titles, indicating the purport of each action, which we think will contribute much to the ready use of the book.

We were not able to comply with the directions of the last Assembly touching the publication of our work, as the engagements of different members of the committee were such as made it impracticable to finish their work in time for that purpose.

We feel, however, that our delay will be no serious loss, as one year must pass before the amended draft can be adopted.

And if our work should be deemed worthy of overture, we are happy to report that it is now ready for publication.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. J. REID,
R. GRACEY,

The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the report of the Committee appointed last year to confer with Professor Jones, and also the memorial of the same person alleging an infringement of his copy-right, presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:—

On the Report of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to confer with Prof. Jones, and on the Memorial of Professor Jones, your Committee would report the following:

From these papers we learn that Professor Jones complains that Committees, acting under the authority of the General Assembly, in preparing various drafts of new versions of the Psalms, have unjustly infringed upon his copy-right. We are concerned with this charge only so far as it affects the work of the Committee, whose versions are now before the church; inasmuch as we propose to make no farther use of the labors of previous Committees, so far as these involve infringements upon the copyright of Prof. Jones. He alleges that this Committee have infringed upon his copyright in two ways:

1. In adopting peculiar models or forms of stanza—forms into which previously to the appearance of his book the Psalms had not been cast.

2. In appropriating many lines and rhymes from his numerous versions, and so combining them artfully as to produce in part another version.

In regard to the first specification, we are unable to see that Professor Jones has any peculiar property in certain models or forms of stanza. It may be true that, before the appearance of his book, the Psalms had not been cast into those forms, but it will certainly not be claimed that he is the original inventor and proprietor of models and forms of stanza which existed in versification before he wrote.

In regard to the second specification, to wit: That the Committee have appropriated lines and rhymes from his book, we are assured by the Committee that they endeavored studiously to avoid borrowing from Professor Jones. In at least two instances referred to by Professor Jones as examples of lines and rhymes borrowed from him, the lines are substantially those of our present version. In other instances, the expressions are such as would naturally be suggested by the original text. In still other instances in which there is a very striking coincidence between the lines of the Committee and those of Professor Jones, the Psalmody Committee are of the opinion that these coincidences may be explained in such a way as to show satisfactorily that they have not borrowed from Professor Jones. They pledge themselves, however, that if, upon a further and more careful examination, they find even an unintentional coincidence in their lines with those of Professor Jones, which cannot be satisfactorily explained, they will reject such lines and adopt others in their stead. They also state, that it is their earnest desire and purpose, in the further prosecution of their work, most carefully and conscientiously to avoid any infringements upon the copy-right of Professor Jones.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this Assembly earnestly disclaims any intention of interfering with the copy-right of Professor Jones.

2. Resolved, That the expressed determination of the Psalmody Committee carefully to avoid borrowing from Professor Jones be, and hereby is, heartily approved. By order of the Committee. G. C. VINCENT, Chairman.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures presented a report on the paper from the congregation of Uniontown in the Presbytery of Wheeling in relation to a civil suit; Said report was adopted, and is as follows:—

On the paper from the Uniontown congregation, Ohio, your Committee would recommend the following:

Resolved, 1st, That we recommend the congregation to defend their claims to the property in question.

Resolved, 2d, That we advise the Trustees of said congregation to obtain a copy of the decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in the case of Unity congregation of Butler county, Pa. Respectfully submitted. COMMITTEE.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the overture of the last Assembly in relation to an amended version of the Book of Psalms in metre, presented a report, which was adopted; also, a report on the overtured Directory for Worship, which was adopted. Both are as follows:—

The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to which were referred the reports of Presbyteries on the matters overtured by the last General Assembly, viz: The Amended Version of the Psalms, and the Directory for Worship,—would respectfully report.

1st, That on the amended version of the Psalms, only twenty Presbyteries out of forty-six are reported as voting, and of these the votes reported are,—Yeas, 56, Nays, 126.

This overture not having received the majority of the votes of the whole church, is therefore not adopted.

2d, That on the Directory for worship, only twenty-four Presbyteries are reported as voting, and of these the votes reported are—Yeas, 111, Nays, 45.

It is therefore evident that whilst a majority of the votes cast are for the adoption of the Overture, yet it has not received the “majority of the votes of the whole church,” as contemplated in our Book of Discipline; consequently, the Overture is not adopted, and is not yet the law of the church.

Your Committee, however, would say the reports of Presbyteries show that with a few amendments, more or less important, the Draft in Overture would have received a much larger vote for its adoption.

It being desirable that the Directory for Worship be completed and adopted at as early a day as possible, and it being the duty of the Assembly to prosecute this work until it is made to meet the wants of the Church, and since Presbyteries have recommended some amendments,—amendments which we cannot well incorporate in this report,—we submit for your adoption the following resolutions:

1st, That the amendments in duplicate, suggested by Presbyteries be placed in the hands of the committee having charge of the work of preparation of the Overture, and that said committee be directed to take action on these recommendations and submit to the Presbyteries the Directory as amended, for approval or disapproval.

2d, That said committee be directed to publish said Overture, that it may be distributed through the Church by the 1st of September.

3d, That the Treasurer of the Assembly be and is hereby directed to pay out of the Assembly's fund, on the order of the Chairman of said committee, the amount necessary for such publication.

4th, That Presbyteries are hereby directed to report to the next General Assembly the number of votes,—Yea or Nay, on said Overture.

5th, That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be hereby directed to call the attention of the Church to the matters overtured by the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

G. C. VINCENT, Chairman.

The committee to which was referred the memorial from the Presbytery of Wheeling in relation to the promotion of Union with other churches presented a report which was adopted, and is as follows:—

In relation to the Overture of the Presbytery of Wheeling, we would recommend the following action:

Gratefully acknowledging the goodness of the Head of the Church, in crowning our past efforts to promote union among those of “like precious faith” with such signal success, we would be encouraged to still further labours in the same great cause. Therefore

Resolved, That the committee on correspondence be directed to address, on this subject, both branches of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in our own land, the Waldenses through our Brother Morehead, now labouring in Italy, and the United Presbyterian Church of the United Provinces of North America.

Respectfully submitted.

COMMITTEE.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures presented a report on the memorial of Rev. R. A. M'Ayeal, in relation to the status of emancipated slaves. The report was discussed at some length. Pending this discussion, the Assembly adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock. Closed with prayer by Rev. S. B. Reed.

Friday, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Assembly met. Opened with prayer by Rev. M. M. Gibson. The reading of the minutes was postponed till the close of the session.

Proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the memorial in relation to the status of the emancipated slaves. The report was discussed at some length, and recommitted with instructions to the Committee to bring in a report making provision for petitioning the civil authorities to guaranty to the emancipated slaves the elective franchise.

On motion of Revs. Marcus Ormond and R. W. French, the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we, the members of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, express our heartly thanks to the good people of Washington, and the country around, for the great kindness and liberality manifested in providing for our comfort during the sessions of this Assembly.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Devotional Exercises recommend the appointment of Rev. Byron Porter as the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next Assembly.

J. T. BROWNLEE, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee, to which was recommitted the report on the Appeal from the Synod of Ohio, presented their report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas, the Assembly cannot issue the appeal from the Synod of Ohio, on the ground of the non-authentication of an important document; therefore, resolved, that this case be referred to the next Assembly, and the Synod of Ohio be instructed to forward all the necessary papers, properly authenticated.

DAVID A. WALLACE, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Finance was taken up, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Finance would respectfully report the result of their labours as follows:

We have examined the various reports and vouchers of the Treasurers of Foreign and Home Missions,—Freedmen's Mission,—Church Extension,—Board of Publication,—Board of Education,—Assembly's Fund,—Bible and Sabbath School Distribution Funds,—and Superannuated Minutes' Fund, and find them to be correct. We feel it right, at the same time, to call attention to the accurate and satisfactory manner in which the respective Treasurers of the different Boards have transacted the duties of their office during the past year, and would therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are due, and are hereby presented to the Treasurers of our different Boards for the satisfactory manner in which they have performed their important services during the past year.

Your committee would also report, that they have examined the account presented by the committee on Psalmody for travelling and other necessary expenses, and are perfectly satisfied with its accuracy, and would therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1st, That an order be granted in favour of Rev. Dr. Harper, on the Treasurer of the Assembly's fund, for $296.56, amount of said account.

Resolved, 2d, That whatever may be the proceeds arising from the sale of the Psalm Books in possession of said committee, that the amount thereof be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Assembly, after deducting all necessary expenses.

It appears evident from the reports of the various Boards, that the sum of $187,400 will be requisite for the efficient operations of the Church for the ensuing year; therefore,

Resolved, That the Church be called upon to raise the following sums, namely: For Foreign Missions, $36,800; Home, $33,000; Freedmen's, $22,000; Church Extension, $20,000; Education, $10,000; Publication, $5,000; Assembly's fund, $600.

In reference to the legacy of John I. Reed, of South Argyle, (deceased,) amounting to $10,000, your committee cannot but regard it as a kind interposition of Providence in the present exigencies of the Church, and would therefore respectfully recommend the adoption of the following; namely,

Whereas, The want of some suitable provision for aged and disabled ministers has been long and sorely felt; and whereas this General Assembly, at its last session, took the necessary steps for the creation of a fund for this purpose; and whereas, such a fund is now in existence;—therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That the said legacy of John I. Reed be, and hereby is appropriated to the benefit of superannuated and disabled ministers, and widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

Resolved, 2d. That the Treasurer be instructed to invest the said $10,000, either in 7 3-10 U. S. bonds, or some other equally good security,—and that the interest thereof be added to the contributions of the Church for said Superannuated Ministers' fund, and appropriated in accordance with the rules adopted by the last General Assembly.

Resolved, 3d. That we endeavour, during the ensuing year, to raise an additional sum of $10,000, to be invested in like manner, so that the Church may have something like a security that her aged servants, who have borne the burden and heat of the day in the vineyard of their Master, may not be left altogether desolate in their declining years.

Your committee also recommend that the Treasurer be instructed to pay the sum of thirty dollars to the Assistant Clerk,—and also the sum of two dollars to Rev. A. Connor, for procuring blanks for the General Assembly.

In accordance with the action of this General Assembly, we would also recommend the adoption of the following: "Resolved, That the Board of Publication be instructed to issue 5000 copies of the New Version of the Psalms now in overtire as they may be required, and that they be disposed of at cost price.

We would also recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That congregations or individuals, forwarding subscriptions to the various Boards, should do so through the financial agents of their respective Presbyteries, and that the Treasurers of such Boards acknowledge the same as received from such Presbyteries;—and that it be the duty of the financial agents to acknowledge such subscriptions in the local papers of the church.

Your committee, in conclusion, would recommend that the travelling expenses of the Stated Clerk be defrayed by this Assembly, in addition to the usual allowance granted for his services. Respectfully submitted. FRANCIS CHURCH, Chairman.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Board of Freedmen's Missions be allowed to draw on the Treasurer of said Board for the sum of five hundred dollars for services rendered.

The Committee on Statistical Tables presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

A statistical table from each of the forty-nine Presbyteries conneted with our Church has been furnished. Excepting the neglect to add up the colums, seven tables may be pronounced complete, eight approximately complete,—the remainder very incomplete. Some strange inaccuracies occur in them, which, where noticed, were corrected. The Committee have not been enabled to examine critically the work of carrying across the range of figures; yet they have spent considerable time, and have been burdened with summing up the columns of more than half of the tables, which should have been done by the Clerks of Presbyteries. The table of the Presbytery of Southern Indiana was so very improperly prepared in several respects, that the Committee was necessitated to reconstruct and write it out completely anew. There seems to be not sufficient care manifested in securing the statistics of vacant congregations. It is recommended that more reasonable diligence be shown in this matter. It may be that Presbyteries do not in general give specific instructions to vacancies to take up collections for all the funds of the Church according to their ability. It is suggested that supplies be directed to lay this subject before the congregations which they serve. Very many congregations settled and vacant have not contributed at all to the smaller funds of the Church. The Committee learn that most of the congregations which contributed to the funds of the Freedmen's Mission have added the several amounts in the respective columns of general contributions. It is probable that much of the funds given for Church Extension to agents who visited certain congregations, do not appear in the specific columns, which funds were reported to the President of the Board of Church Extension, but not to the Treasurer of that fund.

The statistics of Sabbath schools were furnished from only ten Presbyteries, and these embrace the schools in fifty-nine congregations. Only three tabular statements were given. The other statistics were offered on separate leaves. The Committee, after much labour, present the aggregate from the above Presbyteries: namely, from Stamford schools, in four congregations; Frankfort, five; Sidney, eight; Michigan, seven; Vermont, one; Allegheny, four; Philadelphia, twelve; Big Spring, seven; Muskingum, six; 1st New York, five; Number of officers and teachers, 816; No. scholars on the roll, 5,800; Average number of scholars in attendance, 3,831; Increase during the year, 836; Number of children of non-professors, 1,288; Number of scholars uniting with the Church during the year, 139; Amount contributed as Sabbath schools during the year, $1416.54; Number of volumes in the Libraries, 12,143; Number of Sabbath school papers taken, 3,374.

With some care the committee have prepared for publication the summaries of the statistics of the Presbyteries.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That the statistical tables for next year and thenceforward, until otherwise ordered, be changed thus: let the names of correspondents for vacancies be placed in the column bearing the caption Ministers beneath the names of Ministers, Licentiates and Students, and opposite the names of vacancies: let the columns for Deaths and Removals be thrown into one, under the heading decrease; let the column for Synod's Fund be erased, and Aged Minister's Fund be put in its place; and let two columns be inserted after Adult Baptisms for Sabbath schools,—one for Officers and Teachers,—the other for Average Number of Scholars; also let a column be inserted next after Foreign Mission for Freedmen's Mission.

Resolved, 2d, That Presbyteries be enjoined to require of all the congregations, settled and vacant, under their care, respectively, to report at each successive spring meeting, whether they have contributed to each of the Funds of the Church. If any of their congregations fail to report, or state that they have not responded to each of the funds, the Presbytery shall then pass an opinion according to the case, and make a record of the same. Further, the Presbyteries shall note in their annual reports to the Assembly, whether they have thus called their congregations to account.

Resolved, 3d, That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be instructed to publish in the Addenda of the Minutes of the Assembly, all the instructions or rules which from time to time have been given to Presbyteries, and that it be a standing rule for the Clerk to publish in the Addenda all the new and unrepealed former regulations relating to Presbyteries.

Resolved, 4th, That $187,400 having been appropriated in the aggregate by this Assembly to the eight funds of the Church at large, and a fraction more than 58,000 members being reported, the average per member required to be contributed, is three dollars and twenty-two cents thus divided: to Foreign Missions one dollar and forty-nine cents, to Home Missions fifty-seven cents, to Freedmen's Mission, thirty-eight cents, Education seventeen cents, Publication nine cents, Church Extension thirty-four cents, General Assembly one cent, Aged Ministers seventeen cents. Respectfully submitted.

G. W. Gowdy, Chairman.

The Committee on the memorial of Presbytery of Xenia, in relation to Superannuated Ministers, asked and obtained leave to withdraw their report.

The Committee on the State of the Country presented the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee on the State of the Country respectfully present the following report:

In God's kind providence, the war which has for four years spread desolation and sorrow throughout the land, and which was characterized by many acts of inhumanity on the part of those who brought it on,—particularly in starving to death thousands of our soldiers taken as prisoners of war,—has been brought almost to a close, and while we as a church and a nation owe a debt of gratitude to those who have imperilled their lives in defence of the Government, we should especially render thanks to Him who has given us the victory, not only in that He has dispersed the armies of treason, but has also delivered four millions of our countrymen from bondage. Yet it becomes us to rejoice with trembling. As the work of reconstruction will be exceedingly complicated, as the proud spirit of those who rose up for our national ruin is unbroken, and as those intrusted with official duties will greatly need the endowment of wisdom, we feel that God's people should be no less earnest in prayer in behalf of our rulers than when the war was raging in all its desolating power. But as former General Assemblies of this church have by resolutions and by committees delegated to wait upon the late lamented President, Abraham Lincoln, faithfully and fully represented us, we do not feel that we need do more on the present occasion than re-affirm former expressions of sympathy for the Government, and of confidence in the Chief Magistrate; therefore Resolved, 1. That, with grateful remembrance of our late President, Abraham Lincoln, a great and good man, who, like Moses under God led a nation of people to the very borders of the land of liberty and rest, we also pledge to Andrew Johnson, our present Chief Magistrate, our cordial sympathy and support, in the hope that like a Joshua, he will do right and accomplish under God the object of our desire, namely, the reconstruction of our Government on the broad basis of universal freedom.

2. As civil magistrates are designed to be a terror to evil doers, it is the unanimous opinion of this Assembly that all punishments, defined by the Constitution as deserved by traitors, should be visited upon the leading instigators and prosecutors of this rebellion. In Ezra, 7-26, we read,—“Whosoever will not do the law of thy God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.” Mercy to the great civil and military heads of this rebellion would be cruelty to coming generations.

3. We earnestly recommend our people to exhibit every possible kindness to all soldiers who have been maimed by this war, and to the widows and fatherless children of those whose lives have been sacrificed in this conflict for liberty and right.

4. That the Stated Clerk be instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and to assure him of our heartfelt desires for his success in the work of reconstruction, in establishing order and peace, and in perfecting the emancipation of the African race in our land.

JOHN B. CLARK, Chairman.

The Committee to which was referred the Third Annual Report of the U. S. Christian Commission presented the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee to which was referred the Third Annual Report of the U. S. Christian Commission present the following:

The wonderful success of this Institution as an agency of sanitary supply to the army, in the distribution of religious literature, in the employment of an evangelical and self-denying ministry, for the comfort of the Christian and the conversion of the impenitent soldier, and as a means of developing and directing the Christian benevolence of the country, is truly gratifying to every lover of the cause of Christ and humanity. In its spirit and efficacy, and in all the blessed consequences which have attended its efforts, this Institution may properly be viewed as one of the great and special tokens of that favour which God has shown to us in the overthrow of oppression and rebellion, and in the restoration of our national authority. It may be considered as the discovery of a grand system of combining the charity of all good people, to which God in his providence has led us in these latter days, to mitigate the horrors of war, and the day of its advent as one of the grandest and most blessed eras in the history of the world.

We recommend the adoption of the following :

Resolved, 1st. That we owe the highest gratitude to God for the great benefits that have been conferred upon our suffering soldiers, upon the church and the land, by his blessing upon the labours of the U. S. Christian Commission.

Resolved, 2d. That we gratefully commend the labours of our ministers, and the liberality of our people, in their hearty co-operation with this Society, and we earnestly recommend them to continue their labours of love so long as the condition of our army shall furnish them opportunity.

Respectfully submitted. D. W. COLLINS.

Resolved, That the Revs. Dr. Dales, W. W. Barr, and Mr. James M. Ferguson be appointed a Committee to aid the Clerk in the publication of the Minutes.

The Committee on a Metrical Version of the Psalms, as amended and published by the Board of Publication, presented the following report, which was adopted :

The Committee on Psalmody respectfully submit the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1st, That the corrected edition of the authorized version of the Book of Psalms published by the Board of Publication, and laid on the Table of this Assembly, be approved as the Standard Edition of our authorized Psalter.

2d. That while approving of this Book, the Assembly desires to express its regret that the Board should have made this publication without the direction of the Assembly.

3d. That the Board be directed not to proceed with the publication of the proposed series of Psalm Books, until it receives further directions from the Assembly. All of which is respectfully submitted. DAVID A. WALLACE, Chairman.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the report in relation to the memorial concerning the status of emancipated slaves presented the following amended report, which was adopted :

On the Memorial of R. A. M'AYEAL the Committee on Bills and Overtures would report,—

That we agree with the sentiment expressed in the memorial, that it is competent to the Church to pass her judgment on all questions affecting public morals or questions respecting human rights upon which depend the peace and welfare of society. Regardless of all that may be said by those committed to a policy of doubtful propriety, of the danger of connecting religion with politics, we are free to affirm, that the Church is the "light of the world" on questions of policy as truly as on the doctrines of grace, and in no part of the world are human rights properly understood or securely protected, except where the Bible is appreciated and its instructions held forth through the instrumentality of the Church.

Respecting the subject urged upon the attention of this court by the petitioner, to wit, "the status of the Emancipated slave," we may be allowed to say that in our judgment it is the question now before the country.

For thirty years past we have urged the abolition of slavery from considerations of right and policy. This end is now virtually attained, but our work is not done. The negro comes now before us as ignorant, degraded, and cumbered with political disabilities. To educate, elevate, and put him into a position of security for himself and advantageous to us is the office of Christian philanthropy and statesmanship.

In entering upon the consideration of this subject, it would not be wise to overlook the prejudice existing against the coloured race. In this we found the greatest obstacle to his emancipation, but prejudices were entertained in reference to his emancipation not as an act of justice or injustice in itself, but on account of the consequences that would follow : particularly the idea of social and political equality. Now we have that prejudice to meet face to face ; and we do believe with your memorialist that nothing less than political equality will give peace.

Nothing less we allege will please God or satisfy the conscience of an enlightened Christian people.

To give this subject an intelligible statement, we would premise,

1. That "justice and judgment are the habitation of God's Throne." For sake of righteousness he wields His sceptre—for sake of justice he has established his throne.

2. He has appointed civil government as the general agency, and the magistrate as the agent to administer justice among men.

This fundamental principle of government was thus stated in the Hebrew Commonwealth, "That which is altogether just shalt thou follow." In the Constitution of our own country, this same elementary principle is embodied, namely, "In order to establish justice,  we do ordain and establish this Constitution."

3. When justice is subverted, and iniquity framed by law, the conscience of the citizen will feel himself absolved from the duty of obedience to such government, and Divine wrath will burn against it. All history attests the truth of this statement; but we have, in this matter, particularly to do with the history of the last four years. The blood of the hundreds of thousands slain call to us with one united voice, "do right to the oppressed," "execute judgment between a man and his neighbour." Let the fresh graves of our martyred heroes speak. And let no consideration turn away our minds from the dreadful discipline of God's providence.

In application of these elementary truths to the case in hand, we declare that it is the duty of this nation, kindly and wisely, to provide for the present comfort and future prosperity of the wronged and degraded slave. That in addition to his emancipation we must educate and elevate him and put him on a platform of independence, so far as law and government are capable of securing that end. And we know of nothing which will so much contribute to his independence and self-respect as to place him under the responsibilities of a free man. Put the ballot in his hand, and let him in common with all good and loyal citizens have his voice in the government. With the responsibilities give him the privilege of a free man. In support of this question we would state,

1. The black man whose enfranchisement we advocate is a native born American citizen, and has as clear a right to breathe God's free air and to tread upon his footstool as any of the human race. This is his home, whether by his own choice or in obedience to external force, it matters not.

2. The right of suffrage is the natural right of every citizen. That monarchical or aristocratic institutions have disturbed the equilibrium of society, and deprived men of some of their natural rights, is no exception to the truth here asserted. Men naturally stand on a platform of democratic equality, and hence have naturally equal rights.

3. In times of trial, the coloured population of the country have proved themselves loyal. Treason is the highest crime known to the laws of any civilized country, and so far as there is taint of treason, by refusing to bear arms or otherwise support the government, exceptions may, and should be taken to the privileges of citizenship. If this policy were adopted, not the black man, but the man who takes exception to the enfranchisement of the black man, should fall under reprobation and be subjected to disabilities. In this way the magistrate would magnify his office in showing himself "a praise to them who do well."

In view of these statements we conclude that the coloured citizen should be invested fully with all the rights which his Anglo-Saxon fellow citizen claims for himself, the elective franchise included. No reason can be assigned why it should not be so, except the prejudice with which this race is regarded. And whatever use this prejudice may serve in forwarding the sinister ends of unprincipled politicians, we as faithful witnesses are solemnly bound to disregard them and to declare that to discriminate to the disadvantage of the black man in view of his natural claims to citizenship, and his meritorious deeds of patriotism, is sheer injustice. We would briefly express our views on this subject in the following declarations.

1. As this Church has deemed it a part of her mission in times past to "open her mouth for the dumb," she should labour still to set the black man right in view of all his wrongs.

2. That class legislation is a curse to any country, and we condemn as anti-Christian the silly notion that the circumstance of colour should, to any extent, or in any sense, limit or enlarge the application of the sacred principles of human liberty.

3. While we deem it alike indispensable to the safety and happiness both of blacks and whites to fully enfranchise the coloured race, especially in view of his loyalty and acts of valor done in our defence, it becomes a claim of clearest moral justice.

4. From what we have seen and known of prejudice against the coloured race, we have reason to expect to this specific point of reformation determined and persevering opposition; and hence that our people be carefully warned to take no part in such opposition "lest haply they be found fighting against God."

5. Believing that the circumstances of our country are such as are contemplated in our Constitution, which is as follows, chap. xxxi. sec. 5: "Synods and councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs, which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition, in cases extraordinary," we recommend the people under our care to petition Congress for such legislation as shall secure according to the preceding declarations the rights of the coloured race.

G. C. VINCENT, Chairman.

Revs. Dr. Davidson and J. T. McClure entered the following dissent against the sentiments set forth in the preamble of the foregoing report:

From the above action of the General Assembly, I beg leave respectfully to enter my dissent; because,—

1. It is contrary to the explicit language of the Confession of Faith, Chap. section v., which says, "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs, which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition, in cases extraordinary."

2. Because I believe ecclesiastical men, however learned, able and faithful in their own province, are, neither by office, by education, nor by habits of life, competent to give judicial decision on such subjects as are included in the Assembly's action.

3. Because I believe we are, as a church, in danger of most deplorable consequences, if we depart from the just, the reasonable, and the scriptural line of conduct laid down in our Confession of Faith, and already referred to.

WM. DAVIDSON,
J. T. MCCLURE,

Rev. J. S. Woodburn expressed his desire to unite in the foregoing dissent.

The following questions were asked, and answered unanimously in the affirmative:

The subscriber would ask the Assembly to give an answer to the following questions:

1st, Is it the will of the Assembly that the missionary to San Francisco should proceed to that field in case he should not find his way clear, to be absent from his congregation for a longer time than six months?

2nd, Will the Assembly authorize the Executive Committee of the Board of Home Missions to supply the pulpit of the missionary by employing any of those who have received appointments in case he should find it necessary to apply to the Executive Committee for such services.

J. T. COOPER.

Rev. J. G. Armstrong was appointed the alternate of Rev. Dr. James Brown as Commissioner to the Old School General Assembly.

The Committee on a Mission to the Jews made the following report, which was adopted.

The committee to which the above subject was referred would respectfully report that they have received one memorial from the Presbytery of Des Moines, and another from Rev. A. C. Tris, together with a printed acknowledgment of the latter as to moneys which he has collected, to which is again attached another paper of still additional donations received by him.

The memorial from Des Moines Presbytery is a request that we should as a church engage in a mission among the Jews of the United States. Besides labouring for the conversion of the Jews in the foreign field, our denomination has done something by contributions of individual members and congregations, made at various times to the society for the amelioration of the condition of the Jews in the United States of America; and this subject was favourably entertained by the Assembly of last year in a report then adopted.

From Mr. Tris's papers we learn, that having been disappointed in not being employed by the society for the amelioration of the condition of the Jews, to which he applied for service in this field of labour, he commenced to labour independently. He has lectured in various congregations of our denomination, and has taken up collections in behalf of a mission to the Jews. The several items amount to (758.53) seven hundred and fifty-eight dollars and fifty-three cents, whilst the expenses are ($716.64) seven hundred and sixteen dollars and sixty-four cents, six hundred dollars of which are charged as salary for nine months' service. The accounts are not well kept,—as discrepancies appear on their face.

The desire of the memorialist appears to be to continue in this work; and the zeal which he manifests in the labour which he has accomplished in conversing with the Jews and distributing tracts and copies of the scriptures among them deserves all praise.

1st, Resolved, That ministers be recommended to preach to our people on the history and condition of the Jews as they illustrate the providence of God, and the fulfilment of prophecy, and upon their prospective conversion and its influence upon the church and the world.

2d, Resolved, That special collections be taken up in all our churches for the establishment of a fund for this mission, and that the supervision of this fund be intrusted to the executive committee on the Board of Home Missions.

3d, Resolved, That Rev. A. C. Tris be appointed to labour as a missionary among the Jews, under the 1st Presbytery of New York, and that he be paid by the Board of Home Missions at the rate of ($800) eight hundred dollars per annum. All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES BARNETT, Chairman.

The Committee on the communication from Mr. Joseph M. Wilson presented the following report, which was adopted:—

The Committee on the communication from Mr. Joseph M. Wilson concerning Mansees recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this communication be published in the minutes of the Assembly, and that Presbyteries be directed to give it such consideration as they may see fit, and report to the next Assembly. On behalf of the committee.

M. ARNOTT, Chairman.

The following is Mr. Wilson's communication, referred to in the report:

Philadelphia Pa. May, 1865.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church, meeting in Washington, Iowa.

In accordance with the proposition I had the honour of submitting to the last General Assembly, I issued a circular concerning MANSEES, or comfortable homes for Presbyterian ministers.

The circular contained the following inquiries:—

1. The name of the church and the year of its organization.
2. The amount of rent paid by the minister for a house to live in.
3. Have they a manse? If so, how long has it been finished? and what amount is saved by their minister thus living in a comfortable home?

The replies have been few; not enough to warrant any formal enumeration of them. Those received, however, indicate an earnest desire that the work should be pushed forward zealously.

An examination of the inquiries show that the returns are intended to be valuable, not only in regard to mansees, but historically. The replies to the first question will form a chronological history of the church, giving the year of the organization of each congregation, which being properly arranged and classified, will make a very suggestive table to intelligent Presbyterians.

The replies to the second question will show what a heavy tax is paid by the minister for the privilege of preaching the Gospel; for it must be thoroughly understood that it is just as honest to make a minister pay for the use of the pulpit where he preaches his sermons, as for the house where he prepares them. Therefore a careful compilation of what is thus paid (not to say wasted,) will attract attention by its magnitude, and it becomes humiliating when it is understood that in no other country, save our own, does this absurd condition of affairs exist.

The third question, when answered affirmatively, fills all hearts with gratitude. There is no happier place on earth, (other things being equal,) than a manse, where a Presbyterian minister's family are living in a comfortable home, provided by the liberality and grace of a Christian congregation.

I would therefore respectfully suggest, that the churches be requested to make replies to said Overture, in order to a successful accomplishment of the scheme; and, for the purpose of bringing the subject prominently and effectively before the church, the presbyteries be enjoined to ask for a report from each congregation under their care, what they have done in times past, what they are now doing, and what they propose to do, so that their ministers can have manses; and that they report to the next Assembly their condition in this particular. Also, that a column be added in the statistical table for manses, where the words yes or no can be introduced, signifying whether they have, or have not a manse for their minister.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

JOSEPH M. WILSON.

The Committee on the Delegate Fund presented the following report. The Assembly directed said report to be published, and final action thereon was referred to the next General Assembly:

Your Committee would respectfully report, that after considering the fact that the burdens of the Church in defraying the expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly are not equally divided, and consequently the Church not equally represented, would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1st, Resolved, That a Delegate Fund be established by the Assembly.

2d, Resolved, That a sum be assessed on the several Presbyteries in proportion to the number of communicants under their care, sufficient to allow an average of thirty dollars per Delegate to the Assembly, which, in the judgment of your committee, would amount to six thousand dollars.

3d, Resolved, That Presbyteries be required to deposit their contributions in the hands of the Treasurer of the Assembly annually, before the meeting of the Assembly.

4th, Resolved, That the committee on credentials be authorized to furnish each commissioner to the Assembly with an order on the Treasurer for an amount equal to his necessary expenses by the most direct route to the Assembly, or in proportion to such expense in case of a deficiency in the Treasury.

5th, Resolved, That if any Presbytery shall neglect to contribute their proportion, their commissioners shall not be paid, if there be a deficiency in the Treasury.

By order of the committee.

JOHN HARPER, Chairman.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented the following report, on the memorial from the Presbytery of Westmoreland, in relation to the tithe system. Said report was adopted:

The Committee to which was referred the memorial of the Westmoreland Presbytery present the following report.

The Presbytery of Westmoreland ask this Assembly to appoint a committee to investigate and report upon the "Tithe System."

Believing that investigation, such as is contemplated, may contribute to diffuse light on the general subject of Christian beneficence, your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the requests of the memorialists be granted, and that the Rev. J. G. Fulton be appointed a committee to investigate "the Tithe System," and report to the next Assembly. By order of the Committee, WM. DAVIDSON.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented the following report, which was adopted:

We find this Board in a flourishing condition, as is seen in the number and excellence of the books they are publishing and circulating. We recommend the adoption, by the Assembly, of the following resolutions:

1st. That in accordance with the request of the Board, the balance sheet accompanying their report be published, in order that the church may know the state of its finances; also their Bible distribution report.

2d. That in view of the urgent demand by our people for our subordinate standards, and that the interests of our church are suffering for the want of them, the Board of Publication be directed to publish, as soon as practicable, such parts of the Standards as are perfected, viz., the Confession, and Testimony, and Catechisms.

3d. That the Presbyteries be directed to take into consideration the condition and importance of this Board, and adopt such measures as will bring its claims before their congregations, and secure from them more liberal contributions than in times past.

4th. That the sum of five thousand dollars be appropriated for the use of this Board.

5th. That Dr. Kerr, James McCandless, and William Stevenson, whose terms of service expire at this meeting, be re-elected.

Respectfully submitted. By order of the COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence beg leave to respectfully present the following report:

The sums asked for by the respective Boards of the church are as follows:—The Board of Foreign Missions ask for $86,800. The Board of Home Missions ask for $33,000. The Board of Publication ask for $5,000. The Board of Education ask for $10,000. The Board of Missions to the Freedmen ask for $22,000. The Board of Church Extension ask for $20,000. The sums thus asked for are needed to carry on our work with energy and efficiency; nor can they be diminished without injury. All our former experience shows that the undue economy, amounting, often, to oppressive and niggardly parsimony, with which we sought to carry on our work, was a most wasteful extravagance, because it has in almost innumerable instances caused failure where failure was wholly unnecessary, and where we had the fairest prospects of great and speedy success.

In the estimates now submitted, in the judgment of your committee, not an appropriation can be cut down without an injury to our work;—not an important one without a serious injury, whilst many of them could be increased, not a few doubled, and new ones made with the best results. Large, therefore, as the estimates may seem, it is earnestly hoped that the Assembly will vote them, and the people show, by a prompt and liberal response, that they are ready and willing for the work whereunto God has called us. They are well able to contribute all that is asked. The mere increase of wealth in some single churches during the last year, if now brought and laid on the altar, would much more than meet the entire requisition. Then, shall it not be met? We must meet it, if we are to perform our part in the great work which the gracious Elder Brother assigns us in this country, and throughout the world; for a great work has been assigned us, and it must be done,—promptly and well, or present and future generations will reap baleful harvests of disaster from our inexcusable and shameful dereliction. A new world is to be consecrated to Christ and his cause for ever. An old world is to be redeemed and regenerated. Time passes rapidly. Momentous issues are fitting on the dial's point of the crisis. Let us be up and be doing; and so, distant lands and future ages shall rise up and call us blessed. Let us, and all our people learn to rise to the sublime heights of this great occasion, and then, with God's blessing, eternity alone shall unfold the good and grand results to ourselves, to the world, and to the universal family of the Great Father of heaven and of earth.

Nor is pecuniary contribution all that is needed. All must be taught to watch, and pray, and labour, as well as to give.

Presbyteries must, every one, bear in mind that upon them devolves the duty of conducting and carrying on the Home Mission work in their respective bounds, and not to rest in spirit, from prayer or from labour, whilst there is one moral waste within their territory.

Congregations, families and individuals, must be taught to co-operate with Presbyteries, by ceaseless vigilance, prayer and effort, in establishing and conducting prayer meetings and Sabbath schools, and preaching stations all around them, and by labouring to bring every perishing soul to Jesus. Every member of the Church, old and young, rich and poor, high and low, should be led to stir up the gift that is in them, to trade with the talent intrusted to them, to present themselves, body, soul and substance, time, talent, influence, strength and all, a living sacrifice to God, as their reasonable service. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, over the whole breadth of the wide expanse, let there not be found a single idler in the United Presbyterian Church. Now is both the sowing time and the inipient harvest. Let every soul amongst us all, that regards the Great Salvation, stir itself up to an increase of prayer, of spiritual-mindedness, of holy living, and of earnest working for the glory of God and the salvation of man, and rest not, from year's end to year's end, even as the Elder Brother rested not, until our work is done, and we hear the Ma-ter say that it has been well done, as amid the shouts and hal-lelujahs of brothers gone before, he bids us cease from labour, and enter into rest. Your committee, therefore, recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That it is the duty of pastors and sessions to use their diligence,
1st. To instruct our people in the nature of Christian beneficence, and that it is a most solemn duty and precious privilege.

2d. That they endeavour, by the pulpit, the press, personal influence, and all proper means, to disseminate among all, a correct knowledge and understanding of the various enterprises of the church, committed to the hands of her several Boards, and lead them, by all just means, to contribute all, and more than has been asked by the Assembly for these respective objects: and that "they see to it that every member of the church is afforded an opportunity of contributing to each of these funds," and that they insist upon it, that it is a solemn duty, and an inestimable privilege—a privilege which only eternity can unfold as it is—to contribute as God hath prospered them, and to do this freely, joyfully and praye fully.

Resolved 2. That it is also the especial duty of ministers, of elders, and of all influential members, to continue, steadfastly, in prayerful, earnest, and per-severing labour, until they have brough both themselves and all the people to a much higher standard of holy labour in the cause of God: endeavouring,

1st. To secure a mere general, and far more thorough Christian family training.

2d. To organize and sustain prayer-meetings and Sabbath schools, not only in every congregation, but in all the destitute neighbourhoods in their respective vicinities.

3d. To secure an increase of mutual Christian edification, and the conversion and salvation of those who are perishing around them.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Committee.

WM DAVIDSON.

Resolved, That Rev. S. B. Reed and Rev. Charles A. Dickey be a committee to prepare a Roll for the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That the Presbyteries of Chartiers, Wheeling, Steubenville and Muskingum, be requested to supply the pulpits of Revs. J. T. McClure and D. F. Reid, while absent attending to the duties of the Committee on Psalmody.

The following resolution was adopted:—

Resolved, That the Minutes be published in the Evangelical Repository and United Presbyterian Review, and that five hundred copies be published in pamphlet form, to be sold at the cost of publication, and that the other papers of the church be requested to publish extracts from the Minutes of this Assembly.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Board of Freedmen, under the direction of this Assembly, be directed to enter into correspondence with the North-western Freedmen's Aid Commission, with a view to united effort in educating the Freedmen.

2. Resolved, That the Board be directed to report to the next Assembly the result of that correspondence.

3. Resolved, That congregations be requested to take up collections for the Assembly's Fund on the third Sabbath of June, or as soon as practicable after that date.

4. Resolved, That Messrs. James M'Candless and John Dean be appointed a committee to secure reduced fares on the railroads for delegates to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the following railroad companies for their kindness in reducing the fares over their respective roads for the benefit of the delegates: Pennsylvania Central, Chicago and Great Eastern, Indiana Central, and the Lafayette and Indianapolis.

Resolved, That the Clerk be directed to transmit a copy of the resolution of thanks adopted by this Assembly to the Editors of the Washington Press.

Dr. David R. Kerr, was added to the Committee on the New Version of the Psalms.

Resolved, That this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another General Assembly, similarly constituted, be called to meet in the Second Church, Allegheny City, Pa., on the last Thursday of May, 1866, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

The Minutes of the last and of this session were read and approved.

The Moderator declared the General Assembly dissolved. Closed with prayer by the moderator, the singing of the last two verses of the seventy-second Psalm, and the pronouncing of the Apostolic benediction.

JOHN B. CLARK, Moderator.

JOSEPH T. COOPER, Stated Clerk.

[N. B.—The following is the report of the Committee on the Narrative and the State of Religion. It was not, through some oversight on the part of the Committee, presented to the Assembly. It has, however, been transmitted to the Stated Clerk, and is herewith published.]

STATED CLERK.

The Committee on the Narrative and State of religion report:

That of the forty-nine Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly, the reports of forty came before your committee.

The following items may be noted:

During the past year there have been twenty-three licensures, twenty-five ordinations, forty-nine installations, and thirty dissolutions of the pastoral relation. Four ministers have died, two have left the Church, three have come to us from other Churches, twenty students of Theology have been received, and one has died. Three congregations have been organized, two have been received from other denominations, and three Presbyteries have been organized.

The reports of Presbyteries respecting the State of Religion are generally of a favourable character. Several speak of increased attendance upon the means of grace, and of larger than usual accessions to the Church. Family worship seems to be generally observed; and while there is no mention of the dissolution of any Sabbath schools or prayer-meetings, there are reports of the organization of several of both, and in some cases of increased attendance upon, and interest in them. At the same time there seems to be a general complaint that meetings for prayer are not attended so largely as they ought to be, and the prayer is frequently expressed in which we heartily unite, that God would pour out upon his people in a larger measure, the spirit of grace and supplication. It deserves to be noted, also, that mention is frequently made of a decided increase in the contributions to the various Boards of the Church; and when it is remembered how numerous and urgent have been the demands for the comfort of the soldiers, and how liberally they have been responded to by our people, it is a matter of special thanksgiving to God that none of the enterprises of the Church have been suffered to fail for lack of the necessary material aid. It is, however, a matter of lamentation that the decided stand taken by the ministry in support of the Government in its measures for the overthrow of rebellion and the rooting out of slavery, have offended numbers of our people in various sections of the Church, insomuch that they have gone out from us; but while we grieve for them, we rejoice in the purging of the Church, and in the removal of an element which affected its unity, and demolished the power of its testimony in behalf of truth and righteousness.

On the whole, while the reports speak of no marked revivals of religion, yet they afford evidence of the presence of God in his Church, and his owning the dispensation of his word and ordinances for good to souls, in view of which we should thank God and take courage.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In making their Sixth Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board of Foreign Missions desire to record with gratitude the goodness of God to His cause in our hands during the past year. In no instance has death been permitted to visit either the Board or any of our missionaries. In no field, so far as known to us, have our missionaries been suffered to be in want, or any of our missions been forced to be given up, though war has been upon our country and heavy burdens have been laid on our people. In a few cases, sickness and long-continued over-work have induced serious bodily infirmities upon our labourers, and compelled their withdrawal from the field, but it is confidently hoped that this is only temporarily, and that, through the divine blessing upon the means used, their health and strength will be early restored. In at least one of our missions the heart of the great of this world has been turned to us, and most substantial and important benefit has been conferred by him upon the work of our hands. In nearly all of our stations, also, there have been gratifying evidences of the Holy Spirit's presence, with the means of grace, and labour has not been in vain in the Lord. The ignorant have been instructed, souls have been converted, and numbers have been added to the churches of such as it is believed will be saved. For all these things and the like, the Board call on the Assembly and the churches at large to THANK GOD AND TAKE COURAGE.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The whole amount received from all sources during the past year has been as follows: for General Fund, $60,918 86; for Building Fund, at Alexandria, $15,039 89; for Education of Coptic Priests, $2,150 74; making a total of $78,109 49. The expenditures or disbursements for General Fund amount to $55,955 60; to Alexandria Building Fund, $14,719 75, and to Coptic Priests' Fund, by investments, $2,056 28; making a total of disbursements $72,731 63, and leaving a balance in hand for all purposes, of $5,377 86; more than all of which is now due to our different missions. In view, however, of all that has been done, the Board cannot but recognize, with gratitude, the liberality of the churches and of the friends of Christ and of missions, in responding to earnest calls for help. May rich returns be experienced in all spiritual blessings.

MISSIONS.

1. TRINIDAD. The General Assembly of last year having left the disposition of this mission to the Board, a correspondence was entered into early afterwards, with brethren on that island, in regard to a transfer of the mission premises to some sister church in Scotland which had laboured in the immediate vicinity. No final result has yet been reached, but the Board may say the interest and importance of that mission can scarcely be over-estimated. More than 20,000 Coolies from India, and over 2,000 Chinese are now there, who, together with large numbers of people previously on the island, are all more or less directly accessible to those who would seek to save the lost. The thanks of the Assembly are due to both Rev. George Lambert and Rev. George Brodie, Missionaries from Scotland, for their kindness in looking after our mission property, in their neighbourhood, and for occupying it, as far as they could, with the means of grace. And if the Assembly cannot undertake to revive the mission there, the Board recommend that the liberty be granted it to make a final transfer of the premises to the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, or some sister church of like precious faith, on the condition that it be occupied, and that solely, for missionary purposes.

2. ITALY. While this mission is entirely under the direction of the American and Foreign Christian Union, and has no formal connection with our Board, yet we may mention that the Rev. W. G. Moorehead is still a missionary in this field. After being with the Assembly at its meeting last year, and remaining a few months longer in the country, he returned to Italy last fall, and is now actively occupied, both in preaching and teaching, at Carrara, a town not far from Florence, and containing from 15,000 to 20,000 inhabitants. He is doing good work and doing it well.

3. SYRIA. In this mission things remain much as they were at our last report. Rev. John Crawford and wife are the missionaries. His residence and principal station are at Damascus. There he has the oversight of both boys' and girls' schools, and has regular preaching on the Sabbath, with religious meetings through the week, and a faithful dispensation of the sacraments of grace from time to time. Besides Damascus, he has charge of useful stations at Yabrud, Nebk, Deir-Atiyeh, Rasheiyah and En Shaara. At all these stations schools are more or less regularly kept up, the Gospel is preached as often as he is able to attempt it, and numbers have been received into the membership of the church. Most earnestly do the people at all these stations press the call for constant preaching and teaching of the word, and most earnestly does the Board urge the Assembly to re-enforce this most interesting mission.

4. INDIA. In this mission there are two stations, Sealkote and Gujranwalla. The missionaries in Sealkote are, Rev. Andrew Gordon and wife, Rev. E. H. Stevenson and wife, and Miss E. P. Gordon, together with Rev. G. W. Scott and wife, natives. The missionaries at Gujranwalla, are Rev. James S. Barr and wife, and Rev. E. P. Swift and wife, natives. In each of these stations the mission work has been prosecuted through the year, but greatly, the Board regret to say, in a crippled state. During the entire year, the Rev. Andrew Gordon, the oldest and one of the most tried and devoted members of the mission, has been laid aside by long-continued ill health, and after much deliberation and prayer, and with the approbation of the Board, he left the field of his labours, on the 28th of November last, on his way to this country, in hopes of being restored to health and usefulness. His family, together with Miss Gordon, a faithful teacher for years in the girls' school, are returning with him. The Rev. E. H. Stevenson also has been more or less disabled, and having obtained the approval of the Board also, he and his family are returning at the same time, with the hope of being materially and permanently benefited. Thus the mission has been deprived of a large part of its most experienced force during the year, and is so still. The families of the native missionaries have been more or less afflicted, and thus the Rev. Mr. Barr has been almost entirely alone, and himself often not in strong condition. In this state of things, the Board have anxiously sought for persons to recommend to the Assembly for appointment to this field, but as yet utterly in vain. If, however, this mission is to be continued, and if it would be made in any way to meet the great calls upon it for good, the Board most urgently ask the Assembly to devise something for it at once. The Board regret that, in the absence of any letters from this mission, (except those in regard to our returning brethren,) since about the middle of last year, we are unable to give any further information in reference to its condition and prospects.

CHINA. This mission is located at Canton. The Rev. J. C. Nevin and wife are the missionaries. During a part of last year his health was much affected, but he has since recovered, and is energetically prosecuting his work. Good audiences wait on his ministry, and good opportunities are given him for imparting Bible class instruction. The field is increasingly wide for useful occupancy, but it is a matter of profound regret that still, as heretofore, the Board must report that Mr. Nevin is alone in this mission. Appeals have been made in the most earnest manner, both in private and public, but as yet there is no one to be sent. Besides this want of one or more additional labourers, this mission has deeply felt the need of suitable premises. These would afford the missionary personal accommodations, greatly diminish the expenses by saving heavy rents, and give the mission an air of permanency which it cannot have while in a changeable state. Having, therefore, found a property that would answer well for a mission site, Mr. Nevin secured it at a cost of only about $800, and the Board have approved of his course, in the hope that the General Assembly will promptly take steps for raising the necessary funds. In reference to this, Mr. Nevin says:—"I ask a grant of $2,000, to be employed, as far as is necessary, in the construction of a chapel and school room; also, a further grant of $5,000, or a new man and $10,000, to give the mission that permanence and countenance which it ought to receive."

To this request of Mr. Nevin the Board add their deliberate conviction that the time has come when the Assembly and the whole church should decide whether the China Mission will be fully supplied, or the field be given up, and the devoted labourer removed to some other and better furnished mission. He cannot, and he ought not, be compelled to labour on, year after year, alone, and without the proper accommodations for his work.

5. EGYPT. This mission has now three important stations, viz. :

First, Alexandria, Rev. A. Watson and wife, and Rev. E. Currie and wife, are the missionaries in this place. During the year, this station has suffered much in want of accommodations for its work. But religious services have been regularly maintained, the schools have been kept open, and additions have been made to the membership of the Mission Church. By the favourable directings of Providence, an opportunity was offered for purchasing missionary premises, and this has been done, it is believed, under very happy auspices. The location is healthful, near the harbour, in the very midst of the people whom it is specially desired to benefit, and capable of being improved to almost any necessary extent. The happy effect of this purchase is already seen in the increased attendance of the people upon the means of grace, and their enlarged interest in the things of the gospel. The cost of this building and the premises was $16,500, most of which we rejoice to say has been already paid through the munificent liberality of friends in Egypt and of the Churches in this country. In all this God has done great things for us, whereof our hearts are glad.

Second. Cairo. In this station the Rev. Gulian Lansing and wife, Rev. S. C. Ewing and wife, and Misses Sarah B. Dales and Sarah Hart are the missionaries. While there have been some changes and trials here, yet signally has the Lord's hand been stretched out to own His word for saving good in this important city. The house of worship is now full of earnest and attentive worshippers every Sabbath. Both the boys' and girls' schools have been carried on uninterruptedly and with manifest tokens of progress. A theological class has been formed under the special instructions of the missionaries. Most of the members of this class—eleven in number—have been Coptic priests, and their direct purpose is to enter yet the gospel ministry, and labour among their people throughout the land of Egypt. Persecution has done what it could to hinder the work in some way in this city, but God has poured out his Spirit in the very face of the rage of wicked men. Fourteen persons have joined the mission church, which now numbers fifty-eight communicants, and most signally has this band of native Christians shown the spirit of liberality, in that they have contributed for the purposes of the Gospel, during the year, the large sum of $2,573 71, being an average of $44 37 for each member, or, if we add to them the eleven members of the church in Alexandria, there would be an average of $37 30 for every member of the church in the Presbytery. This is truly liberal, and shows a most happy disposition to obey the Saviour's charge, "freely ye have received, freely give."

Third. Osiut. This is a large town on the Nile, about 270 miles above Cairo. Rev. John Hogg and wife, and Miss Martha J. McKown have been appointed to this field for the present. From this place, the cry for the missionary and the teacher has been long and urgent, and from its position in one of the most influential districts of all Upper Egypt, its occupancy has been felt to be of very great interest to the cause of missions in that land. Yielding at length to the call, the brethren have entered upon the work here, and already it promises much that is cheering and full of encouragement and hope. Boys' and girls' schools are opened, and the word is regularly preached.

Fourth, The Nile Work. This consists in making excursions up and down the river Nile, mainly from Cairo, and in reading and preaching the Word of God, and distributing it, together with other evangelical works, among the people. Five such excursions, extending in the aggregate over several months, have been made during the year, and thousands of volumes of gospel truth have been thereby scattered abroad. Widely also has a desire for improvement been spread abroad, and already boys and men are brought from far up the Nile to enjoy the benefits of our mission house in Cairo.

In regard to the mission in Egypt, the Board desire to mention that several things of special interest have occurred during the past year. In the month of June last, His Highness the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, a Prince of the Royal Family in India, and at present a resident, of decidedly Christian as well as noble character, in England, was led to marry a person who was a pupil in the girls' school in our Mission House and a member of our Mission Church in Cairo. At the same time, and as a token of his grateful interest in the mission, he made through his young bride, a donation of £1,000 to the mission, and guaranteed for the future £500 a year for the support of two new missionaries in that field. These princely gifts have been followed since by his presenting the mission with a printing press, with all the necessary furniture for having it usefully employed.

In the autumn of last year, Wasef El Hyatt, the American Consular Agent in Osiut, a native Copt, of wealth and great influence in his region, and long an earnest inquirer after the truth as it is in Jesus, was admitted after a careful examination of his knowledge, experience and views, to the membership of the Mission Church in Cairo, and is now become a great and effectual door of access for our mission to his large and influential city. Through the influence of the Hon. Charles Hale, recently appointed by our Government United States Consul General in Egypt, in place of the late lamented Hon. W. S. Thayer, the Viceroy of Egypt generously refunded to our mission the sum of $900, which had been expended by our brethren in procuring the title deeds of the New Mission premises in Alexandria. Besides all this, and better still, a spirit of inquiry and enterprise is widely rising up in Egypt, and attention is thus more and more turned towards our mission work and the word of life which it labours to teach and preach and thoroughly scatter abroad, among all classes and conditions of the people. For all these, and the like great things that God has done for us in our mission work, the Board again call upon all to give thanks and be encouraged to pray and work yet more and more.

MISSIONARIES.

Encouraged by the above liberal proffer of the Prince, and availing themselves of the authority granted by the last Assembly to endeavor to meet any emergency that might arise during the year, the Board, in an earnest desire to supply the want of help which was unceasingly felt in Egypt, appointed, after much deliberation and inquiry, the Rev. Ebenezer Currie, of the First Presbytery of Ohio, to this field. This appointment he accepted, and on the 4th of March, together with his wife, sailed from New York, and the Board are happy to inform the Assembly they have safely reached their place of destination, and are already entered upon the proper course of preparation for their great work in Alexandria. This appointment, the Assembly will notice, will be without expense henceforth to our church, and the Board are anxious, as doubtless the Assembly and the whole church will be, to have another mission family sent out at the earliest day possible, on the same liberal terms—the grant of the prince covering the expenses of both.

Miss Sarah Hart, who, at our last report was absent from the mission at Cairo, seeking recruiting from her arduous and exhausting labors, has returned to her place with renewed strength and spirit, and has entered again upon her work with zeal and encouraging prospects.

Miss Sarah B. Dales, of the same mission, has been compelled, the Board regret to say, to retire for a season from the work to which, for nearly eleven years, she had uninterruptedly devoted herself. This she felt constrained to do under the advice of the physician and members of the mission, and with the consent of the Board, in the hope that rest from labour, long voyages at sea, and a visit to her native land, might result in her restoration to health and in her being able to engage again in her great work. Accordingly, leaving Egypt on the 18th of March, she arrived in New York April 17, and proposes returning to her mission again early in the ensuing autumn.

Rev. Dr. Barnett is still in this country, subserving, as far as opportunity offers, the cause of missions and purposing to return at an early day to the mission service.

ESTIMATES.

After much consideration the Board believe that at the very lowest estimates of real and contingent expenses for the ensuing year, the Assembly should make provision for the following sums:—

For current expenses for China, $3,700; India, $10,331; Syria, $2,373; Egypt, $17,000; loans in India and Egypt [now due and called for] $4,800; exchanges as rates now are, about $20,000,—Total for current expenses $58,204. The following contingencies may in all probability occur and ought by all means to be provided for; viz:—To send out two new missionaries to India, $4,500, and one female teacher $1,000; to send out to Egypt a new mission family whom the Prince will afterwards support $1,200; to have Rev. Dr. Barnett return and be supported for the year, $2,000. Exchanges on these sums $4,350; making for contingencies thus $13,050, or a total in all of $71,254.

Besides these sums, the Assembly should determine what shall be done with the application of Rev. J. C. Nevin for special grants for China. In India too liberal grants are called for for mission premises at Gujranwalla, if that mission is to be efficiently manned and carried on. In regard to the Alexandria Building Fund, the last Assembly recommended the raising of $30,000 for this important purpose. Thus far $15,039,89 have been raised on this account. The Mission in Egypt say —“The $30,000 which were pledged by the last Assembly, are urgently speedily needed, in order to repay what has been temporarily borrowed, for other funds of the Mission, to enlarge the mission premises, so that they may receive another mission family and the natural growth of the schools; to build a more capacious chapel, and to secure a summer house in Ramleh.”

All these moneys, both for current and contingent expenses, are necessary for the success and in most instances for the very existence of our missions, and it is therefore most earnestly hoped the Assembly will take effectual steps for having the treasury promptly and fully supplied.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Board respectfully recommend the following action to the consideration of the General Assembly.

1. That the thanks of the General Assembly be given to His Highness, the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, for his distinguished kindness and liberality to our mission in Egypt. Also to the Hon. Charles Hale, United States Consul General in Egypt, for his very friendly and efficient offices in conducting the negotiations connected with our missionaries procuring the title-deeds of the new mission property in Alexandria. And also to the American and British and Foreign Bible Societies, and to the American Tract Society for their repeated liberal grants to our Missions.

2. That the Board be authorized to publish its annual report, with such other information of our missions as may be contained in a brief space in a neat pamphlet form. It is believed this will be found of great use for general reference and information.

3. That in the present pressing exigencies of the missions in India, China and Syria, and under the present proffer of means to support a new missionary in Egypt without drawing upon the funds of the church, the Assembly will appoint missionaries to these fields, or if unable to do so, or, if the persons so appointed shall not go, that then the Assembly will continue to the Board the power to send out a re-enforcement to any of these fields, if Providence shall raise up the suitable persons to be employed in the service.

4. That the Assembly will continue to appoint the membership of the Board from the same vicinity, that thus, as has been signally and happily the case during the past year, the meetings of the Board may be always fully attended.

5. That in view of the signs of the times, and the special need of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit from on high, the Assembly will recommend the observance in all our congregations of the usual season of special prayer during the week after the first Sabbath of the new year 1866;—more particularly that God will revive His work in all the churches—will raise up men for the ministry and the missionary service—will support and establish his servants in making his way known on earth,—and will hasten his coming and his kingdom in all the world.

VACANCIES.

The terms of service of Rev. Messrs. F. Church, W. W. Barr, and J. T. Cooper, D. D., expire at this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board.

J. B. DALES, Cor. Secretary.

ADDENDA.

Since the foregoing report was prepared the Annual Report of the India Mission came to hand. It is an affecting document, showing great trials, and needs. Beside what has been mentioned in the Report of the Board, in may here be stated:

In SEALKOTE the preaching of the word and the exercises of public worship have been regularly kept up by Rev. G. W. Scott. The attendance has averaged above one hundred. This Mission Church now numbers twenty-four members and the amount of contributions were about forty Rupees [nearly $20.] The schools at this station have sorely felt the change of the year. The City school, which opened in the beginning of last June with 140 boys, was forced, after Mr. Gordon was laid aside, gradually to decline until it was at length disbanded. The Compound School is made up of persons who come to the Mission Compound to inquire after the truth. They are usually unable to read, and a course of school instruction is found to be of great service in having them become acquainted with the Gospel. This school has been continued during the year, mainly by Mr. Scott, assisted by the labors [often under great trials] of Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Barr. The Orphan school was divided in 1863, the boys being removed to Gujranwalla and the girls remaining in Sealkote. The school at Sealkote has now about seventeen children; four of the eldest of whom have given evidence of a gracious change, and have been baptized and received into the church. Since Miss Gordon was called to leave, there has been great difficulty in having them properly provided for: Mr. and Mrs. Scott have done all they could do—Most earnestly does the mission ask for help,—especially that in this case some devoted Christian women shall go out and enter upon the great work of training this interesting charge. The Industrial school, originated in a desire to furnish employment as a means of procuring support to inquirers and poor native Christians. It is not sustained by the Funds of the mission, but it is superintended by the missionaries, and is now supporting itself. It has done a good work, and originating as it did with our Missions, it is an honour to them. The usual preaching in the city and the itinerating of former years have been largely interrupted during the year, but when attended to was well received.

At GUJRANWALLA there have been trials and mercies: Mrs. Swift was in feeble health a considerable time, and in July last Mr. Barr was prostrated, so that both had to be removed for a season from the place. In the good providence of God, however, the mission work has been carried on. In want of suitable buildings the city school has never been in operation yet at this station: the Orphan school, however, has been in good condition. It now numbers twenty-two boys, and they are all making good proficiency. A building is very greatly needed for the interesting work of the mission. Preaching has been continued as regularly as the brethren were in any way able to have it—Mr. Swift preaching when in the place and Mr. Barr attempting it as far as his knowledge of the language would permit. Not as much itinerating work was attended to as usual—but wherever put forth, it seems to have been with encouraging results. In this station there is a most painful want of suitable mission buildings. There is no church edifice, no building for the orphan boys, no building for our devoted missionary Mr. Barr, and, what adds to the perplexity and trial of the case, is, there is scarcely any building that can be rented. These things ought not to be. If the mission is to go on, men ought at once be sent out to supply the most painful lack at present,—a lack of at least two men for the mission work and one female teacher for the girls' schools,—and with these, and indeed without them too, there should be sent out immediately ample means to furnish buildings—and to keep moneys also in the mission treasury in advance of dues to meet contingencies which will almost necessarily arise. Most earnestly does the Board ask the Assembly to consider what shall be done in regard to this mission, and to do whatever is done at once.

By order of the Board.

J. B. DALES, Chairman.

ADDENDA SECOND.

Since the report was written, the Rev. Mr. Crawford has forwarded his Annual Report of the Syrian Mission, and it is deemed important that the General Assembly should have the following additional particulars:—

In Damascus, the Sabbath audience has gradually increased and is made up for the most part of an interesting class of young men and women who give earnest attention to the preached word and manifest the deepest interest in the truth. The General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church, which co-operates with us and bears half of the expense of this mission have just sent out the Rev. Mr. Wright and wife to be associated with Mr. Crawford in cultivating this field. It is hoped Mr. Robson will return from the same church some time during the ensuing summer. The boys' school here has been so largely attended that many applications for admission to it have had to be refused. A much larger number of the Scriptures and other religious books have been sold during this year than during the previous year. Last summer Mr. Crawford succeeded in purchasing a spacious lot in a most eligible locality in the Christian quarter of the city for the erection of a church and rooms for schools and other mission purposes.—and such has been the favour of Divine Providence towards this mission in raising up friends for it in times past that word has reached us that after all the cost of this lot is defrayed there are over £1,600 sterling in hand to go on erecting mission buildings. This is a matter of devout thankfulness to God. Ere long we may hope for good missionary accommodations for that mission without expense to us here at home.

The different stations of the Syrian mission and of Damascus are all in good condition. "In all of these," says the missionary, "the schools are doing well, and there is in all of them an earnest and pressing call for the preaching of the word. Employment might be found at once in all these stations and in the villages near them for four missionaries able to preach the language. When will this be? I have made this statement so often that I have little heart to make it again. Hope deferred maketh the heart sick. When will men be found to break to these needy and perishing souls the bread of life?"

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS TO THE FREEDMEN.

By the blessing of God during the past year, the work of suppressing a wicked rebellion has been almost completed, and consequently the whole slave population of the South are now to be regarded as freedmen. The field presented is much larger than it was last year, and the appeals for help more urgent. Many stations where teachers can safely work, are not half occupied. However, it is our policy to only occupy as many places as can be well cared for, not believing it to be for the interests of this people for any one society to undertake the cultivation of too many fields, no matter how needy and promising. Concentration of effort on a few points will ultimately result in more good than is likely to flow from the occupancy of many points with small force. Accordingly, the same general plan of operation announced last year has been followed this year. However, owing to the great peril to health experienced by our teachers during the hot season on the lower Mississippi, the Board resolved to close the schools in Vicksburgh, and at Davis' Bend, from July 1st until the latter part of September. It is not only a risk of life for teachers to remain, but also there are comparatively few pupils who can attend at that season.

The persons named in the following corps have laboured during the past year under our direction:

FIRST CORPS. VICKSBURGH.

Rev. A. Calhoun, Supt. from Jan. to May, 1865. Capt. Joseph Morehead, Business Agent. Peter Donaldson, Teacher, resigned July, 1864. Mrs. Morehead, Misses Agnes D. Frazer. — Cummings, Belle Brown, Aggie E. Hammond, Alma Glasgow, Sarah J. Gibson, Teachers. Mrs. Calhoun, Teacher, resigned May 1st, 1865.

It is proper to state that Misses Glasgow and Gibson were originally sent out by the Synod of Iowa, and were so deeply interested in their work that they did not return North during last summer.

SECOND CORPS. DAVIS' BEND.

Rev. J. M. Donaldson, Supt., resigned Sept., 1864. Rev. S. M. Coon, present Superintendent. Rev. John Lackey, and Mr. J. K. McConnell, Teachers. Mr. Moses Johnston, (coloured,) Teacher, resigned July, 1864. Mrs. McConnell, Misses Henrietta Lee, M. J. Wallace, Maggie Andrews, M. M. Irvin, Ella R. McCullough, Lizzie Findley, Sallie J. Balph, Mollie Hezlep, Eliza Proudfit, Sadie A. Hall, Mrs. N. J. Campbell, Teachers.

This is the largest corps in the service. A part of it, consisting of Misses Lee and Wallace, and Mrs. Campbell, assisted by a Mr. Given, a very worthy United Presbyterian, sent out by the North-Western Freedmen's Aid Commission at Chicago, has been labouring under the immediate supervision of Rev. John Lackey. A number of this corps remained in that field during last summer, but the results were painful, as we shall state in another place.

In the month of January last, Rev. J. Lackey and J. K. McConnell, each received an appointment as Superintendent of a plantation worked by the freedmen, and from that time have received their full salary from the Government. This is regarded as favourable to our cause, and each gives some attention still to our work.

THIRD CORPS. MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE.

Rev. C. T. McCaughan, Supt., resigned April 1, 1865. Rev. M. M. Pollock, present Superintendent. Misses Mary B. Johnston, Fannie Kiddoo, M. A. Lorimer, J. C. Milligan, Frank McCaughan, Teachers.

This field can be occupied all the year, and is promising. Miss Johnston, after the breaking up of the "Camp Holly Springs," where the mission was originally located, took charge of an Industrial School in Memphis, where she has been instrumental in doing much good during the past winter. As a great portion of the pupils at Holly Springs were transferred to President's Island, our school in Memphis is largely composed of scholars not under the tuition of our teachers last year.

FOURTH CORPS. PRESIDENT'S ISLAND.

Rev. D. Strang, Supt., removed Jan. 1, 1865. Misses Jennie L. Buck, Belle Rose, Teacher. Miss Mattie E. Taylor, Teacher, resigned Jan. '65. Miss Mattie Strang, Teacher. Miss Mattie Rose, Teacher, volunteer aid for six months.

Miss Taylor was sent out and supported by the Western Freedmen's Aid Society at Cincinnati. It is proper to state that our work on that island is about at an end. Owing to the late flooding of the island and a recent military order, it is supposed that nearly all the freedmen will be transferred to some other place. And we may say in this connection, that we anticipate the issuing of a military order, which, during the present year, will quite break up all freedmen's camps in rural districts. In the progress of reconstructing the Government, great changes will occur, which can only be met by benevolent societies when they occur.

FIFTH CORPS. KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Mr. R. J. Cresswell, Superintendent. Messrs. John B. Boreland, A. B. Gilfillan, Misses Lizzie G. Cresswell, L. M. Wilson, Jennie Reed, Mrs. L. E. Jackson, Teachers.

This is a very promising station in a healthy location. The schools are large and flourishing. A branch school in charge of A. B. Gilfillan has been opened at East Port, not far from the city. Misses Wilson, Reed and Jackson, were appointed, placed under the care of Mr. Cresswell, and are supported by the O. S. Presbyterian Western Committee. Mr. Cresswell has not received a salary during the year from any Board, but has depended on tuition fees obtained from pupils able to pay a small sum. He is an active and earnest man.

SIXTH CORPS. BEAUFORT, S. C.

Rev. J. R. Slentz, Superintendent. Mrs. — Slentz, Misses Lizzie Wilson, Mary McCandless, Teachers.

This corps went in the fall to Beaufort, with a view to establish a Mission on the coast, or on one of the sea islands. Rev. J. R. Slentz made himself responsible for the entire support of the corps. But not finding a field which he regarded as promising for our Church, he and his wife returned home after a short period of labour. Misses Wilson and McCandless remained, but we are not advised of their present relations or operations. The Board hereby expresses thanks to Rev. Slentz for his great generosity in behalf of this work.

INDEPENDENT CORPS. NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Rev. A. S. Montgomery, Supt. for three months. Rev. J. G. McKee, present Superintendent. Messrs. J. R. McCullogh, R. S. Robb, Misses Sarah McKee, Aggie Wallace, Ada Arbuthnot, M. C. Hudelson, J. Hudelson, Mr. Thomas Andrews, Mr. T. P. Clark, (coloured.) Teachers.

This corps, excepting Andrews and Clark appointed by our Board, has been supported by the Presbyteries of Xenia, 1st Ohio, Chillicothe, Indiana and Southern Indiana. Since June 1st, 1864, there have been collected for all purposes connected with this mission, $4,236 84, and expended $4,224 16. The Superintendent receives $700, and each teacher $400 as annual salary. On March 10th, 650 scholars were reported as enrolled. A large Sabbath school is organized, and a school building will soon be completed, which will greatly tend to the prosperity of the Mission. The location is healthy, and gives much promise of good. For the support of T. P. Clark, commissioned by us, the congregation of Steubenville, Ohio, pledges $400 this year. This example of liberality is worthy of praise and imitation.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

For all details you are respectfully referred to the Report of John Dean, Treasurer. The balance in Treasury, at last report, was $4,723.15. To May 4th, 1865, $9,523.18 have been received, making a total of $14,246.33.

For teachers, transportation, books and school buildings, up to May 4th, $8,242.48 have been paid. Since that date to the present time, a considerable sum has been paid on salaries, and some funds have been received. It is believed that the Board will have ample means to discharge all liabilities up to July, 1865. We feel grateful to all who have aided us in this good work, but would remind our brethren of the importance of strictly conforming to the regulations adopted by the Assembly last year. It is very difficult for the Board to determine how many teachers will be supported, unless we have some intimation from the agents of Presbyteries, at an early day, as to the probable amount which will be furnished for this work.

TRANSFERS.

Since our last report, the Synod of Iowa, and the Presbyteries of Wheeling and Muskingum transferred to our care their funds, teachers, and fields of labour. It may be said that all these have done much for the support of teachers and the general interests of the work; and it is believed and earnestly suggested, that this whole work should be consolidated without delay—that all teachers, funds and school property should, for the sake of efficiency and unity of effort, be placed under the general supervision of one Board. We are persuaded that there is no more propriety in having this work under the management of more than one Board, than there would be in the case of Home or Foreign Missions.

LABOURERS AND SALARIES.

Owing to the demand for ministerial labour in the Presbyteries, we have found some difficulty in obtaining the services of suitable persons to occupy the office of Superintendent at our respective stations. Sometimes the interests of the work have been imperilled in this way, but by persevering efforts we have been enabled to secure the labours of brethren suited to the work; and the character of all persons in our employ during the past year will appear from a letter written to us by Col. Saml. Thomas, who was the Provost Marshal General of Freedmen during the past year. He says, "Allow me to assure you that your superintendents and teachers have given me and my assistants cordial co-operation, and have always exhibited a willingness to comply with all military rules and regulations. No society in this district has accomplished more good, or has a more earnest and faithful corps of teachers." Again, he says, "They have worked faithfully at Davis' Bend and have accomplished all I could ask, and have continued their labours in the face of difficulties that seemed insurmountable. That field shall be secured to your society."

It is, however, our painful duty to report that Rev. S. F. Vanatta and Misses Lizzie Findley and Ella R. McCullough have died since the last meeting of the Assembly. Brother Vanatta was employed at Vicksburg and died of the injury of which mention was made in our last report. He was a brother beloved—an earnest, self-denying, talented, good man, whose death was a great loss to the whole church. The ladies named undertook to remain on the field at Davis' Bend during the hot season, with the view to the good of the needy freedmen. They were both earnest and efficient teachers, and to the friends of all these loved ones who have fallen in our service, we tender our hearty prayers and sympathies.

The following rates of salary, per annum, have been paid by the Board: To a superintendent, $700, to a male teacher, $500, and to a female teacher, $400. In addition, we have paid the transportation of each to his or her field of labour. At all our stations the Government has furnished the army ration for our teachers.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS AND STATISTICS.

Under the shade of a wide-spreading and beautiful water oak, which stands about fifty rods from the former mansion of Jefferson Davis, a large school-house has been erected by the Board, at a cost of about $800, which is now crowded with sable scholars.

In the city of Vicksburg another house, more comfortable and substantial, has been erected. The cost of this building will be about $1000, but about $400 of this amount was provided by the liberality of army officers and the colored people of that vicinity.

Also, it is expected that during the present summer a two-story building, suitable for both church and school purposes, will be erected at Knoxville, Tennessee. All that was asked of the Board for this enterprise, was that we should furnish the sash, glass, nails and locks. These materials have been shipped, and are now on the ground.

Owing to the increasing difficulty in obtaining the use of houses for our missionaries, and the probable demand that will be made upon us for more school buildings, we would respectfully ask the Assembly to allow us an appropriation of at least $3,500 for building purposes during the coming year.

In the Nashville schools there are 650 scholars enrolled. By the April reports received from Davis' Bend, Vicksburg, Memphis, President's Island and Knoxville, we have the following:—Enrolled, 2230, Average daily attendance, 1626, Writing, 341, Arithmetic, 331, Geography, 240, Grammar, 10. At all the stations on Sabbath, there is religious service, and large and prosperous Sabbath schools are conducted. Not less than 1500 children come under religious instructions every Sabbath day.

RESOLUTIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to send teachers into any of our fields for a less period than six months.

Resolved, In view of past experience, that all schools under our care be closed on the last day of June, and re-opened in September.

Resolved, That it is not for the best interests of our work among the freedmen, that we should undertake the cultivation of any more fields until the wants of those now occupied be met. But whenever the funds at our disposal warrant, and a promising field opens, we hold ourselves ready to go in and occupy.

We earnestly suggest that this Assembly adopt measures for the establishment of a Normal School at some Southern city, where coloured people may be speedily prepared to go forth as teachers and missionaries among their own race. We are persuaded that nothing can be done by the church which will more efficiently secure the elevation of this people than this. It is thought that many of this people would be able to pay some tuition for the support of such a school, and it is believed that there are wealthy men who would make large donations to such an object, so that perhaps but little expense would be incurred by the Board of the church in conducting this work.

Again it is suggested that each congregation in the church form itself into an auxiliary society for the more efficient aid of this great enterprise. If this should be done, we feel persuaded that far more would be done, not only for our Board, but for all the Boards of the Church, than under the present plans of working. The plan here suggested has worked well for the Christian and Sanitary Commissions, and we do not see why it should not be even better in this case.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Board feel under great obligation to the Western Freedmen's Aid Commission at Cincinnati for kind offices performed during the year, and to Rev. R. Gilmor for sundry favours conferred. Also we feel much indebted to individuals who so liberally responded to our special calls for aid, in the erection of buildings.

APPROPRIATION.

It is earnestly desired that this Assembly will devise liberal things in behalf of the work committed to our care. By the blessing of God in answer to the prayers of his Christian people, the Rebellion has been crushed, and the whole slave population, as well as the whole Southern country, will be opened to missionary effort. It is a great field, which promises well, and we ask that you make for us this year an appropriation of not less than $2.00.

RECAPITULATION.

Stations, 6; Superintendents and Teachers, 64; Scholars enrolled, 2880; Average daily attendance, 2100; Scholars in Sabbath school, about 1600; School buildings actually erected and in use, 3; in process of erection, 1.

The term of service of Revs. J. W. Baine, Wm. J. Reid and J. G. Barnes, expires at this meeting.

And now, dear brethren, feeling that more has been done this year than the previous one for this people, and hoping that no minister or member of the Church will relax his efforts for their elevation, we submit the whole matter to you. If any of our plans are defective, we shall be glad to have a more excellent way suggested. Whatever will most efficiently accomplish the enlightenment and elevation of four millions of people, we pray you to adopt. For the emancipation of these oppressed ones we have earnestly prayed for years, and now, when God, in a way which we looked not for, has broken the bands of their servitude, and placed them within the reach of missionary labour, let us go forth to educate and Christianize them, that their freedom may be made a positive blessing to them and to the nation where God has ordered their lot.

By order of the Board.

JOHN B. CLARK, Cor. Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Report of the Board of Publication to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church to meet in Washington, Iowa, Thursday, 25th day of May, 1865,

Respectfully Showeth—That the past year has been one of continued prosperity and encouragement. Our Financial condition can be seen by a reference to the balance sheet presented with this report. And we would here request the Assembly to order the publication of this sheet. This has not been done heretofore, and the consequence is that the Church knows very little of the state of our finances. Our Board differs from most other Boards of the Church in this particular. They are supposed to spend their income, but we spend nothing. We conduct our business so that all expenses are paid from our profits, and the contributions are retained as so much capital to carry on our business. We wish the Church to see from year to year whether we do so, and also the nature of our assets against the capital contributed.

From the Treasurer's report, and other data, it would appear that our sales for the year have been about $18,000; a considerable increase on former years, and an amount of business on our capital which we have no hesitation in saying will compare favourably with the doings of any other publishing society.

The amount paid into the publishing fund, although in excess of former years, is only about one-half of the sum recommended by last Assembly. This is easily accounted for. While a number of our congregations are punctual in contributing their proportion of the sum appropriated, others from year to year do nothing. Whether the fault is with the people or their pastors is not for us to say, though we have our own opinion upon the subject. The Bible fund, it will be seen, has been largely increased during the year, chiefly through the munificent donations of $1000 and $500 from two individuals: this last sum is secured to us by the same individual, annually, in perpetuity.

We need at least two more Bibles, and could at once furnish the means for electrotyping one, were it not that we are waiting in hopes of procuring such work on much lower terms than at present.

We have frequently brought to the notice of former Assemblies that such Bibles as we furnish—Bibles with the Psalms in metre—are much needed, particularly by our ministers and missionaries in the West. They represent their success as in a great measure depending on their having such books for distribution, and they are prepared to distribute them without expense. As yet, however, but a few of our congregations have given us any thing for Bible distribution and of course we have heretofore been unable to supply the demand. The last year, however, has been different; we have received a few more contributions than formerly, and especially one of a very liberal character from a Bible Society in the bounds of Hopewell congregation, 1st Presbytery of Ohio. By this we have been more than able to supply all demands, and do a large amount of good. May we not hold up the conduct of this Bible Society as an example which our people connected with other societies should at least ask them to follow. Its members resolved to divide their annual collections between us and the American Bible Society. Is not this the way that the funds contributed by our people for Bible purposes should be distributed? They contribute, we believe, as liberally to the Bible cause in proportion to their means as any others. But very few of them think of us, or seem to know that we need Bibles for distribution such as the American Bible Society cannot furnish. The result is that we get nothing;—all is given to the American Bible Society. Is this right? Is it good policy? We speak as to wise men; judge ye what we say.

The rule which we have heretofore followed in Bible distribution is this: we direct those to whom we make donations to sell at full, or part price, or donate as they may judge best: then any moneys they refund to us from sales are returned again in books with whatever addition may be needed in books. We find this plan works well.

Our Bible distribution report accompanies this, and we would ask the Assembly to direct its publication.

We have not published through the year to the extent of our ability, owing to the high price of all kinds of material, hence the large amount in the Treasury and invested at the end of the year. We have added to our electrotyped plates, one 18mo. and one 32mo. Psalm book: The Ordinance of Praise, by Dr. Claybaugh; The Pastoral Letter, by Dr. Clark; Wilson's Sacramental Meditations; The Blood of Jesus, by Rev. Wm. Reed; and Church Fellowship, by Dr. Pressly.

We have published during the same time, 6000 copies of the Blood of Jesus, 2000 Mr. Lansing's Missionary Sermons, 3,840 Ordinance of Praise, 2400 Dr. Clark's Pastoral Letter, 1,000 Explication of the Shorter Catechism, 10,000 Shorter Catechism, 15,000 Brown's Child's Catechism, 17,500 Selections of Psalms, and 6,000 Two Column Psalm Book.

We find no difficulty in circulating our publications to the full extent of our ability of supply. We depend on three modes for this purpose: 1st. The common avenues of trade; 2d. Colporteurs; and 3d. The agency of our ministers. In one or other of these ways any congregation or community can be supplied with our publications, if such be their wish.

We have had the Confession of Faith and Testimony electrotyped, and have been waiting year after year for the Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship. There is, we suppose, no likelihood that these books will be ready at this meeting of the Assembly, nor can any one now tell when this may be the case. We would therefore ask the Assembly to direct us to publish the parts that are perfected, viz., the Confession and Testimony; and we make this request, because we know there is a loud demand by our people for these standards, and we believe our interests as a church are much injured for the want of them.

It is the purpose of your Board to prepare a series of Psalm books of different sizes and bindings, and of superior style to those already in use. A sample of the first of these will be ready to lay before you at this meeting. Believing, from the action of former Assemblies, as well as what we know to be the general feeling of our people, that a few amendments to the received version were desirable, if such as would not affect its integrity or render a change of books necessary, we have made a few such amendments, the propriety of which we hope will be acknowledged by all, and we have little doubt that what we have done will meet the hearty approbation of the Assembly.

The time of service of Dr. Kerr, James McCandless and William Stevenson, members of this Board, will expire at the present meeting

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of N. A., to meet Washington, Iowa, May 25th, 1865, the Board of Education respectfully reports:

The number of beneficiaries has decreased. During the year aid has been given to 12 students—7 Literary and 5 Theological. These are from the following Presbyteries: Butler, 1, Delaware, 3, Le Claire, 1, Mansfield, 1, Michigan, 1, Monmouth, 3, Monongahela, 1, and Sidney, 1.

The receipts of the Board within the year are $2755. Expenditures, $1013,85. We have $1000 invested in a U. S. 5 20 Bond, and a balance in the treasury of $682,65. Compared with last year, our financial condition is prosperous. Then we were $12,80 in debt.

Now that the war raging for the last four years in our country is virtually closed, the Board looks hopefully for an increase of candidates for the ministry, and consequently expects increased applications for assistance, and asks an appropriation of $2000 for the coming year.

We have carefully examined the treasurer's report, (herewith transmitted,) and his vouchers are found all correct.

We recommend the re-election of John Scott, David Turnbull and Thos. Johnston, whose term expires with this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, the Board of Church Extension present their Annual Report.

Congregations like individuals have their state of infancy and of youth, as well as of maturity. And as the infant in its state of helplessness and dependence needs the sustaining and fostering care of parents and friends, so congregations in their infancy need the assistance of those which have attained to a state of comparative maturity. And to procure and distribute through a proper channel, the aid which the older and stronger congregations are able to afford for the benefit of the young and feeble, so that it shall with the least expense and most effectually subserve the end intended, is the particular purpose for which the Board of Church Extension has been established.

To enable the Board to accomplish its appropriate work, the Church must place at its disposal the necessary funds. And to secure the funds, the Assembly has made it the duty of every congregation, whether settled or vacant, to contribute annually to our treasury according as the Lord hath prospered them. It would appear, however, from past experience, that for some cause or other, this obligation is regarded by many of our congregations with utter indifference. And hence the Board in every Annual Report, has had to complain, that for the want of funds, we have been able to do but little in giving pecuniary aid to congregations which are in need of help. And on no former occasion has there been more cause for the utterance of such a complaint than at the present time. From the Treasurer's report it will appear that the whole amount paid into the Church Extension Fund during the present year is $820,63. The consequence is, that quite a number of congregations which are engaged in providing houses of worship, and which must receive assistance, to enable them to succeed, have obtained permission from the Board to employ an agent for the purpose of soliciting funds in different parts of the Church. And since the Board for the want of funds could give no direct assistance, we have reluctantly given this permission. And it is gratifying to learn that agents, in so far as they have reported, have been quite successful in making collections during the past year. The following reports have been received.

The Rev. James Sawhill collected for the congregation of Cascade, Iowa, in the Presbyteries of Sidney and Mercer, $606 25. The Rev. D. C. Wilson collected for the congregation of Amity in the Presbyteries of Westmoreland, Conemaugh and Chartiers $818 75. The Rev. James Price collected in various Presbyteries for the congregation of Frankford $4,145 69.

The Rev. William Bruce collected for the congregation in Baltimore $1,427 28. The Rev. James G. Freeborn collected for the Church in Boonsborough $688 40. The Rev. D. J. Patterson collected for the 2nd Church in Brooklyn $281 80. The Rev. James Crowe collected for the 9th Church Philadelphia $1,555. The Rev. D. W. Ralston collected for the Church of Scotch Grove, Iowa, $272 60. The Rev. J. S. McConnell collected for the Church in Cleveland $1,985 17. Some other agents have not yet reported.

It will thus appear, that the sum of $11,784 94 has been collected, making it evident that a commendable spirit of liberality has been manifested by the churches under the care of the Assembly. But in collecting these funds congregations have been for a long time deprived of the services of their pastors, and pastors have spent much precious time in attending to a business which is not only exceedingly unpleasant to a man of sensibility, but which ill becomes one who is clothed with the sacred office.

To prevent the necessity for employing agents for this purpose is one particular design for which the Board of Church Extension has been established. And yet after all that has been said on former occasions, with a view to call the attention of pastors particularly to this subject, the whole amount paid into our treasury during the year is only $820 63. And the question naturally arises, since the success of agents proves conclusively, that there is both the ability and a willingness on the part of the older congregations to assist their younger sisters, why cannot the funds be collected without imposing upon pastors the unpleasant and very unsuitable business of such agency? If every pastor would be careful to bring this subject before his congregation at the proper time, and if every Presbytery would see to it that every congregation under its care complies with the regulation of the Assembly, it is believed a sufficient amount of funds could easily be raised, which would enable the Board to accomplish the important object for which it was established. But if this be not done, it would appear to us, that it is useless to continue the existence of the Board of Church Extension.

In our Treasurer's report, it appears that there was on hand at the commencement of the year the sum of $518 84. This, added to the amount paid in during the year $820 63, will make the sum of $1,339 47.

The following congregations have been aided during the year. To the 5th Church, Philadelphia, according to an agreement entered into with that congregation some years since, $375. To the congregation in Providence $200. To the congregation in Detroit $200. To the congregation of Tippecanoe, in the Presbytery of Wheeling, $175. To the congregation of Knoxville, in the Presbytery of Des Moines, $200. Leaving a balance in the treasury of $189 47.

The term of service of Dr. Gracey and Messrs. George McCague and John Deau expires at this time. It is respectfully recommended that they be re-elected.

All which is respectfully submitted. JOHN T. PRESSLY, Chairman.

REPORTS OF PRESBYTERIES.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF ALBANY.

The Presbytery of Albany would respectfully report that on the 27th of September last Mr. James A. Williamson, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Boston, was ordained to the office of the gospel ministry, and installed pastor of the congregation of Johnstown. A call has lately been moderated in the congregation of Troy, for Mr. H. P. McAdam, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Wheeling.

On the state of religion, we have nothing of special interest to report. Peace and brotherly love continue. The public ordinances are regularly dispensed in all our congregations, and waited upon with commendable diligence; and while there have been some accessions in all our congregations, we have no remarkable evidence of the presence and power of the Spirit in our midst.

During the year four of our ministerial members and as many volunteer members from two of our congregations have been employed among our soldiers under the direction of the U. S. Christian Commission, labouring for a period of about six weeks each.

On the overtures transmitted by the last Assembly the vote of Presbytery stands as follows: Approving the Directory for Worship,—Ayes, 6; not voting, 3. Approving the Amendments to the present version of the Psalms,—Ayes, 0; nays, 10. Many of the changes proposed, are thought by us to be unnecessary, and others to be no improvement on the present version. The following resolution was adopted in connection with the above vote:

Resolved, That while we appreciate the labours of the committee that have had this matter in charge, and while we regard many of the proposed amendments as decided improvements on the present version of the Psalms, yet we are not prepared to adopt the amendments as a whole, but are in favour of recommending the proposed amendments with instructions to limit the changes in the present version to the removal of obsolete words and the correction of faulty measure.

Respectfully submitted.

WM. N. RANGLES, Moderator,
S. F. MORROW, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF ALLEGHENY.

We trust we have the evidence that we have enjoyed the favour and blessing of the Head of the Church during the past year. We have twenty-two congregations under our care: of this number only two are without the care of a regular pastor. One of these (Wertemburg) was reported vacant last year. Presbytery had hoped to be able to report this as a settled congregation at this meeting of the Assembly, but have been disappointed. The congregation addressed a call to Mr. S. B. Atkins, who had been labouring among them with considerable acceptance. Having held the matter under consideration for some time, he appeared before Presbytery at its Spring meeting, presented a regular certificate from the Presbytery of Indiana and signified a willingness to accept. Before doing so, however, he informed the Presbytery that he could not endorse, and was constrained to oppose some of the distinctive principles of our Church. In the light of this statement the Presbytery unanimously refused to receive Mr. Atkins, or to sustain the call. Notwithstanding this positive action of the Presbytery, Mr. Atkins, it is understood, has been preaching to this congregation, and has, by his conduct, to a degree complicated the matter. We hope soon to have the whole matter amicably and satisfactorily settled. Our other vacant congregation (Mt. Pleasant) has been made vacant during the year by the failing of the health of its venerable pastor, Thomas C. Guthrie, D. D. On the other hand, two of our congregations last year reported vacant, have, during the year, been happily and promisingly settled. The 5th Church of Allegheny has secured the pastoral services of Rev. D. M. B. McLean, who was installed at our last meeting. The Sewickleyville Congregation has secured the pastoral services of Rev. Wm. A. McKenzie, who was ordained and installed at the same meeting. As the statistical table will show, both of these congregations are in an exceedingly prosperous condition.

Serious complaints having been made against Mr. Byron Moore, a student under our care, his name was stricken from the roll.

At our last meeting, Messrs. Wm. Weir and Wm. A. Findley were licensed to preach the gospel.

No objections have been made to the Directory of Worship received in overture.

Messrs. Ross and Pringle have been granted certificates; and Messrs. Stewart, Weir and Findley are the licentiates still under our care.

We have two students,—Messrs. Evans and Doig.

As to the state of religion, while we have no remarkable revivals to report, yet the reports of congregations show a steady and gratifying growth.

The liberality of our people deserves commendation, and gives good evidence of living, working, godliness. An actual increase, by examination and profession of about two hundred and fifty gives good evidence that the Master is honouring and blessing the labours of his servants. By order of the Presbytery.

Allegheny City, May 12, 1865.

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF ARGYLE.

Since the last General Assembly, Rev. J. H. Andrew has been installed pastor of the congregation of South Argyle.

Mr. George Fisher has been licensed to preach the everlasting gospel.

Rev. Peter Gordon has been received from the Presbyterian Church, (N. S.) and at his own request has been dismissed to connect himself with the Presbytery of Boston.

During the year we have been called to mourn the death of two of our members,—Rev. William Howden, an aged father in the church,—and Rev. James M. Orr, a young brother who had been ordained and installed pastor of East Greenwich Congregation only about one year before his decease.

In reference to the overtures sent down by the last General Assembly, Presbytery would report as follows:—We would recommend the adoption of the Directory for Worship with the following amendments. The addition of a chapter on the solemnization of Marriage, and one on the Burial of the dead, and also the insertion of an amendment requiring a prayer before the distribution of the wine as well as before the other element in the Lord's Supper.

While we are in favour of verbal amendments to the present version of the Psalms, and also corrections of metres, yet, in the hope of obtaining a new version, we are not prepared to sanction the overture before us.

Respectfully submitted.

W. R. McKEE, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF BIG SPRING.

We would respectfully report that during the past year the Head of the Church has in mercy spared the lives of all our ministers, and granted them a degree of success in their labours.

Jan. 10-h Rev. J. A. McGill was received on certificate from the First Presbytery of New York, and on the 26th of April was installed pastor over the united charges of Tuscarora and Concord. March 7th, Rev. J. S. Woodburn was released from the pastoral charge of Gettysburg.

According to instructions of the last General Assembly, Presbytery reported on the overture of the amended Psalms, to the committee on amendmen's.

On the overture of a form of Directory for Worship, Presbytery voted unanimously in favour of its adoption, but would suggest the following amendments:

Chap. vii. Sec. 4. Substitute the phrase, within the covenant, for the phrase, "federally holy." Chap. v. Sec. 1. Substitute (minister officiating,) for "every minister." Chap. i. Sec. 6. Omit the phrase, "visiting the sick."

Reports on the state of religion and on Sabbath schools, and a statistical table accompany this report. By order of Presbytery. J. M. ADAIR, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF BLOOMINGTON.

Receptions.—Mr. George A. Hutchinson, Probationer, from the Presbytery of Xenia; Mr. Thomas Stephenson, from the Presbytery of Monmouth; Rev. J. P. Chambers, from the Presbytery of Keokuk; Rev. J. C. McKnight, from the Presbytery of Monmouth; Rev. N. H. Brown, from the Presbytery of Chicago. Released: Rev. John S. McCulloch, from the congregation of Peoria; Rev. G. D. Henderson, from the congregation of Granville; Rev. R. McCracken, from the congregation of Paxton. Rev. B. F. Pinkerton was released from the congregation of Berlin, and certified to the 2d Presbytery of New York.

Calls.—Competing calls from the congregations of Bloomington and Peoria were presented to Mr. Thomas Stephenson, and the latter accepted; and arrangements were made for his ordination and installation. A call from the congregation of Salem was made for Rev. Wm. Morrow, and forwarded to the Presbytery of Muskingum for presentation. A call was made for Rev. N. H. Brown by the congregation of Spring Creek, and forwarded to the Presbytery of Chicago for presentation.

State of Religion.—We have nothing special to report on the subject of religion in our bounds; but we trust, however, our Master has not left us without tokens of his presence and favour. Our congregations do not manifest as great an interest in the cause of Christ as we could desire. Peace and harmony prevail in our midst.

We have eleven Sabbath schools, 450 scholars, and 54 teachers. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at our annual meeting in April.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Presbytery the present practice of the Board of Church Extension in authorizing agents to solicit funds for building churches, is injurious, and should be discontinued.

Resolved, That in the establishment of missions, especially in large cities, the Assembly should assume the responsibility of buying the ground and building the house of worship.

Resolved, That we re-affirm the action of the 2d Presbytery of New York in reference to the amended version of the Psalms; namely, while Presbytery is not disposed to deny that many, if not all of the proposed amendments are in themselves proper; yet it appears to us that the introduction of so many alterations would be offensive to many in our church, and would tend to separate between us and other churches using the version in its present form; while all the proposed changes, if adopted, would not be likely to satisfy those who are desirous of obtaining a thoroughly modern version. We would therefore recommend that the present version be left unchanged, save in a few places where verbal amendments are obviously desirable and can easily be made; while to meet the demand which is said to exist for an improved version, we would recommend what has been for some time in contemplation by the General Assembly;—the preparation of an entirely new version, embracing a greater variety of metres than exists in the old; the two versions to be bound together, and the right to use either in worship being granted to the Church.

On the Directory of Worship the vote was as follows:—Yeas, 0; Nays, 10.

The following amendments are recommended: Chap. 5, add a new section as follows; in at least one of the public services there should be special prayer for the President of the United States and all in authority.

Chap. 7, insert a new section before section 1, as follows: Adults are to be baptized on the public profession of their faith in Christ and obedience to him.

Insert before sec. 1, of draft, the words "The baptism of Children;" Chap. 10, sec. 1, after "minister," insert Elders, and let the whole chapter conform thereto.

Add a chapter on Beneficence. Add a chapter on Public Social covenanteeing. Add a chapter entitled "Of Baptized Youth." G. D. HENDERSON, Moderator.

REPORT OF THE PRESEYTERY OF BOSTON.

On the state of religion, we would report that while we have to deplore the desolating effects of the war, the low state of genuine piety, and the withholding of the influences of the Holy Spirit, yet we have some things cheering and encouraging in their character.

Public ordinances and meetings for social prayer are pretty well attended. Our Sabbath schools are mostly in a flourishing condition. Family worship is more generally attended to than in times past. Very respectable accessions have been made to some of our congregations, and although our contributions to the different funds of the Church are not large, yet they are on the increase. We have cause to "thank God and take courage;" and we are firmly persuaded that with the fostering care and aid of the Assembly, and the blessing of God, the cause of truth as maintained by the U. Presb. Church, may yet prosper in New England.

The following items of business have been transacted during the last year.

Organizations.—The Second Church, Boston, on May 8th, 1864, and the Third Church, Boston, on January 8th, 1865. The Rev. George M. Hall, was on February 15th received from the Presbytery of Argyle.

Translation.—The Rev. Wm. M. Claybaugh, from Hartford to South Boston, on March 1st.

Installations.—The Rev. George M. Hall, in the Second Church, on April 17th, and the Rev. Wm. M. Claybaugh, in the Third Church, on April 18th, 1865.

Financial Agent.—The Rev. George M. Hall was nominated for next year.

Presbytery have considered the overture on the Amended Version of the Psalms, and recommend the amendments as a whole, for the adoption of the Assembly, and also the overture on the Directory for Worship, and recommend its adoption with the following amendments and additions:

Chap. 4th. We would amend by a more thorough knowledge, and "that our churches be strongly urged to employ competent teachers of music for our youth."

Chap. 6th. Suggested, "That the practice of reading sermons be discountenanced," and that this be added as a 6th section to said chapter.

Chap. 7th. Approved to Sec. 5th, where insert, "I baptize this child in the name," &c., &c. "The child's name is," &c., &c.

Chap. 10th. Expunge "own" in Sec. 6th.

Chap. 11th. Insert "commonly" for "vulgarly."

Chap. 12th. Erase first half of Sec. 2d, and insert, "In fasting, fool," &c , &c.

We would recommend that the Assembly add a chapter on the Burial of the Dead.

In view of the peculiar field which we have to occupy, overrun as it is with "diverse and strange doctrines," and in view of the hindrances to our work, by the poverty and transient character of many of our people, by the fearful influences of our atrocious war, and the exorbitant state of our markets,—we hope and trust that the supplementary aid asked this year may be granted, for it is imperatively needed.

We respectfully renew our suggestion and entreaty that a faithful and qualified missionary be placed in San Francisco. By order of the Presbytery.

South Boston, April 19, A. D. 1865.

ALEX. BLAIKIE, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF BUTLER.

During the past year there have been some marked changes, which denote, according to their nature, an increase or decrease, in vital godliness. The political issues, and the struggle in support of our government, have been the cause, in some of our congregations, of alienation of feeling, absence from the house of God, and seemingly a total indifference to the cause of Christ; but while such is the fact with some, we have on the other hand a manifestation of renewed zeal in the service of God, and devotedness to the principles of the United Presbyterian Church. Perhaps in all our congregations pure and undefiled religion has been on the increase. God has not left us without evidences of his gracious presence in our midst. That the King and Head of the Church may guide the Assembly in all its deliberations, is the prayer of your brethren in Christ,

R. M. PATTERSON, }
E. M. McELREE, } Committee.

P. S.—Items of business transacted.—Perry Lee was stricken from the roll of our Theological students. The pastoral relation between Rev. R. M. Patterson and Brownsdale congregation was dissolved on the 29th of November, 1864, and his whole time was given to Union.

A call was made out by Centreville Congregation for Rev. S. C. Reid for half time, and by him accepted; and having presented satisfactory credentials from the Presbytery of Conemaugh, his name was added to our roll, and he was installed pastor of said congregation on the second Tuesday of last April. He is about to be settled the other half of his time within our bounds.

A call for Mr. I. M. Donaldson has been made out by the United Congregations of Portersville and Mountville, and by him accepted. The pastoral relation between Rev. W. A. Black and West Unity Congregation has been dissolved.

Mr. James W. Buchanan, a licentiate of Presbytery, has been dismissed to connect with the Presbytery of Michigan.

Respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL KERR, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CALEDONIA.

On the 30th of Jun, 1864, Mr. J. P. Sankey, from the Presbytery of Muskingum, was ordained and installed pastor of the U. P. Church in Rochester. That congregation has since sold their House of Worship, and bought a much more central and commodious one; and it seems to be enjoying a very great degree of prosperity.

On the 15th of last November, at his own request, Rev. D. S. McHenry was released from the charge of the congregation of Covington, which congregation is still vacant.

On the third of May, 1865, Mr. Joseph McNab was licensed to preach the everlasting gospel as a probationer.

Five of our ministers were appointed to labour in the service of the Christian Commission during the summer and autumn:—D. S. McHenry, W. J. Robinson, W. S. McLaren, D. C. McVean, and J. L. Robertson. The first three of these were compelled by disease to return before the usual term of service had expired, the fourth fulfilled his appointment, the last mentioned was unable to enter the service.

With regard to the state of religion we cannot report much that is favourable. Our churches enjoy peace and unity, but we cannot discern special indications of the presence of the Holy Spirit.

By order of Presbytery.

W. S. McLAREN, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CHARTIERS.

Ordinations and Installations.—Rev. Thomas Balph as pastor of the congregation of Mt. Prospect, Sept. 29th, 1864.

Calls.—The congregations of North Buffalo and Mt. Pleasant have each addressed a call to Mr. A. M. White, licentiate of the Presbytery of Monongahela. Both these calls have been declined.

Students of Theology.—Messrs. S. J. McKee, Geo. Paxton and Hugh W. Boyd, have been received as students of Theology of the second year.

By order of Presbytery.

JOHN T. BROWNLEE, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CHICAGO.

Since our last report, the Presbytery of Chicago has been divided by the action of the Synod of Illinois;—the brethren in the state of Wisconsin being formed into a new Presbytery, known as the Presbytery of Wisconsin.

Prior to this division, Rev. Wm. Smith having received a call from the congregation of Buffalo, in the state of Wisconsin, was received on certificate as a member of Presbytery; the call was presented and accepted, and arrangements were made for his installation.

At our meeting in April, Rev. N. H. Brown received a call from the congregation of Spring Creek, in the Presbytery of Bloomington. In order to its acceptance, he asked that his relation to the congregation of Shannon be dissolved. This request was granted, the call from Spring Creek accepted, and Mr. Brown dismissed by certificate, with a view to his connection with the Presbytery of Bloomington.

At the same meeting, Rev. S. F. Clark, who has been labouring as Stated Supply in the congregation of Ross Grove, was ordained to the office of the holy ministry.

Rev. Thomas Dickson was at his own request released from his charge of the congregation of Wheatland.

Rev. J. H. Walker, Stated Supply in the Second U. P. Church of Chicago, asked a certificate of ministerial standing, with a view, it was understood, to his connexion with the New School Presbyterian Church. His request was granted.

These comprise the most important changes that have transpired in our bounds during the past year.

Through oversight, the matters overtured by the last Assembly were not referred to sessions, and as a consequence, Presbytery is unprepared to report any vote on these overtures.

In regard to the state of religion, we are not prepared to say much. In some of our congregations the prospects are more hopeful and encouraging than formerly. The ordinances are generally well attended. Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings are pretty generally maintained. The worship of God in the family, and the religious instruction of children by their parents are also duties which are very generally observed. A good degree of liberality in sustaining the funds of the Church has been attained, and in some of our congregations, such liberality as will compare favourably with that found in any other part of the Church.

Respectfully submitted. By order of the Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CHILLICOTHE.

At a called meeting in the month of March, the pastoral relation between Rev. A. Ritchie and the congregation of Greenfield, was with mutual consent dissolved. Mr. Ritchie was led to ask to be released from his pastoral charge in consequence of his acceptance of the Corresponding Secretaryship of the Reform Tract and Book Society.

Rev. J. T. Buchanan obtained a certificate of ministerial standing, in April, 1865, to connect with the Presbytery of Le Clair.

At a meeting in April, 1865, a vote was taken on the overtured Directory for Worship, with the following result: Yeas, one; Nays, three; Not voting, two. Owing to a combination of causes, several members were absent, and hence the smallness of the vote.

The following resolutions were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That we suggest to the General Assembly that that part of chap. 7th, Sec. 4th, which refers to requiring of parents "to renew their profession of their faith and practice, and to express their approbation of the Confession and Testimony," &c., be omitted, as being, in our judgment, unauthorized by the word of God.

Resolved, That we suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of altering chap. 6th, Sec. 1st, so as to read as follows: "The preaching of the Word being of chief importance as an appointed means of salvation," &c.; and the 4th section of the same chapter to read as follows: "Every minister should prepare for his work with much diligent study, meditation and prayer; and in preaching the Word, he should present the truth,—not in the enticing words of man's wisdom, but in the simplicity of the Gospel; using plain, intelligible language, and avoiding every thing that savours of ostentation, in matter or in manner, or of a display of parts or learning.

In regard to the state of religion, we have nothing of interest to report.

By order of Presbytery.

D. MACDILL, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CLEVELAND.

Since your last meeting, Monroe Congregation, formerly a part of Rev. R. Gailey's charge, has been transferred, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly, to the Presbytery of Mansfield. The pastoral relation between the Rev. J. M. Henderson and Poland Congregation, has been dissolved, and this brother has been granted a certificate of dismissal.

The amendments to the present version of the Psalms, and the Directory for Worship in overture from the last Assembly, have been severally considered and approved by Presbytery.

We have four vacant congregations, and two unsettled ministers.

By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF CONEMAUGH.

Several changes have taken place in the Presbytery during the past year. One settlement has been effected: that of Mr. Fulton, in Indiana. Several dismissals have taken place, and all because of incompetent support. Brothers Reid, Brown, Todd and Greer have been released from their respective charges. By these things we have been much weakened and discouraged.

Revs. Truesdale, Reid and Todd have received certificates of dismissal from the Presbytery. Brother Duff has been absent from his charge for some time, as captain in the service of his country, and is at present laid aside from duty by a severe wound received in a fight with the enemy.

Calls were made out in Blairsville and Conemaugh congregations, first for Rev. J. C. Truesdale, and then for Rev. J. M. Hutchinson; but in both cases the congregations were disappointed, and they are still vacant.

Much of the supply expected during the year, according to the appointment of the Board of Home Missions, did not come. Messrs. Ross, Coon, Bull, and I. N. White, neither came nor gave any reasons for not coming. They did not even give notice that they would not come. In consequence of this, many of our vacancies have suffered greatly, being deprived of the dispensation of the word and ordinances the greater part of the year. Presbytery complain of such treatment, and desire the Assembly to adopt such measures as will be likely to prevent such occurrences hereafter. As to the spiritual condition of the Presbytery, there is no marked change since the last report. The principles of the church have still been maintained, though at some sacrifice of numbers,—not of life or actual strength, and we believe there has been a slow and gradual progress. There has been an advancement the same as there has been in the nation, during the last four years. We trust God has a greater work still to do for the church and the nation, and we hope to share in the blessing.

As to the Directory for Worship handed down to us for overtore, the Presbytery approves of it, at the same time desiring the following amendments; namely, Chap. 4th, Sec. 4th, be amended by inserting after Lord, "And to this end it is proper that the minister give a brief explanation of the Psalm, as occasion may call for it."

Chap. 7th, Sec. 2d, be changed so as to read, "Baptism shall not be administered privately, but in a worshipping assembly."

Chap. 12th, Sec. 5th, after line 7, insert, "And should not ordinarily be neglected."

Chap. 16th, Sec. 6th, last line, strike out the word "merely."

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF DELAWARE.

Changes.—Rev. James Bruce was installed pastor of the congregation of Andes, on the 10th of May. Rev. Joseph Thyne tendered to Presbytery the pastoral charge of East Springfield congregation at our meeting on April 25th. The congregation acquiescing, it was at the same meeting accepted. During the past year A. G. King and W. R. Gladston were received as students of theology.

State of Religion.—Some of our congregations have increased in their membership, while others have decreased. In none is there any marked evidence of an unusual work of grace. Our contributions, compared with last year, are somewhat increased. We enjoy peace in all our borders. While one or more prayer-meetings are established in each pastoral charge, the complaint comes to us that some of them languish, and are ready to expire. Sabbath schools and Bible classes are employed in all our churches as a means of training our youth in the doctrines of our holy religion.

Wants.—Presbytery recommend the congregation of Hobart to the Board of Church Extension, for aid to pay their church debt to the amount of fifty dollars, on condition that they raise the [same] amount themselves. The congregation of Lansingville ask for nine months' supply, and $150 on condition of settlement, or $125, if not settled. Presbytery ask for the congregation of East Springfield, supply for one year. Certain persons in Walton having petitioned Presbytery to organize them into a congregation, we ask for them $100, on condition that the organization be effected.

Overtures.—Presbytery, by a vote of seven to three, decided against the proposed amendment of the Psalms. The Directory was adopted as a whole, with the following amendments:

Chap. 8th, Sec. 3d, strike out "Sabbath," and insert "two Sabbaths."

Chap. 10th, Sec. 1st, after "minister," read "or elders," and conform the chapter to this reading.

Chap. 10 h, Sec. 3d, strike out "essential Christian doctrines," and read "The doctrines of our holy religion."

Chap. 14h, Sec. 2l. Strike out "ordinarily."

Chap. 15h, Sec. 3d, strike out the first sentence, and insert "meetings for prayer should be held in each congregation, at least once during the week."

All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF DETROIT.

Presbytery held two meetings during the year, at which the usual Presbyterial business was transacted. At the meeting held in Detroit, April 18th, Rev. W. T. Rawson was received on certificate from the Presbytery of St. Louis. He is expected to labour at Marlott and Allison during the next year.

The congregation of Emmett, St. Clair county, was organized in September last, with encouraging prospects.

During the early part of the year we deemed it advisable to abandon, for the present, our missionary labours at the mission stations of Paris and connexions, owing to causes incidental to the war.

Four of our congregations, namely, Detroit, Commerce, Troy and Southfield, which have heretofore been receiving aid from the Home Mission Board, are now self-sustaining.

In regard to the state of religion, we have nothing very special to report. In some of our congregations there is evidently an improved and very encouraging state of religious feeling. Others give no special manifestations of change. While some, from apparent worldliness and manifest indifference as to religious ordinances and services, give strong reason to believe that they are becoming more and more conformed to the world.

J. P. SCOTT, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF DES MOINES.

During the year we have received from the Presbytery of Monongahela, Rev. T. C. McCaughan, and from the Presbytery of Muskingum, Mr. D. F. Bonner. We have dismissed Revs. A. Pattison and A. C. Tris, and also John M. Baugh, student of theology: all to connect with other Presbyteries in the U. P. Church. A call was sustained from Winterset congregation, addressed to Rev. James Duncan, of Muskingum Presbytery, and forwarded accordingly. It was rejected. Calls have also been presented from Winterset, addressed to Rev. T. McCaughan, and also from Knoxville and Monroe, addressed to Mr. D. F. Bonner. Both these brethren have accepted, and arrangements are made for their ordination and installation.

Rev. J. P. Black was ordained and installed pastor of the congregations of Alba and Service. Presbytery at its last meeting framed a resolution to memorialize the General Assembly on the subject of the evangelization of the Jews in the United States. Though called to contend with many embarrassments incident to a new country, yet God in his providence is opening up the way to enlargement and success. By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF EGYPT.

The Presbytery of Egypt respectfully reports, that during the year two meetings of Presbytery have been held,—the first on the 6th, and the second on the 31st of Jan. At the first meeting it was determined to send the Rev. J. Hogg, and family and Miss M'Kown, together with the necessary native agents to labour in Osiouf. And Miss Dales was recommended to seek a temporary respite from her labours in a visit to her native land.

Annual Report of the Egyptian Mission.

At the second meeting the annual report was prepared and adopted, which, with the statistical tables, is as follows:

The Egyptian Mission of the United Presbyterian Church reports,—

That during the past year the members of the mission and their families have been preserved in unwonted health. Brother Watson, who suffered so severely from ophthalmia for seven months last year, that it was feared he would be entirely laid aside from the work, has been wholly free from this distressing disease during the past year, and Brother Lansing, who was forced last year to seek a temporary change of climate, in a visit to America, was brought back again with his family on the 19th of March last. For these blessings of Providence we desire to record our heartfelt thanks; while regretting the prolonged absence of brothers Barnett and M'Cague in their native land—the more so, as the field of labour which we are called upon to occupy, is still constantly enlarging. We have the stronger reason to record our gratitude to God for preserved health, as the past year has been an unusually unhealthy one in Egypt. Thousands have fallen on our right hand, and on our left; but the protecting shield of our God has been over us, and it has not come near us.

Alexandria Mission.

Missionaries.—Rev. Andrew Watson and wife, Miss Martha J. McKown.

The Arabic services have been sustained in this place, as usual. Brother Watson having advanced in the knowledge of Arabic sufficiently to be able to undertake them, priest Makhiel was early in the year removed to Cairo, where he has since been engaged in general mission work, in occasionally supplying the pulpit, and latterly in pursuing his studies in the Theological class. The numbers attending the Arabic services have considerably increased during the last four months, and two new members have been received on profession of their faith, and one on certificate from the church at Smyrna.

The schools remain much as they were at the date of the last report. The first half of the year the numbers attending both schools were larger than usual; but latterly, on account of the general unhealthiness of the town, the illness of the teachers of the boys' school, and the repeated removals of the girls' school, the numbers have somewhat decreased. The roll of the boys' school shows that there have been in attendance, during the year, seventy-eight pupils; of whom twenty-seven were Muslims, twenty Copts, eighteen Syrians, eleven Maltese and Italians, and two Jews. The present average attendance at the boys' school, is thirty; and at the girls' school, twenty.

At the Book Depot, the sales have been much larger than during the previous year. The statistics will be embodied in the general statement of the book department, to be hereafter given.

Mission Premises.—The great want of this station has hitherto been suitable and sufficient house accommodations. This desideratum has at length been supplied, in the purchase, on September 26th, of a house, suitable, and in an eligible position for mission premises. The price to be paid for the house is sixteen thousand five hundred dollars, of which eight thousand dollars have already been paid, chiefly with money borrowed from the other funds of the mission, and eight thousand five hundred dollars remain to be paid on the delivery of the keys of the upper story of the house by its present tenant. The house has a large room, which, for the present, will answer for a chapel, and is amply large for the accommodation of one family, and of the two schools, until they shall largely increase in size.

Wants—1st. This station greatly needs an additional missionary. Our Saviour sent forth his preachers, two and two. Several departments of the work have suffered from the want of sufficient force fully to occupy the city, and we believe that the work will greatly expand after the occupation of the new premises.

2d. The thirty thousand dollars, which were pledged by the last Assembly, are urgently and speedily needed, in order to repay what has been temporarily borrowed from the other funds of the mission, to enlarge the mission premises so that they may receive another mission family, and the natural growth of the schools, to build in time a more capacious chapel, and to secure a summer house in Ramleh.

Cairo Mission.

Missionaries.—Revs. J. Barnett, D.D., G. Lansing and wife, John Hogg and wife, S. C. Ewing and wife, Misses S. B. Dales and S. Hart.

The public services of the sanctuary in this city have been well attended; and, as at Alexandria, there has been a marked increase during the latter months of the year, especially in the female department. This seems to be owing to the fact that the special interest in the girls' school, which was reported last year, has in a great measure continued, and to the fact that the ladies of the mission have been enabled more extensively than heretofore, to visit from house to house, reading the Scriptures, and conversing with the females. They have generally been welcomed to the houses to which they have gone, and this promises hereafter to be a very important department of the work.

Fourteen persons have been received to church membership during the year, on profession of their faith, of whom five are males, and nine females; and two on certificate from the mission church at Abiyeh, Syria. One person, on account of unchristian demeanour towards his family, and refusal of obedience to the church session, has been excommunicated. One of our members has also been removed by death.

Schools.—The persecution instigated by the Coptic hierarchy, mentioned in our last report, had its effect chiefly in thinning the numbers of pupils in attendance at the schools, and especially the girls' school. This persecution seems now, for the most part, to have spent itself, and for several months the numbers have been gradually improving. The average attendance, at present, is about seventy-five in the boys' school; thirty-five in the girls' school in the mission house, and forty in the girls' school in Haret Es Lakeen. The latter was not subjected to the persecution of the Patriarch, and during Miss Hart's absence in England has been efficiently carried on by one of the native teachers. Miss Hart left for England the 1st of April, and returned January 12th, in reinvigorated health.

A Theological class was formally organized on September 26th, though lessons had been given to part of the class some time previously. The class consists of eleven persons, of whom four are ex-Coptic priests. Lessons have been given to the class four hours a day, in Arabic grammar and arithmetic, and dogmatic and practical theology; and the members of the class have shown great diligence, and made good progress in their studies.

Book Department.—The sale of books, during the past year, has been nearly double that of any previous year. The following are the statistics,—including, however, the total sales in the "Morning Star," from August, 1863, to February, 1864:—

From which it appears that all the books distributed have been sold at an average of twenty-six and two-third cents per volume.

This large and constantly increasing sale of books has impressed, more strongly than heretofore, upon our minds, the sense of a great want, to which reference has been made in former reports; namely, a more extensive evangelical literature, especially adapted to the present crisis and wants of the Coptic Church. Our supply of books has hitherto been mostly received from Beirut; but the mission press at Beirut has for several years past been so almost exclusively occupied with printing editions of the Scriptures, and the other books which have been published being more of a literary than a religious character, and better adapted to the state of the public mind in Syria than Egypt, this want has now come to be very sorely felt. In accordance with the previous action of the Presbytery, a commencement has been made in the work of publishing. Three numbers of a monthly magazine have been published—the one containing twenty-four pages, and the other two sixteen each—and a fourth number is in the press, and the reception which those already published has met with encourages us to proceed in the work; but the experiment, so far as tried, has convinced us that if we would have our printing done economically, and as punctually as is requisite in a publication of this nature, we must have a printing establishment of our own. This want is likely soon to be met, as His Highness, Dhuleep Singh, has promised to have sent out to us a printing press, with all the necessary furniture, from England; and with part of the donation of one thousand pounds sterling, which we received from him on his wedding-day, we have already fitted up rooms for its reception in the mission house.

Nile Work.—Five missionary trips have been made during the past year in the Ibis and Morning Star—three in the Delta, and two in the upper country as far as Assouan. These visits have abundantly shown that in many places the seed sown in former years is taking root, and bearing fruit, and much has been accomplished in watering what has been sown, and in casting in new seed for future harvests.

In the present embarrassment of our churches at home, and of the Board of Missions, arising from the civil war, and the consequent high rates of foreign exchange, we cannot omit mentioning with gratitude to God the large amount of extraneous aid, which, in his providence, he has furnished for us during the past year. Besides the regular remittances from the Paisley ladies for the girls' school at Alexandria, and the British and American Bible Societies, we have already informed the Board and the churches of the wonderful providence by which His Highness, the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, was led to choose as his partner in life, one of the daughters of our mission, and of his princely donation, at the time of his marriage in June last, to our mission, and of his continued interest in the work. "This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes." He maketh kings nursing fathers, and queens nursing mothers to his church. We have also to mention that the Sultan, on occasion of his visit to Egypt about two years ago, made donations to various benevolent and charitable purposes, which was augmented by a grant from His Highness, the Viceroy, from his own purse. The donation for the protestant community was equally divided between the English, Prussian, and American branches of the community. The portion which fell to our share according to this partition, was about $615, in American gold; and this amount we have lately received. We have also to acknowledge the receipt from the Viceroy, of $900, in refunding to the mission the amount expended in taking out the legal title deeds of our new mission premises in Alexandria. For securing for us this sum, we have to acknowledge our obligation to the Hon. Charles Hale, United States Consul General in Egypt.

We must also mention the liberality of the native members of our Church, and friends of our mission, and our English friends in Alexandria, in starting a subscription to assist in paying for the new premises in Alexandria. The amount to which this subscription has now reached, is 490 pounds, say $2450 in American gold. The liberality of the members of the native Church in this matter is worthy of special mention. It shows that as they have freely received, they are ready freely to give for the support and spread of the gospel.

In conclusion, we would say that these tokens for good, as well as the many proofs we have had of the divine presence and blessing, even in the midst of strong opposition and persecution from our enemies, bid us thank God and take courage. It is also a matter of gratitude to God, that our churches at home have been led, even in the midst of domestic war and trouble, to devise so liberal things for the furtherance of the Gospel in Egypt, and that the contributions have been so much in advance of those of any former year.

Trusting in God, and in the prayers and efficient support of his Church, we will still go on, in the hope that the blessing of many, ready to perish in Egypt, may yet rest upon our united efforts. Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF FRANKFORT.

On the 4th of April, David Walker Scott, a student of the second year, and a young man of much promise, was called home to rest. On the 3d of January, Messrs. James M. Wallace, Samuel Bigger and Hugh Leiper were received as students of theology. April 26th, a call from Portersville and Mountville, in Butler Presbytery, for Mr. J. M. Donaldson was presented and by him accepted.

April 26th, the organization of a congregation was granted at a place called Rariden, which gives promise of usefulness.

On the overture of the Directory for Worship, the vote of the Presbytery was, Ayes, 14; not voting, 6. Presbytery recommended the addition of a chapter on Covenanting.

On the overture of the Amended Version of the Psalms, the vote was, Ayes, 15; not voting 5. Recommended that the number of amendments be reduced.

During the past year, we have, as a Presbytery, enjoyed peace and prosperity. Whilst there has been no special outpouring of the Spirit, we trust vital religion has not declined, but rather advanced. The public ordinances are regularly and faithfully dispensed, and by the greater part of our people faithfully and cheerfully attended. A few in all our congregations became offended at the plain preaching of the gospel, and some have forsaken the ways of Zion altogether. The church is thus being purged of many who were unworthy of her fellowship. But we are rejoicing in the hope that our church, like our beloved country, has suffered the worst, and that brighter days are beginning to dawn upon her. Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings are sustained as usual. Our contributions for benevolent objects show an increase of the spirit of liberality.

The usual statistical table, and a report on Sabbath schools, accompany this report. All which is respectfully submitted.

By order of Presbytery.

WM. M. RICHIE, S. C.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF INDIANA.

At our late Spring meeting the pastoral relation between our esteemed brother—Rev. J. I. Frazier and the united charge of Milroy and Vienna, was dissolved.

The following is our action on the various subjects in overture:

It was resolved that as the amended version was not published in time for our deliberate consideration, we take no action upon it at present.

The result of our vote on the Directory for Public Worship, is as follows: Yeas, 7; Nays, 0.

We are not prepared to furnish your body with Sabbath school statistics, but few of the congregations having reported. However, we have a Sabbath school in every congregation of our Presbytery, in a comparatively flourishing condition.

The state of religion is not as encouraging as we would desire. True, in attendance upon public ordinances and benevolent operations we have not fallen below former years, but we have in the numerical increase of our churches. We can report peace and harmony in all our churches, but no special manifestations of the Holy Spirit, as in years past. Let our prayer be, "Wilt thou not revive us, O Lord?" &c. All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of Presbytery.

April 5th. 1865.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF KANSAS.

During the past year the following are all the changes we have to report:

Rev. E. A. Brownlee has been certified to the Presbytery of Chartiers. Rev. R. Burgess has been received on testimonials from the Presbytery of Mercer. A call from the church at Garnett, made out for Rev. J. N. Smith, for one-half time, lies on our table for presentation at our next meeting.

Presbytery is sorry to report the failure of Mr. Caldwell to fulfil his appointment to our Presbytery;—and that without giving us any excuse or intimation of his not coming.

All the brethren of the Presbytery have been engaged in their respective fields of labour during the year, as health and circumstances have permitted. The results of our labours have not been to us very satisfactory; no special spiritual interest has any where been manifested in any of our congregations or vacancies, but few have been added to the church, and we have in some instances been weakened by removals and by deaths. Of our prayer-meetings and Sabbath schools we have only to report that they have been generally maintained, and we think not without some good results. Family religion, with some, is faithfully maintained, while others, we fear, are negligent of this duty.

There is, we think, a growing disposition, on the part of our people, to give liberally of their means for the support of the word and ordinances. This, we think, a favourable omen; and though the past has not been abundant in fruits, and though the present is not full of promise, still, we will labour, and pray, and wait; "For it is God that giveth the increase."

J. D. STEELE, Moderator.

B. L. BALDRIDGE, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF KEOKUK.

Since our last report we have been called, in the providence of God, to mourn the loss, by death, of our beloved brother, Rev. S. F. Vanatta, who fell in the service of his Master, whilst engaged in behalf of the poor and down-trodden.

With this exception, the lives and health of the ministerial members have been mercifully preserved.

We cannot record any material change in the state of religion, since our last report. The ordinances have been regularly dispensed in our congregations with some tokens of the Divine blessing. Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings are pretty generally attended to. There is not that attention to prayer-meetings that should be. Family religion is very generally observed, yet we must confess that worldly-mindedness greatly prevails.

The following changes have taken place:

The pastoral relation between Rev. T. A. Sanson, and Morning Sun congregation, was, at a called meeting of Presbytery, dissolved. At our meeting in Nov., the pastoral relation between Rev. N. McDowell, and the congregation of Crawfordsville was also dissolved. Rev. S. McArthur having tendered the resignation of the charge of Birmingham congregation, it was, at our meeting in April, accepted. Certificates of standing have been granted to Rev. T. A. Sanson and Mr. G. G. Mitchell, to connect with sister Presbyteries.

Received on Certificate.—Rev. A. Pattison has been received on certificate from the Presbytery of Des Moines; Rev. A. Conner from the Presbytery of Wheeling; Mr. J. O. Ross from the Presbytery of ———, and Rev. Isaac N. Laughhead from the Presbytery of Sidney. Mr. Ross having been taken on trial, was at our meeting in April, after due examination, ordained to the office of the holy ministry.

A call from the united congregations of Ainsworth and Grand Prairie, for the ministerial labours of Rev. Dr. Doig, has been sustained and presented to the candidate, and by him accepted. A call from the Second Congregation of Washington to the Rev. A. Conner, having been accepted by him, he was installed by Presbytery in said congregation, on the first Thursday of March.

Respecting the amended version of the Psalms, Presbytery recommend that no change of the present version be made which would tend to distract or divide Psalm-singing churches. On the question of accepting the amendments proposed, there were nine yeas, six nays and four excused from voting. Respecting the Directory for Worship, Presbytery are in favour of its adoption, but recommend that certain amendments be made; namely, that a section be added on Covenants, on Systematic Benevolence, and on the duty of Elders to visit the sick.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE LAKE PRESBYTERY.

Rev. John Jamieson was installed pastor of Kerr Ridge Congregation, August 26th, 1864.

Mr. A. H. Caldwell was ordained to the office of the ministry, and installed pastor of Franklin and Utica Congregations, Feb. 8th, 1865.

Rev. H. H. Thompson was released from the pastoral care of Cochranton congregation, and furnished with a certificate of dismissal, Feb. 7th, 1865.

Rev. J. R. Slentz was released from the pastoral care of Cherry Run Congregation, Feb. 8th, 1865.

Rev. J. H. Tedford was released from the pastoral care of West Greenville Congregation, May 2d, 1865.

Mr. S. C. Hubbel was licensed to preach the gospel as a probationer for the ministry, May 3d, 1865.

Fairfield Congregation, one of the oldest organizations in our bounds, has been dissolved; the members of it, in connection with some members of Cochranton congregation, were organized into a congregation to be known as Powers, April 17th, 1865.

Presbytery resolved to advise the General Assembly to abandon the effort to provide an amended version of the Psalms, on the plan heretofore observed by the committees appointed for that purpose.

On the state of religion, Presbytery is unable to report any thing very specific. This is owing to the fact that congregations have not been prompt in sending up reports. It is known, however, that accessions to our communion have been as encouraging as in former years. Sabbath schools are sustained in all our established congregations; these generally enjoy a measure of prosperity, and, it is believed, are exerting a good influence. At this time four of our largest pastoral charges are vacant. For a few years past a large part of our territory has been in an unsettled condition. Some of our congregations are threatened with extinction. A majority of the members have sold their possessions, and have moved to other and distant parts of the Church. Those taking their place, do not, as a general thing, contemplate becoming permanent residents, and but few of them are identified with our branch of the Church. Once the country was sparsely settled; now it is covered with a dense population. We have felt encouraged by our success thus far, in maintaining our interests; and with the blessing of God upon the fostering care extended us by the Board of Home Missions, we anticipate cheering results.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF MANSFIELD.

During the past year we have received on certificate Rev. Joseph M'Kee from the Presbytery of Big Spring, Rev. R. H. Pollock, from the First Presbytery of Ohio, Rev. J. V. Pringle, from the Prebytery of Allegheny, and Rev. J. D. Whitham, from the Free Presbyterian Church. We have granted certificates of ministerial standing and dismissal to Rev. D. Paul, to connect with the Presbytery of Muskingum, and to Rev. J. W. Taylor to connect with the Presbytery of Sidney.

Rev. S. M. Hutchison received and accepted a call from the congregations of Ontario and Shelby, and arrangements have been made for his installation. Rev. J. V. Pringle accepted a call from the congregations of Mt. Vernon and Martinsburg, April 18th, 1865, and was ordained and installed May 11th, 1865.

Rev. R. H. Pollock was installed pastor of the congregation of Wooster, April 27th, 1865.

A call from the congregation of Fredericksburg, for the ministerial labours of Rev. J. C. Truesdale, was sustained as regular, and ordered to be forwarded for presentation, April 18th, 1865.

Mr. J. P. Finney was licensed in April, 1865, to preach the everlasting gospel. Presbytery has under its care one student of Theology;—Mr. J. R. Finney.

In relation to the matters in overture, Presbytery adopted the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That as the Book of Discipline, and Directory for Worship are still in the hands of the committee, and are being changed; therefore Presbytery cannot see the propriety of reporting on them at present.

2d. Resolved, That we are not prepared to fully approve the report of the committee on the amendment to the present version of the Psalms.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF MERCER.

Presbytery hereby records its devout gratitude to God, that all the members, under a kind providence, have been permitted to occupy their places of labour during the year now closing. Shocking scenes of carnage and death have occurred in the armies of our nation and most outrageous assassinations have been enacted in our chief metropolis; but by the Lord's help the wicked rebellion has been conquered, slavery, the chief cause thereof, has been virtually annihilated, its natural offspring,—the vile assassins, are being seized and brought to the tribunal of justice, and upon our vigorous and brave republic the glorious dawn of peace has come. For all this we would praise the Lord our God forever. No special instances of revival appear in our churches, yet we trust that the Holy Spirit has been poured out in goodly measure wherever are dispensed the word and sacraments. We hope that the good fruits of our continued prayer-meetings and prosperous Sabbath-schools will yet be manifest.

Rev. William Bruce was at his own request dismissed by our certificate, to join some other Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church. Rev. Robert Burgess was also furnished with a certificate to the Presbytery of Kansas, and Rev. J. H. Tedford of West Greenville received a certificate to connect with the Presbytery of the Lakes, his congregation being transferred to said Presbytery by the act of Synod.

Mr. John Lackey, student of theology, having delivered the usual pieces of trial as required, and having also undergone examination before Presbytery, was on the 6th day of August last licensed as a missionary to preach the everlasting gospel. Since the said date, he has occupied the field assigned him at Davis' Bend.

Messrs. J. H. Brittain and J. G. Madge, students of theology, remain under our Presbyterial care, and continue, at times convenient, to deliver specimens of their industry and improvement, which are highly creditable. Also Messrs. Joseph McElvy, John Williamson and Daniel Thorne were on the 9th instant examined and taken under the care of Presbytery as students of theology.

Not having sufficient time to examine the amended version of the Psalms now in overture, Presbytery is not prepared to act in reference to it.

In the published form of your statistical table there is no column in which to report the number of our Sabbath school scholars, and the contributions for the Freedmen's Mission. Cannot this defect be met? Respectfully submitted.

By order of Presbytery.

T. W. WINTER, Moderator.

May 9th, 1865.

S ALEXANDER, Clerk.

P. S.—Mr. J. Robertson, student of theology, was on the 6th of September, 1864, granted a certificate of good standing to connect with a sister Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF MICHIGAN.

Since our last report, our territorial limits have been considerably curtailed by the erection of a new Presbytery called the Presbytery of Wabash. Embracing all that portion of our territory lying in the State of Indiana, south of a line running due east and west through the city of Fort Wayne, including that city. Thus we are separated from many of our former co-presbyters.

We now number nine ministers:—five settled and four unsettled. We have under our care four vacancies, and two mission stations.

Within the past year we have transacted the following items of business, of general interest:

1st. Received Mr. Jas. W. Buchanan, licentiate, on certificate from the Presbytery of Butler.

2d. Ordained Messrs. T. J. Wilson, and James W. Buchanan, and installed the former in the pastoral charge of Martin congregation.

3d. Organized a new congregation in Whitley county, Indiana, by the name of Pleasant Grove; and established a new mission station, with very flattering prospects, at Berlin, Ottawa county, Michigan.

4th. Dismissed Mr. W. C. Dunn, licentiate, to connect with the Presbytery of Sidney.

In regard to the state of religion, we have nothing very special to report. Our pastors have been enabled to labour during the year with but little interruption, except Brother T. J. Wilson, whose health has compelled him to suspend, for a time, his labours; but we are happy to report, that his health now seems to be so rapidly improving, that a speedy return to his pastoral duties is anticipated.

Our missionaries have all fulfilled their appointments, except Messrs. Mc'Rea, and Reasoner, whose neglect of their appointments was inexcusable.

Several new Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings, have been organized during the year, and our people seem generally to manifest more interest in these exercises than formerly. Peace and harmony generally prevail in all our congregations.

The only overture of the last Assembly considered by our Presbytery was the Directory for Worship. The vote upon its adoption stood—ayes, 2; nays, 5; not voting, 1.

That the blessing of the King and Head of the Church may rest upon you, is the prayer of your brethren.

Respectfully submitted.

J. N. BUCHANAN, S. C.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF MONMOUTH.

During the year ending April 6, 1865, we have received James B. Foster, from the first Presbytery of Ohio; Andrew M. Black, from the Presbytery of Mercer; and T. P. Patterson, probationer, from the Presbytery of Muskingum.

We have installed J. B. Foster pastor of the congregation of Young America; and ordained and installed Daniel Harris, pastor of the congregations of Fountain Green, and Chalmers; John H. Brown, pastor of the congregation of Clayton; William H. McMillan, pastor of the congregation of Little York; and T. P. Patterson, pastor of the congregation of Spring Grove.

We have dissolved the pastoral relation between Charles Thompson, and the congregation of Oquawka.

We have furnished a certificate to J. C. McKnight to connect with the Presbytery of Bloomington.

We have received as students of Theology, D. W. McLane, from the Presbytery of Conemaugh, A. W. McGibbon, from the Presbytery of Delaware, J. M. Baugh, from the Presbytery of Des Moines, and Richard Turnbull and Alexander Smith, on examination.

We have licensed J. M. Baugh, A. W. McGibbon, D. W. McLane and Alexander Smith to preach the gospel.

From an examination of the annual reports of congregations, we learn that there are some of our congregations in which there are no prayer meetings. On the subject of family worship, several congregations report exceptions to the practice of the duty among their families. There is also a great failure on the part of young persons to connect with the church. While, therefore, we feel thankful that our congregations are so well sustained, and that there is a gradual increase of our numbers by accessions to the church, we lament that the state of religion is not more encouraging in our bounds.

On the subjects in overture, we report as follows:

1. On the Amended Version of the Psalms, the vote stood, Ayes, none. Nays 25.

The following minute was adopted as expressing the Presbytery's views on this subject.

The Presbytery has voted against the proposed amendments to the authorized version of Psalms, because it judges them so numerous and important as to destroy the integrity of the version; and because it deems it impracticable to secure the acquiescence of the church in the use of any such amended version. At the same time the Presbytery earnestly desires that the work of preparing a new version may be diligently prosecuted, until one smoother and more agreeable to the text than the old version shall be secured, which new version should not be substituted for the old, but simply authorized to be used by such as prefer it.

On the Directory for Worship, the Presbytery voted as follows: Ayes, 10, Nays, 7.

The Presbytery respectfully asks the General Assembly to make the following changes in the Directory for Worship:

In chapter VII, insert a section before section 1, as follows:—"Adults are to be baptized on the public profession of their faith in Christ and obedience to him."

Change section 1 to section 2, and let it read,—“The baptism of children should not be unnecessarily delayed.”

In section four, last paragraph, after the word faith, insert “in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.”

In chapter IX. section 3. strike out the sentence, "All display of party, spirit or of wit should be avoided."

Change the last line of section 4, so that it shall read as follows, "No pastor should omit it."

In section 2, insert the word "occasions," instead of the word "crisis."

In chapter XV. section 1. strike out all after the Scripture references, and insert, "And it is the duty of all the members to attend these meetings."

In chapter XVI. section 2, strike out the word "fervent."

Amend section 4, so as to read, "There should be frequent meetings." &c.

Change the last sentence of section 6 so that it shall read, "All books of a merely secular or amusing character should be kept from the library."

REPORT OF MONONGAHELA PRESBYTERY.

During the past year, God has mercifully spared the lives, of all our ministers, and permitted them to labour, without interruption, and we trust with a good degree of success in his cause.

State of Religion.—We have nothing particular to report on this subject. While there is much to bewail, there is much also to gladden the hearts of God's children.

Pastoral Relations Dissolved.—Rev. H. C. McFarland, was released from Hebron congregation, June 27th, 1864, and from East Liberty congregation April, 11th, 1865.

Rev. A. Y. Houston, was released from Peters' Creek congregation, December 27th, 1864.

Students Received.—Messrs. John Gailey, R. S. Robb, John S. Sands, J. B. Boreland, and A. B. Gilfillen, were on the 11th of April, received as Students of Theology.

Licensed.—Mr. E. T. Jeffers, December, 28th, 1864; and Messrs. R. Gracey Ferguson, R. B. Robertson, and John Gailey, April, 12th, 1865, were licensed as probationers, for the gospel ministry.

Certified.—Rev. C. T. McCaughan, was, on the 11th of April, certified to the Presbytery of Des Moines. Mr. Wallace Radcliffe, a student, under the care of Presbytery, was, Dec. 18th, 1864, certified to the Presbytery of New Castle, (O. S.) Presbyterian.

Statistics.—A table of Statistics, accompanies this report. There being no columns in the Assembly's table for the Freedmen's Mission, nor for Sabbath schools, we can report nothing of our statistics, on these subjects.

Sabbath Schools.—Well regulated Sabbath schools, exist in most of our congregations, and are doing a good work among the young.

Prayer-meetings.—While they are not as largely attended as they ought to be, yet it is believed, that those who do attend them regularly, are increasing in earnestness and fervency; and will, without doubt, receive the blessing themselves, and thus be a means of blessing others.

A separate report, containing proposed amendments and the vote of Presbytery on the Assembly's overtures, accompanies this report.

Respectfully submitted, By order of Presbytery.

Overtures.—Directory for Worship.—11 ayes, 1 nay. Book of Discipline was not received, as directed by the assembly.

State of Religion. In doing the work of our Master that has been assigned to us, we feel that we are sometimes much straitened. It is a great and good work in which we are engaged, but how often do our hands hang down and our hearts become discouraged! Through the past year we have been enabled to maintain the regular administration of gospel ordinances in all our congregations; not however with such measure of success as we could have desired. In addition to the ordinary Sabbath administrations, in most of our congregations prayer-meetings, weekly and monthly, and Sabbath schools are well sustained. The cause of truth and righteousness is on the advance, although in a way we may find it difficult to understand. The minds of the people seem to be to a large extent called off from the things of God through the terrible calamity of war that has now for years been upon us; and hence there is not that measure of spirituality and earnest zeal in advancing the cause of God that we could desire. Many, it is true, love the truth and cleave to it, while some are turned aside from us. But with the prospect of returning peace to our country, our prayer and confident expectations are that we shall soon enjoy a better state of things.

A statistical table accompanies this report.

REPORT OF FIRST PRESBYTERY OF NEW YORK.

On the 20th of September, 1864, Rev. A. C. Tris was received on certificate from the Presbytery of Des Moines, and his name added to our roll.

On the 21st Dec. 1864, Rev. J. A. M'Gill was dismissed, at his own request, to connect with the Presbytery of Big Spring.

At the same meeting of Presbytery it was agreed to establish a mission in the North-East part of the city of New York, and a hall having been procured, Cor. of 44th St. and 3d Avenue, and fitted up as a place of worship, Presbytery commenced preaching there on the 3d Sabbath of January last, and from that time to the present divine service has been regularly conducted there by the members of Presbytery in turn. A Sabbath school has been organized in connexion with this station, and is in successful operation, and a weekly prayer-meeting has been established, which is well attended. The prospect of this Mission is such as to warrant Presbytery in asking the appointment of a suitable man to labour in this needy part of the city for the first nine months of the coming year, and also for an appropriation of $500 for his support, and on condition that this our request be granted, Presbytery will supplement the above sum by the additional sum of $200.

On the 29th of March, at a meeting held at Hoboken N. J., Rev. S. C. Marshall was, at his own request, dismissed from us to connect with the Presbytery of Muskingum.

At the same meeting Mr. Hugh Wallace Torrence, a student under the care of Presbytery, after the usual trials and examination, was licensed to preach the gospel. At the same meeting action was taken on the matters overtured by last Assembly, and is as follows.

“Form of Government and Discipline.”—Inasmuch as a copy of the Book of Government and Discipline contemplated in the Overture of the last General Assembly has not been received by any member of this Presbytery, therefore,

Resolved, That Presbytery is not prepared to give any judgment in the matter.

On the Directory for Worship, the vote to adopt stood Ayes 4, Nays 8. The following amendments were recommended for the consideration of the Assembly:

Chapt. 1, sect. 1. Instead of “timely laying aside,” read “a timely laying aside of.”

Same Chapt. Insert at the end the following. “Sect. 7. The interment of the dead, except in cases of peculiar necessity, and the celebration of marriage upon the Sabbath are inconsistent with the due sanctification of that day.”

Chapt. 4, sect. 2. Strike out the words “In the United Presbyterian Church.”

Chapt. 4, sec. 4. Instead of “Singing the praises of God,” read, “In praising God.”

Chapt. 4, sect. 5. Amend to read thus: "As the use of musical instruments in the worship of the New Testament Church has no sanction in the Bible, it shall not be introduced under any form in any of our churches.

Same Chapt. Add the following. "Sect. 6. It shall pertain to sessions to regulate, in accordance with the general law of the church, the singing of praise in the congregations of which they have respectively the oversight.

Chapt. 5. Add the following. "Sect. 5. The custom of sitting in prayer, unless in cases of bodily infirmity, is to be discountenanced as irreverent and unscriptural."

Chapt. 7, sect. 2. Alter to read thus. "It should not be administered in a private place, unless in extraordinary cases, but publicly in the place of worship; and when administered in a private place, due notice of the fact, and an invitation to be present, shall be given to the congregation."

Chapt. 8, sect. 3. Alter to read thus. "Under ordinary circumstances, at least four weeks' notice shall be given to the congregation before the administration of the Lord's Supper: and care should be taken before the dispensation of this ordinance, to instruct the people in regard to its nature, that all may be prepared to come in a suitable manner to this holy feast."

Chapt. 12, sect. 5. Insert "Superior" before "Courts of the Church," in line second; and also before "Church courts," at the close of the sentence."

Chapt. 13, sect. 3. Strike out the clause,—“Then they would unite with you in expressions of gratitude and joy.”

Chapt. 16, sect. 1. Strike out the words,—“Well regulated” in the first line, and in the third line substitute “but” for “and,” so that it may read, “But especially &c.”

Same chapt. sects. 2 and 3. Alter so as to read, A man of fervent piety should be chosen by the session as superintendent; and, if at all practicable, he should be a member of session. The session shall also provide suitable teachers and reading matter for the children, and give general direction to the work.

Same Chapt. sect. 6. Strike out the words “The superintendent and teachers should strive,” and insert in their stead the following, “Care should be taken,” &c.

With reference to the proposed amendments to the Book of Psalms, the following was adopted by a vote of eleven to one; to wit:

“While we are not disposed to deny that many, if not all of the proposed amendments, are in themselves proper; yet it appears to us that the introduction of so many alterations would be offensive to many in our church, and would tend to separate between us and other churches using the version in its present form; while all the proposed changes, if adopted, would not be likely to satisfy those who are desirous of obtaining a thoroughly modern version. We would therefore recommend that the present version be left unchanged, save in a few places where verbal amendments are obviously desirable, and can easily be made; while, to meet the demand which is said to exist, for an improved version, we would recommend what has been for some time in contemplation by the General Assembly, the preparation of an entirely new version, embracing greater variety in metres than exists in the old; the two versions to be bound together, and the right to use either in worship being granted to the church.”

At the same meeting, the following resolution was passed unanimously.

Resolved, That this Presbytery hereby expresses its continued interest in the saving conversion of the Jews in the City of New York, and elsewhere; and its desire that the General Assembly may enter upon the work, and regard the claim which the Jews have to the love, prayers, and liberality of our church in regard to the promotion of the gospel among them.”

As to the state of religion within our bounds, we have but little to report; yet while it is not our privilege to record any special outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon any of our churches, we are not left without evidence of his gracious presence with us. Harmony prevails in all our congregations; Sabbath schools, Bible Classes, and Prayer-meetings, are well attended; family worship is regularly observed in most families; attendance on the public ordinances of religion, though not as good as would be desirable, is nevertheless encouraging: in some cases unusually large accessions have been made to the membership of the church, mostly by profession and examination; and the spirit of liberality seems to be on the increase among our people.

During the past year we have done what we could as a Presbytery to supply the temporal and spiritual wants of our sick and wounded soldiers. Revs. H. Connelly and John Erskine, and H. W. Torrence (licentiate) have laboured in connexion with the Christian Commission, the first two, for a period of six weeks each, and the latter, for a period of four months.

We have seven ordained ministers, and one licentiate. Two of our congregations east 11th St. and Hoboken, are vacant, but anxious to be settled. Three of our ministers are without charge; namely, Henry Connelly, William Melville, and Abraham C. Tris, who together with H. W. Torrence (licentiate) are at the disposal of the Board of Home Missions. It is the desire of Presbytery that Rev. A. C. Tris be appointed to our bounds three months during the year. In addition to the time Mr. Tris asked for, we will require two years and six months more of the time of one man, and an appropriation of $750 for the mission station east 44th St. and Third Avenue $500, and for Hoboken congregation $250.

A Statistical table accompanies this report. All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of Presbytery, { JOHN ERSKINE, Mod.
{ R. ARMSTRONG, Clerk.
Hoboken, March 29th, 1865.

REPORT OF THE SECOND PRESBYTERY OF NEW YORK.

On the 28th of June, 1864, the congregation known as the 28th Street Congregation, New York, belonging to the Presbyterian Church, O. S., was received into our connexion.

September, 23d, 1864, Rev. B. F. Pinkerton was received by certificate from the Presbytery of Bloomington.

On the same day, Rev. W. B. Sutherland presented a certificate, and after the usual examination as to his approval of the doctrines and usages of the United Presbyterian Church, was received into our communion from the Congregational Association.

January 16th, 1865, a call from the 28th Street Congregation, addressed to the Rev. W. B. Sutherland, was presented to the candidate, and by him accepted.

February 17th, 1865, Rev. W. B. Sutherland was installed as pastor of the 28th Street Congregation.

Rev. B. F. Pinkerton has been labouring according to the appointment of the General Assembly in the mission at Harlem with encouraging success; and it is the earnest request of the congregation, seconded by the Presbytery, that Mr. Pinkerton be returned to this important field for the ensuing year.

It is believed that the attendance on the ordinances during the past year has been as good as formerly, but we cannot report any special manifestations of religious interest in any of our congregations.

Psalmody.—It was resolved that this Presbytery was not prepared to express its approval of the specimens of a corrected version of the Psalms in overture.

Directory for Worship.—Presbytery respectfully recommends the following amendments:

Chap. 7, Sec. 2, add, "giving public notice, when administered in a private place."

Chap. 8, Sec. 5, to read thus: "After this warning and invitation, a portion of Psalm should be sung, and the table," &c.

Chap. 10, Sec. 1, line 1st, after the word "minister," insert "or elders." Line 3d, instead of "his" insert "their."

Sec. 2, line 1st, after "minister," insert "or elders." The latter part of the section to read thus: "and their own vows, when the one assumed the office of pastor, and the others of ruling elder, they should go to them at once," &c.

Sec. 3 to correspond with Sec. 2, as thus amended.

Sec. 4, line 3d, after "minister," insert, "or the elder."

Sec. 6 to read thus: "A minister or elder should not confine his visits to the sick of his own congregation," &c.

Sec. 7, line 2d, after "minister," insert, "or elder."

Chap. 16, Sec. 2, to read thus: "A man of fervent piety, being a member of the Church, shall be chosen as superintendent by the session, if they think proper, who, together with the session, &c.

Sec. 6 to read thus: The session, together with the officers and teachers, shall provide reading matter for the school, and shall be careful to furnish such catechisms, papers and books, as shall present the truth in a clear and scriptural light; they shall likewise exclude from the library all books of a secular or amusing character. The shorter catechism shall be in every school.

Sec. 9. [Additional.] The Pastor has, by virtue of his office, the supervision of the whole school, and shall from time to time give such instruction to the superintendent and teachers, and make such examination of the school, as may seem fit to him and to the session.

All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF NEBRASKA.

We would report that but few changes have taken place within our bounds during the year deserving special notice. All the Missionaries appointed to our bounds have been labouring in their respective fields with acceptance to the people, and we trust with a good degree of success. In our congregations generally, peace and brotherly love prevail. The attendance on the means of grace is good. A commendable degree of interest has been manifested by most of our congregations in their contributions to the various Boards of the Church. A call has been made out by Amity congregation for the Rev. J. G. M'Kee, of the Nashville Freedmen's Mission, and two others have been granted the moderation of calls; one to the First Church, Nebraska City, and the other to the congregation of Rock Bluff.

That the King and Head of the church may direct you in all your deliberations, is the prayer of your brethren in Christ.

By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF OREGON.

In common with our fellow men on the Pacific Coast, we have, by the kind indulgence of a gracious Benefactor, enjoyed uninterrupted peace, and abundant harvest, and general health.

If our increase in numbers has been small, those numbers, together with the number of our organizations and the extent of our territory, remain undiminished, while, owing to a material lessening of our ministerial force during the past years, and to the feebleness of our pecuniary resources, we have been unable to occupy even transiently some of those stations which had heretofore been visited.

Supply has occasionally been sent to Salem, one of our largest and most flourishing towns on the Willamette river, and the capital of the State of Oregon. So many of our members have gathered in and around that place as will soon justify an organization with the hope of a permanent congregation. Could the Assembly place a man of capacity and fidelity at that place, and in part sustain him for a time, we doubt not, that with the blessing of God, you would realize results proportionate to the labour bestowed.

While we must acknowledge in our congregations the prevalence, to some extent, of a spirit of worldliness,—an eagerness to grow rich suddenly, of a decline in that vigour and earnestness which indicate the strong men in Christ, who wrestle and prevail, giving him no rest until he build and establish Jerusalem—we feel assured, from the commendable diligence of the many in their attendance on ordinances, from the stated worship in families, from the general unity and harmony that prevail, with other kindred characteristics, that God has not forsaken us, but is preserving a vital spark which the flood of surrounding corruption cannot extinguish. But when we look on the vast fields stretching north and east of us, being filled up with the people of our own country, and among them some of our own communion, our earnest desire is that you would come and occupy; and our earnest prayer is that soon the earth may be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, and that this vast wilderness of Zion may become as Eden,—this vast portion of her great desert may become like the garden of God.

Yours with esteem and affection.

By order of the Presbytery.

T. S. KENDALL, Clerk of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF PHILADELPHIA.

The Presbytery of Philadelphia begs leave to report that Messrs. J. C. Meloy, of the Presbytery of Chartiers, D. M. Gordon of the Presbytery of Xenia and J. M. Hutchison of the Presbytery of Chicago, after satisfactory trials and examination, were ordained and installed as follows: Mr. Meloy as pastor of the 6th Church of Philadelphia, June 27th, 1864, Mr. Gordon of the 4th, November 10th, 1864, and Mr. Hutchinson of the 10th, May 1st, 1865.

According to instruction a member of Presbytery has been appointed to receive and condense missionaries' reports for the Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.

Rev. T. F. Boyd was dismissed to the Presbytery of Westmoreland September 26th, 1864.

The overtures from the last General Assembly were sent down to Sessions for consideration. The following was adopted respecting the amended version of the Psalms: "Resolved, that the Presbytery are not prepared to adopt the version as thus amended, but desire the present version to be retained as it is, except the slight verbal alterations which any judicious publisher might make, until a new and more perfect version is prepared and furnished to the church, when both versions can be bound up in one book and allowed to be used." The draft of a book of worship was approved, and Presbytery are willing to adopt it: a list of the proposed amendments accompanies this report.

We have one student pursuing his collegiate course with reference to the ministry. A call has been made out by the congregation of Oxford for Mr. E. T. Jeffers, of the Presbytery of Monongahela. Oxford is at present our only vacancy. Owing to the increased rate of exchange, special efforts were made in behalf of Foreign Missions with most encouraging results. We are happy to state also, that four of our congregations have been successful in liquidating the debts upon their churches, while others have been highly favoured in securing means for the erection of houses of worship.

We recommend to the Assembly a reconstruction of the statistical table, advising that the columns on families and ministers' salaries be omitted and place increase of members in one column.

The name of William S. Rentoul is proposed, as our Financial Agent.

State of Religion.

Upon this subject we have little of any peculiar importance to report, such as revivals of religion or large accessions to the church;—yet we have much cause for thankfulness, that the great Head of the church has not withdrawn from us the manifestation of his grace, as he justly might have done for our general lukewarmness in his service. From the reports of sessions, it appears that,—

Prayer-Meetings are generally kept up in our congregations, and some of these are of a very interesting character.

Sabbath Schools are also established in our congregations, as also Bible Classes, which bid fair to be blessed auxiliaries to the cause of religion.

Family Worship is faithfully pressed upon the attention of our people, and in general we believe it is duly observed; yet in some cases we regret this important duty is lamentably neglected.

We are happy to state, that in the bounds of this Presbytery there have been but few cases of discipline during the past year for gross immoralities. As a Presbytery we feel it our duty to bear a faithful testimony against the prevailing sins of the day, such as intemperance, worldly and vain amusements, and sabbath desecration, and pray God that the wickedness of the wicked may come to an end. Upon the whole, when we consider how much the minds of our people have been absorbed in the state of our beloved and long afflicted country, we have yet cause to thank God and take courage, and bend our energies afresh to labour for his glory. By order of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF ROCK ISLAND.

This Presbytery was organized by the direction of the Synod of Illinois on the eighth day of February 1864.

Concerning the state of religion, while it is not up to the standard which we could desire, yet, according to congregational reports, the public ordinances are well attended, and encouragingly blessed, as are also prayer-meetings and Sabbath schools.

Upon the subjects of overture, Presbytery is not prepared to report.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SEALKOTE.

The past year has been one of trial in the history of this Presbytery. Messrs. Stevenson and Gordon have both been compelled, by protracted ill health, to return to America. They sailed from Calcutta, for America, via England, on the 31st of December.

Not having had an opportunity of examining matters overtured to Presbyteries, we have taken no action on them.

A congregation has been organized at Gujranwala.

A number of young men have been examined, and received as helpers in the mission work.

We have not been without tokens of our Master's presence and blessing on our labours, though we have been so weak in numbers.

The accompanying mission report will give you a full account of our labours during the year.

E. P. SWIFT, Clerk.

Sealkote, January, 1865.

Annual Report of Sealkote Mission for 1864 to General Assembly.

Dear Brethren:—When we separated after the business of the annual meeting of last year, it was with high hopes for the prosperity of this mission. The depressing influences so long unfavourably affecting its interests had passed away, and it seemed to be entering upon a renewed season of prosperity. In both stations there seemed to be many earnestly inquiring the way of salvation. In Sealkote station particularly, there were not only many inquirers, but there was a most encouraging spirit manifested by the native Christians. There was among them a spirit of love, of prayer, of earnest striving to gain the mastery over former evil habits, which filled our hearts with the liveliest gratitude to God, and the highest hopes for the future. The field at Gujranwala seemed ripe for the harvest, and to human eyes needed but the reaper's hand to gather in the dropping harvest. In our stations, in our surrounding fields, there was every thing to call out our highest efforts for the advancement of our Master's kingdom. And though the political sky seemed troubled, and on the northern frontier of the Punjab the cloud of war hung heavy and dark for a time, and there were mutterings of discontent among the warlike Sikhs around us, all quickly passed away, and we have dwelt in peace under the shadow of the Almighty.

With such prospects we entered upon our several duties for the year. But how different is it now, as we meet after one year's separation! The mission band is broken; and, as we write, some are far from us, on their way home, to seek the health denied them in this trying climate. Yes, they are gone. The church has been earnestly appealed to, to send us help; yet we meet here to-day a broken band, to make arrangements to meet the demands upon our strength during the coming year; yes, to meet demands so heavy that the very thought of attempting to meet them would be overwhelming, had we to do it in our own strength. And—must we write it?—though the possibility of such a weakening of our force has long been before the church, and its certainty for some months, it is not the privilege of the only American representative the church has on the field to say to his overworked native brethren.—let us bear up a little longer; the Church has not forgotten us; help has been sent, and soon will be here. No; no: this is not his privilege; but he has to say, as mail after mail arrives, "There is yet no tidings of help."

This is discouraging to us all, dear brethren, and while we will do all we can to carry on, to the best of our ability, the work of the mission during the coming year, we feel it to be our duty now to say to the Church that this mission must be re-enforced immediately by at least two ordained missionaries and a female teacher, or it will suffer in work having to be suspended, which it will take years of hard labour to bring back to its present standing.

Sealkote Station.

Missionaries and Native Agents:—At the beginning of the year the mission force at this station consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Miss E. G. Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott; native assistants,—William Bruce, Scripture reader of the first grade, John, Probationary Scripture reader, and several Colporteurs. These were all in their usual health, with the exception of Mr. Stevenson. His health had become seriously affected in August, 1863. In September of that year he had found it necessary to go to the Hills. It was hoped that the change and climate there might be the means of restoring him to his usual health; but he returned in December without having experienced any sensible relief. He thus entered upon the year 1864 with but little prospect of being able to undertake any amount of labour. During the first months of the year, while the weather was yet cool, he spent some time itinerating in the district, and took part in other duties as he was able. At the commencement of the hot season he was compelled to return to the Hills; and left with his family, early in April, experiencing but little benefit during this second stay; and in the mean time receiving permission from the Board of Foreign Mission to return to America, he made preparations for the voyage, returned to Sealkote in October, left for Calcutta November 28th, and sailed for England December 31st, accompanied by his family.

Mr. Gordon entered upon this year with every prospect of increased usefulness. He had spent the greater part of the hot season of 1863 on the Hills with marked benefit. Feeling himself so much invigorated by his stay there, he entered on the duties of the year with great zeal and earnestness. Having for the year charge of the city school, and owing to the scarcity of mission funds, having no English head teacher, he himself undertook to teach, and usually spent four or five hours in the school teaching and superintending. This with his other duties was too much; and on the 29th of February he was suddenly prostrated. For days there was but little hope of his recovery. At length he was sufficiently restored to be able to proceed to Dharmasalla by careful stages, borne in a duli,—a rude sort of palanquin. His family accompanied him. It was necessary for Miss Gordon to accompany him, as Mrs. Gordon was, alone, unequal to the care and attention he required. He was somewhat improved by his residence there, but not so much as to justify him in remaining in India with the very uncertain hope of ultimate recovery. Accordingly, he made preparations for returning home; and with his family and Miss Gordon sailed with Mr. Stevenson.

Bro. Scott was thus deprived of effective assistance in the work early in the year,—but only till the last of March, when he was joined by Bro. Swift. Bro. Swift remained at Sealkote station until the 26th of July, when owing to the temporary illness of Mr. Barr, he was compelled to return to Gujranwalla. Mr. Barr came to Sealkote, but was too weak to render much assistance; and Bro. Scott was left without much help for the remainder of the year.

Schools.

A City School.—This school,—an English and vernacular one, has been kept up in the city with but little intermission since the establishment of the Mission at Sealkote. Its object is to reach with religious instruction, the youth of the city. Their parents are willing, for the sake of having their children taught English, to have them attend a school conducted by Missionaries, and do not object to the religious instruction imparted, nor to the rule requiring the boys to attend the Sabbath services always held in the school building.

At the commencement of the year this school was in a highly prosperous condition; its attendance had been largely increased,—numbering 140 boys. It continued to prosper as long as it was carefully superintended. After Mr. Gordon was taken sick, it was impossible to give it that care and attention which such a school requires; nor was it possible to give the salary necessary to secure a competent head teacher. The consequences are easily foreseen;—it rapidly degenerated in character and decreased in attendance, till it was thought best to close it for a time. It was accordingly closed on the first of October. Thus, owing to the weakness of the mission force, a most important part of the work had to be given up for a time. We may add, that at this writing, so important have we considered this work, that we have ventured to resume it for the coming year.

Compound School.—As the greater part of those who come to the Mission Compound as inquirers are unable to read, it has always been considered of the first importance that they be taught to read as soon as possible. The Christians and their children must also be taught. In this school it is also convenient to include the orphans connected with the station. These at Sealkote are the orphan girls. All these make up the compound school. The branches taught are Hindustani, chiefly in the Roman character,—Writing, Arithmetic, English, Singing, &c. During the early part of the year it was in the charge of Miss Gordon, assisted by Mr. Gordon. On Mr. Gordon's taking sick, it was suspended for a few weeks. When Brother Swift arrived at Sealkote, he took charge of it and taught in it till he left for Gujranwala in July. Mrs. Scott had then to take charge of it, and continues to do so. She is assisted by Mrs. Barr, and Brother Scott when his other duties will permit. It has thus, with but a few weeks' interruption, been carried on efficiently during the year.

Orphanage.—By arrangement of the mission, the orphan school was divided in 1863. The boys were removed to Gujranwala and the girls remained at Sealkote, the experience of missionaries having proved this to be the better plan.

At the beginning of the year the number of the girls was eight,—one having been added in 1863. On the 1st of October, it was increased by the reception of ten girls from Gujranwala. One of these being very sick at the time of her reception, died after a few days. The school now numbers seventeen interesting children. They are generally healthy, and are making good progress in their studies; nor are we without proof that the blessing of the Holy Spirit has accompanied the labours of those whose particular charge they have been;—four of the eldest, namely, Mary, Julia, Clara, Pujari and Harper, having been baptized on profession of their faith in Christ.

At the beginning of the year they were in the charge of Miss Gordon, whose faithful labours in this department during her connexion with the mission, it is now our privilege to acknowledge. When it became necessary for her to accompany Mr. Gordon and family to the Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Scott superintended, the burden of the work falling to the lot of the latter. This trust has been faithfully discharged, notwithstanding the charge of her house and the care of her young and interesting family. Gladly would the mission relieve her of this heavy burden, were it possible. But this cannot be until the church fills Miss Gordon's place. Are there not some devoted ones in the United Presbyterian Church, who will gladly come to India, that they may have the privilege of pointing these bright little orphan girls to the Lamb of God? And will not the Church respond with open hand to that one who will be found willing to come? Surely, if young men do fail to come forward as Missionaries, we may have hope here.

Industrial School.

This School is not carried on with Mission Funds, though at present it is indebted to the mission for a small amount advanced for material to commence with. This it is now repaying, and by the end of next year we hope it will be entirely free from debt. Being an object of care and superintendence by the missionaries, and helping to swell the burden of duties in the station, it thus finds a place in this report.

It had its origin in the felt necessity of providing support for inquirers and poor native Christians. Inquirers often come and wish to remain with us for a time, that they may inquire more fully into the claims of the Christian religion. Sometimes they are in earnest, sometimes not. This can only be known on trial. The question of the support of such persons then becomes imperative. We must either give support directly, from mission funds, or provide some work for them. We cannot turn them away. To provide work is certainly the true plan, since it not only preserves them from idleness, but becomes a powerful test of their sincerity. For an inquirer willing to work gives good proof that he is in earnest. This and the support of native Christians led to the establishment of our Industrial School.

As the first effort of the kind in the Punjab, it is most creditable to our Mission. It was spoken of in the Punjab Mission Conference in terms of high praise. It was undertaken, at the suggestion of the mission, by Mr. Gordon, and carried on principally by him until the failure of his health. From a small beginning it has increased year by year, until now it is able to employ all who need employment, and leave a profit to repay the money borrowed to start it. We find a ready sale for all its products, three of which took the first premium at the Punjab exhibition lately held in Lahore. Since Mr. Gordon's illness its interests have been looked after by Bro. Scott. At this date it is carried on to a great extent by the native Christians themselves, and we look forward to the time when they will be able to take entire charge of it.

Religious Services.

By appointment of Presbytery Bro. Scott had charge of the congregation during the year. He entered upon the discharge of his duties early in the year, and continued without interruption until the end. He was assisted by Bro. Swift during his presence in the station. He has kept up preaching regularly in the City Church on Sabbath mornings. The audience there is composed of the native Christians and their families, orphans, school boys averaging say one hundred, and others whom interest or curiosity may attract. The second service on the Sabbath is held on the compound, and is more especially intended for the native Christians, inquirers &c., though attended by servants and others who may be present. This has also been regularly kept up. It has been found beneficial to vary this service, by sometimes adopting the catechetical method of instruction, as being suited to secure the attention and help the ceremonies of the Christians. In addition to these services on the Sabbath, there is special instruction for the children, and personal instruction to the Christians and inquirers. During the week, and during the entire year, the English and female prayer-meetings have been kept up with a good degree of regularity and the Hindustani one regularly.

Brother Scott reports that there has been earnest and marked attention throughout the entire year; and during the first months of it an unusual manifestation of spiritual concern. The number of baptisms on profession of faith in Christ were twelve during the year, of infants two. The amount of contributions for missionary purposes about forty rupees.

Preaching in the city has been attended to with all regularity possible in the circumstances of the station; but not with the regularity of former years. Mr. Stevenson attended when able during the early months of the year. Brother Swift regularly during his presence in the station,—and Brother Scott, when possible. There has been a good degree of attention, little opposition, but nothing of marked interest during the year.

Itinerating.

A few months at the beginning of the year were spent in this work by Mr. Stevenson. As he has left no report of this labour, we are unable to furnish the church with the particulars of his tour. No doubt he will gladly make public any thing that may be of interest on his return home.

GUJRANWALLA STATION.—MISSIONARIES AND NATIVE AGENTS.

At the beginning of the year the mission force at this station consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Swift, and one scripture reader of the second grade. This force was increased by the addition of two colporteurs about the 1st of June. At the beginning of the year all were in their usual health, with the exception of Mrs. Swift. She was not strong at the beginning of the year, and was much more reduced after the birth of their youngest child Elisha. At one time her life was supposed to be in great danger, and it became necessary for Brother Swift to remove to Sealkote, hoping that the change to that place might prove beneficial. This took place about the end of March. It left Mr. and Mrs. Barr alone at Gujranwala, but gave Brother Swift's assistance to the weakened force at Sealkote. At Sealkote Mrs. Swift was somewhat improved, and has continued to improve till now she has nearly recovered her former strength. In addition to this trial, our brother and sister have been called in the providence of God to part with a loved and loving daughter. She died at Jalandhar, after a short illness, and before her father, who was called, was able to reach her. In July Mr. Barr had a severe attack of acute dysentery, which left him quite weak, unable to attend to the duties of the station. This made it necessary for brother Swift to return to Gujranwala, which he accordingly did at the last of that month. Mr. Barr and family then went to Sealkote, where they remained about two months, returning to Gujranwala in October, and remained there till the close of the year. Thus this station has been deprived, during most of the year, of the labours of one of its members.

Schools.

At this station, for want of buildings and funds, we have never yet been able to have a city school. The only school was the compound school. This has been kept up regularly during the year, and has constantly had the superintendence and labour of one missionary at least three hours every day. The average number has been about thirty. It is made up of the orphan boys, Christians' children, and inquirers. The great want of this school is a building. It also needs suitable apparatus, such as maps, globes, &c. As it is the school in which the orphan boys are instructed, we consider it of the first importance that it be made an efficient one.

Orphan Boys.

Of these there were at the commencement of the year thirteen. They are all with us still. And the number has been increased by the reception of nine more, made over by the civil officers of the district, to the Mission. The number is now twenty-two. They have all been very healthy, and have made good progress in their studies. They now nearly all read Hindustani quite fluently in the Roman character. The larger boys read in the Persian and Arabic characters.

The first class has now nearly finished the third English Reader, and are well up in Arithmetic, Geography and writing. Many of them have the Shorter Catechism so well in their own language that they can repeat it perfectly, and their daily Bible studies have been carefully attended to throughout the year. It gives us pleasure to be able to say that we see in them all very marked improvement and look forward to the time when we will have among them many earnest helpers in the Mission work. It gives us pain to have to say, we are still without a building for their accommodation. The Board granted the amount necessary in the estimate, but at no time during the year were there sufficient funds on hand to justify us in building.

Religious Exercises.

By appointment of the Presbytery, J. S. Barr and E. P. Swift were to supply the congregation organized at this place with preaching. During the first part of the year this duty was discharged by Brother Swift. On his removing to Sealkote Mr. Barr discharged it as well as his knowledge of the language would permit, Brother Swift again taking it upon him on his return. In addition to the regular Sabbath services, a Sabbath school has been regularly kept up during the year, attended by the orphan boys, Christians' children and inquirers. There has also been a weekly Hindustani service.

Preaching in the City.

This has been kept up with a good degree of regularity throughout the year. During the more favourable season, and when both missionaries were present in the station, Brother Swift often visited the City twice during the day. It was made the duty of assistants to go when the missionary could not accompany them. In this work we have met with much encouragement and but little opposition. The people have been generally anxious to hear, and in this respect compare very favourably with the inhabitants of many other cities. And as it is situated on the Grand Trunk road, we have often among our hearers, travellers from all parts of the Punjab, and thus are enabled to scatter the good seed to places where the Missionary's voice is never heard.

Itinerating.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Swift, and the sickness at Sealkote, the early months of the year passed away without our being able to effect any thing in the way of itinerating. During the hot season, the assistants attended the fairs in the district, remaining at one about six weeks. At this they were enabled to distribute many religious books, portions of the scriptures, tracts, &c. We also kept Colporteurs employed during the latter part of the year, and had them go from village to village, distributing the word of life.

On the return of Mr. Barr, from Sealkote, brother Swift embraced the opportunity of going out into the district. He spent the months of November and December visiting the most important places near Gujranwalla. He reports a good degree of interest manifested in hearing, and a great desire for books. He is now continuing his itinerating in the district, and expects to spend most of this cold season in this work.

Buildings

It is a matter of deep regret, that we must again call the attention of the church to the urgent need of buildings in this station. We have not yet any building for the orphan boys. No church in the city, no place for preaching on the compound, but a small tent; no building for Mr. Barr, and no hope of getting any soon, and there are no buildings for rent. True the Board ventured two thousand rupees in the estimate for the orphan boys' building; but the church has evidently failed them, for the money has never come. It is also true that the Assembly voted an Indian Building Fund; but no one, so far as we know, here has been bold enough or interested enough in the India Mission to advocate it. And who among you has been generous enough to give one dollar towards it? Do you know that it is now three years since you sent a missionary to India, and you have never yet provided him with a home? Do give us suitable buildings, to show that we have still a warm place in the affections of the church.

Conclusion.

We would again urge upon the Board and church the immediate necessity of re-enforcing this Mission. Send us two Missionaries and one Female Teacher. Fewer will not fill up the weakened staff of this mission to what it should be, and will only render it necessary the more quickly to again return the overworked.

Financially, we would urge, as a matter of necessity, the keeping a larger amount of funds in our Treasury here. Twice during the past year, owing to unforeseen causes, and the failure of bills sent to reach us, have we been reduced almost to extremity, and but for local funds would have been in actual want. These local funds are now all exhausted by these unforeseen drafts. All must see that it is impossible for the Board to keep funds much in advance with the different missions, if the church does not put them in their hands. And it must be equally evident, that this hand to mouth policy is a very unsafe one for your distant missions. Suppose the monthly payments of salary take nearly all the funds on hand, and the next remittance miscarries, what is the consequence? Simply, that the very existence of the mission and the honour of the mission are threatened. For the sake of the mission and the honour of the church, we most earnestly call attention to this matter. By order of the Mission. J. S. BARR, } Com.
G. W. SCOTT, }

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF ST. LOUIS.

Within the past year, little business of general interest has been transacted. At our July meeting, a certificate of ministerial standing was granted W. T. Rawson, to connect with the Michigan Presbytery, and at our meeting in October, J. R. Kyle, a licentiate of the Xenia Presbytery, was received on certificate from that Presbytery, and was ordained to the office of the holy ministry with a view to his missionary operations in St. Louis.

Within the past year, Rev. T. D. Davis received a call from Hopewell congregation, and by a committee of Presbytery was duly installed.

During the past year our congregations have enjoyed a reasonable degree of prosperity, and in many instances our congregations are encouraged by the evidence of the presence of the Holy Spirit with them.

A statistical table accompanies this report.

The Directory for Worship has been unanimously adopted by this Presbytery.

The amended version of the Psalms was rejected by the Presbytery: all against it, with the exception of one vote.

Respectfully submitted,

{ J. R. KYLE, Moderator,
J. F. STEWART, Stated Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SIDNEY.

In presenting to you our annual report, we feel that we have much for which to be thankful, and some things on account of which we are sorry. Amidst the overturnings of the present times, our congregations, to a very great extent, have been preserved from that disintegrating process from which some portions of the Church have suffered. Peace and harmony, to a desirable degree, prevail in all our congregations. All our churches, too, have been blessed with ordinary increase to their membership, while some of them have had considerable accessions, and have enjoyed largely of the refreshing showers of the Holy Spirit.

Some of our congregations have manifested an increased liberality to the various benevolent enterprises of the Church. For these evidences that the Lord has been with us, and blessed the labours of his servants, we "thank God, and take courage."

Other congregations under our care, however, have come far short of their duty in contributing to the various Boards of the Church. For this we feel sorry. We offer for them this slight apology: that they have been destitute of pastors to lay their duty before them, and to give them opportunities to manifest their willingness to sustain the expenses of the Church; but now that they have all been supplied with pastors, it is hoped that they will all come up to their duty.

We make the following report of the more important proceedings of our Presbytery since our last annual report:

Receptions.—M. M. Gibson, probationer, from Presbytery of Philadelphia, W. C. Dunn, probationer from Presbytery of Michigan, Rev. H. H. Thompson, from Presbytery of the Lake.

Dismissal.—Rev. I. N. Laughead was dismissed to connect with the Presbytery of Keokuk.

Calls accepted.—M. M. Gibson, from the congregation of Sidney; Rev. James Rodgers from Cannonsburg and Leipsic; W. C. Dunn, from Huntsville and Roundhead; Rev. H. H. Thompson, from Urbana; J. W. Taylor, from Sugar Run and Darby.

Call Rejected.—By G. G. Mitchell, from the united charge of Huntsville and Roundhead.

Ordinations and Installations.—M. M. Gibson, on the 21st of July, 1864, over the congregation of Sidney; Rev. James Rogers, in October, 1864, over the united charge of Cannonsburg and Leipsic; W. C. Dunn, on the 12th of April, 1865, over the united charge of Huntsville and Roundhead.

Deaths.—Rev. T. H. Dysart, pastor of the Urbana congregation, in August, 1864.

Licensures.—W. A. Hutchison, April 12th, 1865.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA.

The members of this Presbytery have been pursuing the work committed to their charge with a good degree of encouragement.

While our country has made calls for men, and many have entered its service, there is the consoling fact that the working material is not exhausted.

The regular attendance on divine service on Sabbath,—the readiness to observe days of fasting, humiliation, prayer and of thanksgiving, appointed by Church and State, the appropriateness of the prayers of the people to the condition of our country and the wants of the Church:—these are beacons of hope for our country, the cause of God and humanity.

The lives of all our ministers have been spared, and without change, except Brother Craig, who has, for some time past, been serving as chaplain in our army.

During our late meeting at Portland, Wm. G. Spencer, licentiate of Xenia Presbytery, was received, duly ordained and installed pastor of Portland congregation, and enters upon his work among that persevering and energetic people, with favourable prospects of extensive usefulness.

We propose to sustain our teacher in the Freedmen's mission at Nashville during another year.

Presbytery recommend the adoption of the Directory for Worship now in vogue.

Sabbath schools are in operation, and well sustained in most of our congregations.

That the Head of the church may preside in all your deliberations, is our prayer. By order of Presbytery. R. GRAY, Committee.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF STAMFORD.

On the 31st of August, Mr. John Hogg was ordained and installed pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at Port Hope. The withdrawal of the congregation from the Canada Presbyterian Church, and their subsequent union with us, have awakened a good deal of public interest, and attracted attention to our distinctive principles.

Mr. John Robertson was, on the 30th of August, received as a student of divinity from the Mercer Presbytery, and on the 13th of February was dismissed, at his own request, to place himself under the care of the Presbytery of Xenia.

The state of religion is, on the whole, encouraging. Our congregations are, at least externally, prosperous. Two of them have recently erected new places of worship, and a third is preparing to rebuild their church. Large demands have been made on the liberality of our people, to which they have generously responded.

On the Directory for Worship in vogue, the vote stood,—in favour of adoption,—Yeas,—ministers, 5; Elders, 2; Nays, 0.

On the amendment to the authorized version of the Psalms, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: 1st, "That the Pre-bytery are opposed to any changes in the present version of the Psalms now used by all the Psalm-singing Churches, with the exception of a few verbal amendments.

2d, "That to meet the demands of a large portion of the Church, the proposed new version should be compiled as soon as possible, and, when approved by the General Assembly, each congregation allowed to use one, or other, as they see fit."

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF STEUBENVILLE.

During the past year the lives and health of our ministers have been spared, and peace has been prevalent in our congregations.

Mr. Albert Caldwell, a licentiate, was dismissed with a certificate to connect with the Presbytery of the Lake, and is now ordained and settled. Mr. Joseph Clokey, Jr., was received from the Presbytery of Xenia, and shortly after was ordained and installed pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, Steubenville. Rev. James Golden has been installed pastor of Yellow Creek. Rev. John W. Martin has been released from the pastoral charge of Carrollton, North Union and Conotton. Mr. Miller, student of theology, has been usefully employed as field-agent in the Christian Commission.

Our congregations have been much interested in the Christian Commission, and especially in the Freedmen's Mission. Rev. Joseph Clokey's people are maintaining a teacher themselves. Some have gone to labour among the Freedmen; and but recently Thomas Andrews, son of Rev. Joseph Andrews; and we must not forget to say, that the devoted Miss McCulloch fell a victim to disease in this labour of love. And the Lord of hosts hath seen our sons stand up valiantly on the fields of battle: he knows, too, the sad hearts at home. His will be done; for he hath worked wonders for us, for our nation and for his church.

For our action on overtures, see special reports. { JOSEPH CLOKEY, JR., Mod.
Respectfully submitted. { J. M. JAMIESON, S. Clk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF VERMONT.

No changes of great importance have taken place in this Presbytery during the past year. Our oldest and largest congregation has been considerably diminished by removals of members to the West. Some of our congregations have contributed with increased liberality. Attendance on the ordinances of the gospel continues good, and there have been accessions of members in all our congregations. We have nothing more to report on the state of religion. The congregation of Greensboro' asks the appropriation of one hundred dollars to aid in the support of their settled pastor. The Presbytery is not fully prepared to report upon the draft of a Directory for Worship and the amendments to the metrical version of the Psalms now in use. Respectfully submitted.

T. GOODWILLIE, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF WABASH.

The Presbytery of Wabash was organized on the 27th day of October, 1864, by an order of the Second Synod of the West.

At our meeting at Burnett's Creek, April 18th, 1865, Mr. G. G. Mitchell was received on certificate as a licentiate from the Presbytery of Keokuk, and Mr. J. R. Reasoner, from the Presbytery of Muskingum.

Mr. Reasoner having received and accepted a call from Burnett's Creek congregation, was ordained to the holy ministry, and installed pastor of said congregation. Mr. G. G. Mitchell was ordained at the same time and place for the more efficiently carrying on of the mission work in the city of Lafayette, where he is labouring by the appointment of the Assembly.

Mr. S. H. Weed was taken under the care of Presbytery, as a student of theology of the first year.

The attendance upon ordinances is generally as good, and in some cases perhaps better, than in former years. A good degree of peace prevails in most of our congregations; though we are sorry to say that some follow divisive courses, principally growing out of our views on slavery and our duty to the government during the war. Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings are in a prosperous condition in many of our churches. Some are still being added to our church of, as we trust, the saved. On the whole, we are encouraged to labour on in this part of the vineyard, trusting that our labours shall not be in vain in the Lord.

The members of Presbytery not having received the Directory for Worship in time for examination, were not able to vote yea or nay on it.

By order of Presbytery.

DAVID MORROW, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF WESTMORELAND.

All the members have been spared, and with one exception, have been able to minister regularly to their congregations. In September last, we were permitted to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of our father Dr. Scrogg's settlement, a very happy occasion in these days of short pastorates. Several of our number have served as delegates under the Christian Commission.

Receptions.—We have received on certificate from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Rev. T. F. Boyd, who has accepted a call to Laurel Hill. But the installation has not yet taken place. Also, W. M. Graham, on certificate from Cone-maugh Presbytery.

Calls.—Rev. O. Katz has accepted the call for one-third his time from Apollo congregation, indicating that the appropriations of the Assembly have not been in vain. The mission station at Connellsville will form part of Rev. Mr. Boyd's charge.

Stations.—Penn Station, for which aid was received last year, has failed:—the population requiring a resident missionary. It is not yet large enough to justify it.

Releases.—Rev. W. L. McConnell was released from the charge of Sewickley and West Newton, on account of ill health, December 27th, 1864. At the same time, Rev. J. D. Walkinshaw was released from Beulah and Union.

Rev. J. Kelso now gives the whole of his labours to Unity congregation, and McKeesport enjoys the undivided ministry of Rev. A. H. Elder.

A new congregation was organized at Braddock's Fields, July 22d, 1864, under flattering prospects. Brother Fulton is their stated supply for half time.

Our congregations have not materially increased, but, in general, enjoy peace, and show a good degree of interest in the ordinances of the gospel. An increasing liberality has been shown in larger contributions for the Boards of the church, and other benevolent movements, and in a more generous support of their pastors.

The department has generally been good,—there being but four cases of discipline, during the year, in a membership of almost fifteen hundred.

There are Sabbath schools in a majority of our congregations, while the interest in them and their usefulness seems to be increasing.

Prayer-meetings are sustained in the villages and denser populations; but the interest in them languishes.

On the whole, we report that the past year, with all the distractions of interests and the war, has been one of encouragement to our pastors.

The attention of the Assembly is called to the following action of the Presbytery in reference to special agents:—"Whereas, the general policy of the church is opposed to the employment of special agents; and whereas, it is believed that the employment of agents by one Board operates to the injury of others, in bringing its claims before the church with a disproportionate prominence; therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to direct the Board of Church Extension to discontinue their employment."

Also, to the following on the law of Beneficence, Resolved, "That this Presbytery memorialize the General Assembly, asking the appointment of a committee to investigate and report upon this subject."

On the amendments to the Psalms we report as follows:—Resolved, "That in our judgment the proposed amendments to the Psalms are more extensive than required. All that we think is necessary are such amendments as may be made by the Board of Publication, in a carefully edited edition."

The vote on the Directory for Worship is Ayes, 18; Nays, 0.

By order of Presbytery.

J. GIVEN, Moderator.

J. D. WALKINSHAW, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF WHEELING.

Our routine affairs remain substantially unchanged since our last report. We have felt some of the effects of the shaking of these times and some have been shaken by them.

Our people generally give evidence of their attachment to the cause of Christ as maintained by us. Attendance upon ordinances,—public, social and family,—the interest manifested in the training of our youth, and their promise of growing up under the influences brought to bear upon them in the family, the Sabbath school and the ordinary administration of the gospel,—give us hope in regard to the rising generation. Still we have some reason to fear that iniquity abounds, and the love of many waxes cold.

J. T. McCLURE, Clerk,

R. G. CAMPBELL, Moderator.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF WISCONSIN.

At our organization, held in Buffalo congregation, October 12th, 1864, Rev. William Smith was installed pastor of said congregation. Two calls lie on our table addressed to Mr. Isaac A. Wilson, licentiate of Wheeling Presbytery, from the congregations of Vernon and Lisbon. Mr. Wilson has not made known to Presbytery his mind respecting said calls. (Privately it is understood that he will not accept either of them.) It is earnestly hoped that these congregations will soon succeed in securing pastors to labour with them.

Our supplies have all filled their appointments or reported to the Chairman of the Committee of Supplies, except J. T. Pollock, whom we have not heard from at all, and consequently Lisbon and Ashupin were entirely destitute during the third quarter, and Vernon is likely to be this quarter.

As respects the State of Religion in our bounds, we have nothing special to report. In most of our congregations, Sabbath schools and prayer-meetings have been kept during the year, and though no marked result is visible, we trust the good seed thus sown will, by the influence of the Holy Spirit, bring forth much fruit to eternal life. The attendance on preaching has generally been good.

Overtures from the last General Assembly.—The "Directory for Worship" was considered at our late meeting, and on the motion "to adopt as a whole," Presbytery voted, no. The following amendments are proposed, and express in substance what Presbytery thinks the Directory requires to make it acceptable and profitable to the church of Christ. Chap. 1, Sec. 6. After the phrase, "singing of Psalms," insert, and when necessary, visiting, &c.

Chap. 3. Add another section as follows: It is recommended that each person who can read have a Bible in his hand and follow the minister while reading.

Chap. 5, Sec. 4. After the word "beforehand," amend so as to read, "to engage in it in a brief, comprehensive, and profitable manner; and that the audience assume the position of humble suppliants by either standing or kneeling."

Chap. 8, Sec. 3. After the semicolon, amend so as to read; "And, that the people may be instructed in its nature, two days be set apart for preparation, and one of these for fasting, humiliation and prayer: and that Monday be observed as a day of thanksgiving; so that all may attend to this holy feast in a suitable and profitable manner."

Chap. 10. Amend by adding another section as follows: It is also the duty of ruling elders to be diligent in visiting the sick, both those belonging to their own charge and others, to speak to the afflicted of their spiritual condition, read some suitable portion of God's word, and pray with them, if opportunity offer; and to inform their pastor of such cases as need his special attention.

Chap. 14, Sec. 1. Strike out the words, "whenever circumstances will permit," and insert, "unless unavoidable circumstances hinder."

2. Amendments to our present version of Psalms.—Owing to the time these amendments were published, we were unable to act as directed by the last General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, by order of Presbytery, J. C. ELLIOTT, Clerk.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF XENIA.

Received.—Joseph Collins, from the Presbytery of the Lakes; as students of Theology, Joseph Leiper, George Beattie of the 2d year, and John Robertson of the 3d year.—Licensed John Robertson, H. P. Jackson and Pollock M'Nary.

A call from the congregation of Cedarville addressed to J. W. Haney, of the Presbytery of Muskingum, was sustained.

Dismissed:—E. Currie to the 1st Presbytery of Ohio, J. W. Clokey to the Presbytery of Steubenville, David Gordon to the Presbytery of Philadelphia, J. R. Kyle to the Presbytery of St. Louis, W. G. Spencer to the Presbytery of Southern Indiana.

State of religion:—It appears from reports made to Presbytery by several of our congregations, that the state of religion in our bounds is favorable, at least, so far as relates to the external evidence of progress.

The attendance on public ordinances is good, with very few exceptions, and our congregations are generally increasing in the number of their memberships.

Prayer-meetings are well attended, and Sabbath Schools are in a flourishing condition—Peace and harmony prevail among our people, and a good degree of liberality is shown by their contributions to the various funds of the church.

But whilst we would thank God for his great kindness to us and for whatever of good may be seen among us, we would also confess our many short-comings in duty and our need of the reviving power of the spirit of all grace.

Action on the Overtures.—On the Directory for Worship, as overtured,—ayes 7; nays, 0. On proposed amendments to present version of Psalms, as overtured, ayes 7; nays, 0.

Accompanying this report, are papers showing the changes which Presbytery desires to have made in the directory and in the proposed amendments to the Psalms. Respectfully submitted.

By order of Presbytery,

R. B. EWING, Clerk.

A. Beveridge, Jr., dec'd..... $17 41

Respectfully submitted,

MONMOUTH, ILL., May 2, 1865.

The above balance has been reduced $1058 54, for payment of a $1000 5-20 United States bond, ordered at the March meeting of the Board. The money to be invested in the bond on receipt of the bequest of Alex. Blair, deceased. The proceeds of the $1000 reached me on the 28th of April. The account was closed on the 30th of April. The 5-20 bond did not reach me, from New York, until the 8th of May. Hence the large balance reported at the close of the account.

LETTER FROM THE FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

The following communication has been received since the adjournment of the Assembly. As it is the expression of the sentiment and sympathy of a large and respectable sister church in a matter of present interest, the committee having in charge the publication of the Minutes, have concluded to give it a place in the appendix.

The committee, however, deem it due to the past history and well-known position of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, to say that there are parts of this communication which were evidently written for churches that have sustained a relation to slavery different from that of the United Presbyterian Church. If there have been any "divergence of sentiment and action" as to this question between these two churches, the committee are very sure that it has not arisen from any failure on the part of the United Presbyterian Church to testify against the system of slavery in all its forms.

COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

Free Church Offices, North Bank Street, }
EDINBURGH, June 30, 1865. }

To the Clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—Herewith I have the pleasure of transmitting to you, for the Supreme Court of your Church, an address from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland. Allow me to request the favour of your having it brought under the notice of that Court in the manner most agreeable to its forms and practice. Believe me, dear sir, with Christian regard,

Yours truly,

H. WELLWOOD MONCREIFF,

Principal Clerk of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland.

Address Sir Henry Wellwood Moncreiff, Bart., D. D., Free Church Offices, North Bank Street, Edinburgh.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America:

DEAR CHRISTIAN BRETHREN:—We take advantage of the meeting of our General Assembly at present convened, to greet you cordially in the name of the Lord.

We feel constrained to do so in consequence of the singularly momentous character of recent events in your country, and of their mighty influence on your respective churches. It may be premature to say much, as the echoes of war have scarcely yet died away, and the future may be, in other ways, as eventful as these four years of conflict; but, without anticipating Providence, we have a plain Christian duty to discharge in consequence of what falls already within the province of history.

God has assuredly been speaking to your country by terrible things in righteousness. The ploughshare of war has gone deep into the soul of your people. You have been long familiar with scenes of bloodshed such as the world never saw before, and we pray God, if consistent with His holy will, it may never witness again. But, even in this respect, good has come out of evil; for the agony and ruin of war have opened up to you many new fields of Christian philanthropy. We refer in particular to the work of your "Christian Commission," with its rich provision for the temporal and spiritual wants of your soldiers and sailors; and we hope that all churches shall profit by this noble exhibition of Christian love in a singularly arduous and self-sacrificing sphere of labour.

We have special pleasure in referring to the sympathy lately awakened on behalf of America among all classes in Britain, by the assassination of your great and good President; and we adore the Most High, who has thus turned one of the blackest crimes of our age into a means of softening down asperities of feeling, of correcting grave misunderstandings, of fusing the hearts of nations in love, above all, of calling forth in full measure the prayers of Christ's people on this side of the Atlantic in behalf of your sorely-stricken land. We rejoice that your country is to have rest from war, and that the restoration of peace is to be followed by the abolition of slavery. No words could better express our views than those of your lamented President, written in April, 1864. "I claim not to have controlled events, but confess plainly that events have controlled me. Now, at the end of three years' struggle the nation's condition is not what either party or any man devised or expected. God alone can claim it. Whither it is tending seems plain. If God now wills the removal of a great wrong, and wills also that we of the North, as well as you of the South shall pay fairly for our complicity in that wrong, impartial history will find therein new causes to attest and revere the justice and goodness of God." The divergence of sentiment and action formerly existing between you and us as to this question thus ceases, and we give the glory to Him who is righteous in all his ways and Holy in all His works. As there is really nothing now to prevent a complete and cordial understanding between the British and the American churches, we take the earliest possible opportunity of giving utterance to this conviction and desire of our hearts. Our prayers shall rise with yours to the throne of grace in asking for your rulers and your people all heavenly wisdom in dealing with one of the weightiest social problems ever presented to any country for solution. We shall watch with the liveliest interest the future history of the negro race within your borders; and you have our best wishes for the success of every scheme bearing on their temporal or spiritual welfare. We are by no means forgetful of our former share of national guilt as to negro slavery, and it would ill become us to judge you harshly or unadvisedly; but it is right and proper that we should encourage you by our British experience; for the abolition of slavery in our West India Islands removed a great stumbling-block out of our path;—it led to a marked quickening of the public conscience, it gave our country a far higher Christian place among the nations, and it enabled all the churches to proclaim with fulness and sincerity the gospel of salvation through Him who came to undo the heavy burdens and to break every yoke. We have no doubt that your churches will be ready to follow where Providence now points out the way.

As the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, we have every cause to reciprocate sentiments of brotherly kindness and charity towards members of the same Presbyterian family with ourselves. We must all feel the necessity for closer fellowship between churches that have a common language, a common ancestry,—a common faith. Presbyterianism would thereby become vastly more influential for good. It would bulk more largely in the eye of Christendom, and every section of our ecclesiastical commonwealth would get enlargement of heart by partaking of the heritage of truth and grace common to all. We beg to add, that the greatest advantage would follow from the occasional visits of accredited deputies from your churches to us and from us to you. We have much to learn from your varied schemes of Christian usefulness in dealing with a state of society so different from ours; and we know, from the testimony of Dr. Duff and many others, that in the field of heathenism there are no missionaries of more truly apostolic spirit than those sent forth by the churches of America. You on your part might also find it not unprofitable to study the working of Presbyterianism in Scotland, fragrant as our beloved country is with the memories of the martyrs, and earnestly contending, as it still does, for the faith once delivered to the saints. We must not forget, however, that there are other churches beyond the circle of Presbyterianism, with which we desire to cultivate a spirit of concord, and from the field of whose experience we seek to gather like precious fruit. Let us all provoke one another to love and to good works. Let us strive, as in the fire, to prevent, at any subsequent time, the possibility of estrangement between our respective nations. Let us pray that the same blessed spirit poured down so largely on your land during the period of your revival, may become the living bond of unity and peace between us. And let us ever realize the solemn fact that humanly speaking, the Christian interests of the world hang mainly on the efforts put forth by Christ's people in Great Britain and America.

And now, dear brethren, we beseech the God of all grace to overrule these shakings of the nations for the upbuilding of that kingdom which cannot be moved; and we affectionately commend you to Him who will give strength to his people, and who will bless his people with peace. For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things;—to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Signed in name and by authority of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, at Edinburgh, the thirtieth day of May, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, by

JAMES BEGG, D. D.,

Moderator of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland.

DIRECTIONS FOR CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The rules of the General Assembly, or the usage of such bodies, require certain duties of the stated Clerks of Presbyteries. The following summary is given for the convenience of those whose inexperience may render it desirable.

I. Furnish the Commissioners to the General Assembly with a Commission, according to the model in the form of government; and state on the face of the Commission the number of ministers in the Presbytery.

II. Forward in due time to the Assembly, the Presbyterial Report and the Statistical Table, both properly authenticated.

1. THE PRESBYTERIAL REPORT.

(1.) This report should contain, in a connected form, ready for the printer, whatever the Presbytery desires to have published as its report. A disjointed document is inconvenient, and portions of it are very liable to be lost.

(2.) By a rule of the Assembly, Presbyteries are required to furnish separate duplicates of so much of their reports as refers to the narrative and state of religion, whatever relates to matters in overture, all memorials to the Assembly, and in general, any thing that may require reference to committees in the Assembly. These duplicates should be on separate papers, and properly endorsed for the convenience of the Assembly in referring them to distinct committees.

2. THE STATISTICAL TABLE.

(1.) The Clerk, if he has no printed blank, should make the table after the form adopted in the published Minutes. Blank forms, both for Presbyteries and Sessions, can be had gratis, by applying to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

(2.) Make the report in fair, distinct writing, especially the figures, the columns of which should be straight, and avoid all erasures and interlineations.

(3.) Place the name of every church opposite the name of its pastor, or stated supply, or if vacant, at the foot of the roll.

(4.) Make the table as full and accurate as possible. If a Church fail to report, it is desirable that the number of its communicants be given as reported to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants denoting the fact.

(5.) Except in the "average" column, report dollars only. Cents cannot be published, and are a great annoyance to the printer and publishing committee.

(6.) Give the names of Licentiates, Students of Theology and Correspondents for Vacancies.

(7.) Designate the Clerks of Presbyteries, Financial Agents and Stated Supplies with the appropriate abbreviations.

(8.) Put the Post Offices of "Ministers without charge," in the first column in connexion with their names, and thus avoid confounding them with the Post Offices of Vacancies.

(9.) ADD UP every column, giving the number of pastors, unsettled ministers, licentiates, students and congregations, &c., and also put down the average per member, for the whole Presbytery.

(10.) Affix no extraneous matter—nothing that is not to be published, except the certification of the Clerk.

(11.) Fold the table by doubling it first perpendicularly, and then twice in the other direction; and finally, endorse it neatly. This may appear to some, a trivial matter, but it is important to those who have much to do with the tables.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PRESBYTERIES GIVEN BY SUCCESSIVE GENERAL ASSEMBLIES.

PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE ASSEMBLY.

From the Minutes of the Second General Assembly, 1860:

Resolved, That the Assembly deprecates, and hereby expresses its unqualified disapprobation of the course pursued by members in absenting themselves from the Assembly, except in cases of extreme emergency; and recommend to Presbyteries the election as commissioners of such members as pledge themselves (God willing) to remain and attend closely to the business during the entire meeting."—Pp. 19, 20.

Extract from Report on plan of raising money.

"Each Assembly shall declare the minimum sum necessary to meet the wants of each Board for the year.

"Each Presbytery shall raise, as nearly as possible, the proportion of these sums falling to it, according to the number of its membership, and shall cause their contributions to be promptly made, and paid over at the time ordered by the Assembly.

"The contributions of the Presbyteries shall be paid over to the Treasurers of the Boards, in quarterly instalments, on or before the first days of July, October, January and April.

"Each Presbytery shall appoint a Treasurer, to whom the contributions of the congregations to all the Boards shall be paid, who shall receipt to the congregations for the same, and forward it to the Treasurers of the Boards at the time appointed. The Treasurers of the Boards may not receive contributions from congregations directly.

"The delegates from each Presbytery shall nominate, and the Assembly annually appoint, a member of each Presbytery Financial Agent for the same, who shall be the medium for correspondence between the Boards and the Presbyteries, and who shall be charged with the special duty of seeing to it that the will of the Assembly is fully carried out in each Presbytery.

"The Treasurers of the Boards shall, within two weeks after the quarterly instalments become due, publish in the papers of the church a statement of the amounts received from each Presbytery. And Presbyterial Treasurers shall, in the same manner, announce the contributions of the congregations, each of his own Presbytery.

"The Presbyteries are hereby called upon to do what they can to train the people of their congregations to habits of liberality, and to secure contributions, as nearly as possible, up to the measure of the wants of the church, and the law of Christianity, according to any plan they may judge best suited to accomplish the object.

"The financial year shall always close with the 30th of April."

"The Board [of Home Missions] would present, for the consideration of the Assembly, the following question: Are Presbyteries responsible for the full payment of supplies sent, by the request of the delegate, into their bounds by the Assembly, if they being on the ground and ready for service?*

Resolved. That when any Presbytery settles a missionary who has appointments unfulfilled in other Presbyteries, it shall be the duty of that Presbytery to supply his place out of the appointments made to them.

Resolved. That we call the especial attention of vacancies, missionary stations, and pastoral charges dependent on the Home Missionary Fund, to the fact that in order to secure aid they must comply with the regulations of this Board, which require each congregation or unorganized nucleus to raise and forward annually, contributions to that fund, and also a statement of their general condition."—P. 61.

From the Minutes of the Third General Assembly, 1861:

Resolved, That Presbyteries be enjoined, in making their reports to the General Assembly, to furnish separate duplicates of so much of their reports as refers to the state of religion, whatever relates to matters in overture, all memorials to the Assembly, and in general, any thing that may require reference to committees in the Assembly."—P. 5.

* It was understood that this question was answered in the affirmative, although it is not in the Minutes so stated.

"Resolved, That inasmuch as Presbyteries have given up the control of the missionaries reported by them to the Board, they be, and hereby are, enjoined to give no appointments to missionaries under appointments to other Presbyteries, unless some arrangements have been made with those Presbyteries through the Executive Committee (of the Board of Home Missions) or otherwise.—P. 8.

"Resolved, While in all ordinary cases the Presbyteries must, in the very nature of the case, be responsible for the character of the beneficiaries of the Board (of Education,) and while Presbyteries are urgently solicited to be careful to recommend only such young men as have the prescribed qualifications; yet the Board shall not, knowingly, furnish aid to any young man who lacks the prescribed qualifications, even though he be recommended by a Presbytery."—P. 10.

"Resolved, That Financial Agents and all others having funds in their possession belonging to the Home Mission Fund, transmit or report the same to the Treasurer of the Board on or before the first of July, October, January and April, and the Executive Committee having ascertained the amount at their disposal, declare a dividend to the Presbyteries in proportion to the appropriation granted them on or before the 20th day of the same months; namely, July, October, January and April; these sums being used by the respective Presbyteries in the payment of orders granted by the Executive Committee of the Board as heretofore."—P. 12.

"Resolved, That the Assembly recognizes it as the duty of Presbyteries which have asked and obtained missionaries from the Board of Home Missions, and thereby prevented their receiving appointments in other Presbyteries, to employ them, and to the extent of their ability remunerate them."—P. 13.

"Resolved, That the next General Assembly be constituted on the basis of representation recognized in our proposed Book of Government and Discipline.—P. 14.

The following extract (Sec. 2, Chap. ix., page 20,) is the basis of representation above referred to:

"The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of ministers and ruling elders from each Presbytery in the following proportion, viz.: Each Presbytery consisting of not more than seven ministers, shall be entitled to send one minister and one ruling elder; each Presbytery consisting of more than seven ministers, and not more than fourteen, shall be entitled to send two ministers and two ruling elders; each Presbytery consisting of more than fourteen ministers and not more than twenty-one, shall be entitled to send three ministers and three ruling elders; and in a like proportion for any number of ministers beyond twenty-one; and delegates, so appointed, shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly."

"Resolved, That the Clerks of Presbyteries be instructed to use all possible diligence to secure reliable statistics from all congregations, settled and vacant, and all mission stations within their respective territorial limits, stating positively to elders or commissioners, that all who do not furnish them at the proper time, with the necessary items for making a complete report, shall be left an absolute blank in the statistical tables of the Presbytery."—P. 17.

"Presbyteries shall report the names of such men, and only such, as in their judgment are suitable to be employed as missionaries, and such as are willing to labour wherever the Board may send them.

"No man shall be reported by his Presbytery, or receive aid from the Home Mission Fund, who is not exclusively engaged in the work of the ministry.

"That rule 17th, authorizing the settlement of pastors on the sliding scale, be, and hereby is, repealed.

"All Home Mission Funds shall be transmitted or reported immediately to the Treasurer of that Fund, appointed by the Assembly.

"As far as practicable, persons receiving aid from the Home Mission Fund shall not be appointed to represent the Presbytery to which they belong in this Board."—P. 28.

From Minutes of the Fourth General Assembly, 1862:

"Presbyteries shall carefully examine, as to their doctrinal views, all ministers and licentiates from other denominations, applying for admission to this church, and they shall subject those admitted from foreign churches to a probation of not less than six months previously to their settlement over any congregation.”—P. 18. Adopted in overture in 1863; ayes 411; nays, 56; see minutes of Fifth Assembly.—P. 18.

“Resolved, That Presbyteries are enjoined to report more fully than they have heretofore done on the following points:

Names of licentiates, students of theology, and correspondents for vacancies, designate the clerk of Presbytery, financial agent, and stated supply by the appropriate abbreviations.

“Resolved, That clerks of Presbyteries are requested to be careful and not confound the Post Offices of vacancies with those of unsettled ministers; also that they report dollars only in their statistics, and add up the columns ready for publication.”—P. 21.

“Resolved, That the Executive Committee be instructed to prepare and furnish the clerks of Presbyteries printed blanks touching the points on which information is desired by the Board of Home Missions; which blanks shall be filled and returned to the Secretary, at least three weeks before the meeting of the Board.

“Resolved, That no Presbytery shall be allowed to withhold from this Board or to divert to any other purpose any part of the contributions of their congregations to the Home Mission Fund.”—P. 30.

From the Minutes of the Fifth General Assembly, 1863:

“Resolved, That Presbyteries are hereby enjoined to consider what in their judgment is the best mode of fostering a spirit of systematic beneficence in the congregations under their care, and endeavour to carry it into practice, and report their mode of operation and success to the next General Assembly.”—P. 11.

“Resolved, That the respective Presbyteries represented in this Assembly be directed to make an apportionment of the claims of this Board [of Education] in connexion with the claims of other Boards of the church, among all their congregations, and to see that these claims are respected.

“Resolved, To guard against lowering the standard of literary attainments on the part of the ministry, that Presbyteries be enjoined to exercise great carefulness and thoroughness in examination of candidates for the study of theology, especially in cases where the candidate cannot present a diploma from any College authorized to confer degrees.”—P. 16.

“Resolved, That the Clerk of each Presbytery be directed to state on the face of credentials to the Assembly, the number of ministers in his Presbytery.”—P. 28.

“With reference to the failure of missionaries to fulfil their appointments,—“Resolved, That the attention of Presbyteries and missionaries be called to the action of the Assembly of 1861 on this subject, with the distinct understanding that such delinquent missionaries or Presbyteries shielding such may expect to be reported to the Assembly.”—Pp. 32, 33.

“In order to promote the wide circulation of the publications of our Board, each Synod or Presbytery should establish a depository in its own bounds, appointing some suitable person to superintend its affairs.”—P. 43.

From the Minutes of the Sixth General Assembly, 1864:—

“Resolved, That the Clerk of each Presbytery furnish the Secretary of the Executive Committee the exact amount contributed during the year to this Board (Home Mission,) and that the Secretary furnish the next Assembly with the delinquency of each Presbytery.”—P. 20.

“Resolved, That we regret the tardiness of the churches to obey the repeated requests of the Assembly to take up collections for this important cause, (Church Extension,) and hereby solemnly enjoin it upon all the Presbyteries to take some action whereby our directions may be more generally and faithfully executed.”—P. 25.

“In the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Memorial of Jos. M. Wilson, the last resolution is as follows: That in order to the fulfilment of the objects contemplated, the Presbyteries be enjoined to make inquiries from time to time, testing the diligence of the churches in replying to the questions contained in this Overture.”—P. 32.

“Presbyteries are directed to recommend to the congregations under their care, receiving missionary labour, as far as possible to pay missionaries at the rate of $10 per week.

“All other ministers unemployed as missionaries of this Board, shall not be considered as embraced in this rule, and the amount of their compensation is left to the Presbyteries.

"In all cases, the mission station or vacancy in which the missionary labours, shall carefully endeavour to designate, as far as possible, a fixed and convenient boarding place for him during the time of service in their midst; and the Presbyteries shall endeavour to see that this regulation is faithfully carried out.

"In cases of special necessity for missionary service, as in some of the frontier Presbyteries, the Board recommend an appropriation of money to be made for general missionary purposes; it being understood that the work of exploration, and of visiting distant and important stations be done by an ordained minister, appointed either by the Presbytery, or by the executive committee at the request of the Presbytery.—And further, it is recommended that the appointment of a man to fill the place of a settled minister, who may be employed in the work above specified, be left with the Executive Committee.

"Whenever a missionary is appointed to a Presbytery at its request, Presbytery shall be required to make up to him for any failures there may be in it to give him appointments; and, in case the missionary fail to appear, the Presbytery shall report it to the next meeting of the Board.

"It shall be the duty of each Presbytery to appoint a person to superintend the missionary work in its bounds, and all missionaries under appointments of the Board of Home Missions, shall be required to make a quarterly report to the person so appointed, who shall condense these reports and forward them immediately to the secretary of the Board, who shall revise and prepare for publication such portions of them, or facts contained in them, as he may deem calculated to instruct the church.

"We recommend to missionaries the importance of fidelity to their appointments; and to Presbyteries, not to give work to missionaries outside their field of appointment, except in cases where satisfactory arrangements have been made for an exchange of labour.

"In all cases where missionaries fail to fulfil appointments without being excused by the Presbyteries to whose bounds they are assigned, their names shall be reported to this Board to be published before the church.

"When Presbyteries settle missionaries who have unfulfilled appointments in other Presbyteries, and fail to furnish substitutes, the names of such delinquent Presbyteries shall be reported to the Board for Publication."—Pp. 42, 43.

From the Minutes of the Seventh General Assembly, 1865:—

"Resolved, That Presbyteries be enjoined to require of all the congregations, settled and vacant, under their care, respectively, to report at each successive spring meeting, whether they have contributed to each of the funds of the church. If any of their congregations fail to report, or state that they have not responded to each of the funds, the Presbytery shall then pass an opinion according to the case, and make a record of the same. Further, the Presbyteries shall note in their annual reports to the Assembly, whether they have thus called their congregations to account."

For Instructions to Clerks of Presbyteries, see Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly, 1863, 1864, and 1865.

STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly to superintend the publication of the Minutes, would express the hope that the printed edition here presented will prove to be more than usually satisfactory to the brethren. Every effort has been made to guard against inaccuracies of any kind. Some will, doubtless, be found. It is believed, however, that they will be traceable to the illegibility or other defects in the manuscript. It is very much to be regretted, that those who draft reports and other documents for the Assembly, should sometimes discharge this duty in such a hurried and careless manner. If papers were always printed precisely as written, their authors would sometimes feel sadly ashamed of their own productions.

We sincerely hope that the next Assembly will, through a committee appointed for that purpose, furnish the Committee of Publication with a corrected roll of the ministers of the Church, and such other items of information as may be thought to be useful for reference. These things could be more accurately and readily obtained during the sessions of the Assembly. Some have, no doubt, thought that the Minutes should have made their appearance at an earlier day. The Committee, however, have done what they could to bring them before the Church as soon as possible. The price fixed by the Committee (60 cts. or $6.00 per dozen,) is in accordance with the direction of the Assembly that they be sold at the cost of publication."

We learn, from a letter just received, that the appointments assigned in the printed copy to J. B. Whitten, in the "Distribution of Missionaries" are those of J. D. Whitham.

It is believed that the Board of Foreign Missions was "authorized to publish its annual report, with such other information of our missions as may be contained in a brief space in a pamphlet form;" and that a recommendation to this effect was reported to the Assembly by the Committee on Foreign Missions and adopted by the Assembly. Such a recommendation is not in the copy of the Report in possession of the clerk. This resolution, together with the one expressing the thanks of the Assembly to the societies and persons mentioned in the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions for special contributions, did not come into the hands of the clerk.
